

WOLGAST BATTLES 6 ROUNDS TO DRAW

Champion Returns to Ring and Gives Brown Some Stinging Blows.

FIGHT BITTER FROM GONG

"Knockout" Brown Shows Cadillac Led Few Pointers About Fight Game—Referee Compelled to Caution Wolgast.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, and "Knockout" Brown, of New York, fought a hard six-round draw before the American Athletic Club in this city tonight.

Although the New Yorker had a slight advantage in a majority of rounds, his blows lacked steam compared with those of the champion. Wolgast seemed unable to fathom the peculiar style of Brown and the latter many times landed on Wolgast's head and body with not a return.

Wolgast tried all tricks of the trade to reach his opponent, rushing and reaching to such an extent that he was warned by the referee on different occasions.

Brown at His Best.

Brown never fought a better battle during his career, while the showing of the champion, especially in the early rounds, was a disappointment. As Wolgast became more accustomed to Brown's style he fought in much better form.

Piggies Stanley, champion bantamweight of England, was defeated by Tommy O'Toole, of this city; Joe Jeannette had the advantage of Jim Barry and Jim Carroll, and the latter defeated Young O'Leary, of New York, in the preliminaries.

When Wolgast and Brown entered the ring the immense American Athletic Club was little more than half filled.

Both Lads in Condition.

Both boys appeared to be in the pink of condition, especially the champion. Little time was wasted in adjusting the gloves.

It was announced that both men were under the stipulated weight of 125 pounds. The fight by rounds follows:

Round 1.

Brown was first to land and sent two right fists to the champion's head. Wolgast sent a right fist to the neck and then swung a hard right to the neck and the head and jabbed a right to the chest.

Wolgast sent two hard lefts to the body and a right to the face. Brown swung his left to the head and then put it on the body. Wolgast missed a right to the head and a left to the head. Brown had a slight edge in the round.

Brown reached the face and body with a left and right and Wolgast threw both hands to the stomach. Brown swung a hard right to the chest and then hooked a left to the jaw. Wolgast sent a left to the chest and a right to the head and jabbed a right to the chest. Wolgast sent two hard lefts to the body and a right to the face. Brown swung his left to the head and then put it on the body. Wolgast missed a right to the head and a left to the head. Brown had a slight edge in the round.

Round 3.

They rushed to a clinch and wrestled across the ring. Wolgast sent a hard right to the side and put both hands to the body. Brown swung a hard right to the face without a return. Brown jabbed three rights to the mouth and sent a left to the side. Wolgast sent a left to the side and a right to the face and then they rushed to a clinch. Brown jabbed two rights to the face and then sent a hard left to the side. Wolgast sent a hard left to the side.

Round 4.

They exchanged lefts and rights to the body. Brown swung a hard right to the side and a left to the side. Wolgast sent a hard right to the body and a left to the side. Brown swung a hard right to the face and then they rushed to a clinch. Brown jabbed two rights to the face and then sent a hard left to the side. Wolgast sent a hard left to the side.

Round 5.

Brown put a hard left on Wolgast's ear and the latter sent three short rights to Brown's body. Brown sent a right to the head and Wolgast put a right to the side. Wolgast was warned by the referee to stop when Wolgast sent a right to the side. Wolgast sent a hard left to the face and a right to the side. Brown swung a hard right to the face and then they rushed to a clinch. Brown jabbed two rights to the face and then sent a hard left to the side. Wolgast sent a hard left to the side.

Round 6.

Brown drove both hands to the face and Wolgast tipped back into the center of the ring. In a desperate struggle in the center of the ring, Wolgast had a slight advantage. The referee was forced to separate the fighters. Wolgast sent two hard lefts to the body and a right to the face. Brown swung a hard right to the face and a left to the side. Brown swung a hard right to the face and then they rushed to a clinch. Brown jabbed two rights to the face and then sent a hard left to the side. Wolgast sent a hard left to the side.

COLUMBIA READY FOR GAME

University Five Plays Old Rivals at Y. M. C. A. Today.

Contender of winning Columbia University basketball five will take the floor this afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association for its game with Lincoln High School. The Columbias have been eagerly looking forward to meeting Lincoln at basketball. Formerly this has been caused by the reversal Lincoln gave Columbia at football.

Columbia, by its games thus far this season, has shown excellent team work, fast play and a great deal of individual playing. Lincoln began the season with one experienced man—Ray Thomas, captain and guard. Another setback came when Coach Duke, a member of the faculty, was sent to Jefferson High School. In some quarters Columbia has been conceded the basketball championship.

Fitzgerald, Finnegan, Reed and Kelly are some of the regulars who will play for Columbia. A coterie of fast substitutes may take their place and do them credit. The game will begin at 8:15. Harry Livingstone will referee.

Milton Young Will Return to Turf.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 8.—Colonel Milton Young, vice-chairman of the Kentucky Racing Commission, and one of the best known turfmen in the country, has decided to re-enter the racing game with a string of horses and campaign them on the best tracks. Colonel Young, formerly owned McGrath's farm, one of the best known thoroughbred studs in America, but retired three years ago.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION FIGHTS DRAW WITH CLEVER NEW YORK LAD.

AD WOLGAST.

M'CREIDIE TO SEE PARIS

BASEBALL MANAGER IS ANXIOUS FOR TRIP ABROAD.

Uncle of Walter May Do Worrying of Gathering of 1912 Band of Beavers, Says Nephew.

Seated in his office yesterday afternoon, and impatiently awaiting the arrival of the mail carrier with an expected bunch of "signed" contracts, Walter McCredie, amid cigar smoke, revealed in a few day dreams.

"A trip to Paris" was the iridescent hope of the baseball magnate and he voiced it in the most emphatic way. According to Walter, he is going to let the "judges" (his uncle) do the stager-at-home act next winter and shoulder all the worries attendant upon signing up the 1912 Beaver band, for Walter McCredie intends to invade the fascinating and entrancing "Gay Paris." In order to properly enjoy the proposed European, or rather Parisian, tour, he intends to buy a French dictionary and to hire Phil Nadeau or some other adept at the "parlor vom" speech to give him a course of instruction in correct Parisian "tingo" and deportment.

"I shall go to Paris. I've been in Paris, Ky., and now I am going to see what Paris, France, is like. If it is not any finer than the Kentucky place I reckon I'll be slighted to get back home. However, I've always wanted to take a trip abroad and I think it is about time I had such a trip coming to me, and it will do the 'judge' a lot of good to see what Paris is like. I've been in Paris in the past two or three years."

MUSICAL COMEDY LIKES WATER

"Three Twins" Company to Enjoy Sport With Multnomahs.

Musical comedy troupes often produce acts in which bathing costumes form a prominent part in the show, but it is seldom that a troupe can boast of any actual amphibians among the wearers of these costumes on the stage, and the "Three Twins" Company, now at the Hellig Theater, is among the few exceptions.

Scattered through the cast of the "Three Twins" Company are several expert swimmers, and these include the stars of the chorus, Evan Cummings, Bessie Clifford, the sprightly little danseuse, enjoy swimming, and so does Victor Morley, the lead.

At the invitation of Arthur Cavill, swimming instructor of the Multnomah Athletic Club, the swimmers of the "Three Twins" Company will enjoy a special swim at the Portland Swimming Bath immediately after the performance at the Hellig tonight, and it is likely that a number of the Multnomah Club swimmers will meet with the visitors.

Among the theatrical company who are aquatically inclined are: Miss Bessie Clifford, Miss Evelyn Cummings, Miss Stella Colbert, Miss Halie Cogg, Victor Morley, Earl Schwartz, R. C. DeMott, E. P. Bower, Frank Smith, Frank Leavitt, J. Frank Cook, Willard Finnagan, Reggie Morris, Harrison Garrett and Murray Bernard.

The swimming class of the "Three Twins" Company has enjoyed the use of the swimming tank at the Y. M. C. A. since they arrived in Portland Sunday and this sport seems to be the only diversion the singers get from the regular routine of show business when in the larger cities.

"PREP" ATHLETES SHIFT

Changing of Schools by Youths Rearranges Teams.

Several unlooked-for changes have been made in the future athletic map of the local "prep" schools. Youths prominent at athletics in their respective schools, have switched from one institution to another and next fall, when eligible for competition in athletics, some of the teams will be strengthened and a few weakened.

Lincoln High School has lost three of its best football men. The Day brothers, Jack and Oswald, and Bill Trine have left. Jack Day and Trine go to Washington and Oswald Day to Jefferson. They constituted the backbone of the Lincoln football team the greater part of last season.

Ted Edwards, track, basketball, football man and all-around athlete, who shone for Portland Academy for several years, has gone to Washington High School. His departure weakens Portland Academy.

By rulings of the league none of these men who are "fopped" will be eligible to take part in the spring track meet or in the league baseball games. All will be eligible for competition in dual meets or games with outside teams. George Keop, a Lincoln baseball man last spring, is at Jefferson. He entered there last fall and will be able to play this spring. It is rumored that several other changes will be made soon.

MT. ANGEL HOT AFTER GAME

College Basketball Team Meets Christian Brothers Five Saturday.

MOUNT ANGEL COLLEGE Mount Angel, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special).—The college basketball team will meet the Christian Brothers Business College aggregation on the home floor next Saturday night.

In the first game of the season the bookkeepers downed the collegians and have since sedulously proclaimed their victory at every opportunity, so that the collegians are more than anxious to play again. The Saturday following the Spartans are again scheduled to appear here. Manager Sander has been trying hard all season to make arrangements for one or more games with Columbia University, but that team seems rather shy about meeting the Angels. Mount Angel College defeated Columbia twice last year. Silverton, which the college defeated last year also refuses to play, despite their newspaper challenges, except on their own floor.

BUZUKOS WINS FROM RICHARDS

Greek Wrestler Has Easy Time in Match With Southerner.

Jack Richards, the New Orleans middleweight, who was to have thrown Peter Buzukos, the Greek wrestler, twice in one hour last night, failed for the Portland athlete won the match by placing the Southerner's shoulders to the mat in 37 minutes.

Buzukos was easily the best of the two, and the big crowd which assembled at Arion Hall enthusiastically over the victory scored by their favorite. Buzukos tossed Richards with a head scissors hold, and outgeneralized his opponent throughout the match. Instead of playing on the defensive, as is customary with wrestlers in handicap events, Richards went after Buzukos and succeeded in beating the man in spite of the handicap against him. Richards weighed 155 pounds, while Buzukos weighed 165 pounds.

EX-CHAMPION SKULLER DEAD

Local Rowing Club Hears of Demise of D. J. Galanaugh, East.

Word has been received at the Portland Rowing Club of the death of Daniel J. Galanaugh, ex-champion single sculler of the Schuykill River. He died last Wednesday at his home, 218 North Twenty-first street, Philadelphia, at the age of 34 years.

In his day Galanaugh coached the rowing crews that made up the famous "Schuykill Navy," and was also assistant to "Bob" Cook, a famous Yale coach. For years the oarsmen had a beathouse on the Schuykill, and there made experiments in manufacturing aluminum shells. At the outset the "tin tubs," as they were called, took very well, but they did not prove a success.

Galanaugh was a powerfully-built man and for one season traveled with the "Dark Secret" theatrical troupe as a strong man. He was probably one of the best known men on the Schuykill. He was known by members of the Portland Rowing Club which swam several years ago, and had often been mentioned by Dan Murphy, Portland Rowing Club coach, who died several months ago at Providence.

Mt. Angel Baseball Men Lay Plans.

MOUNT ANGEL COLLEGE, Mount Angel, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special).—It has been decided by the student body to abandon track athletics this year and devote the additional attention towards developing a strong baseball nine. Last year Mount Angel had the strongest college team in the state with the exception of the two big schools, defeating such teams as Columbia University, O. A. C., Multnomah Club and Willamette, and being defeated by but two teams. Among the old players who will be in line again are M. Melchior, Jaspers, Heysacker, Scholz, Struder and Wunderlich.

SAMIE RIGO AHEAD

Barnollar, Booth and Vanderlip Gain Another Lap.

MARATHON RUNNERS SORE

Y. M. C. A. Sprinters Take Fast Pace in Third Night of Contest—Contestants, Though Weary, Hold Up to Last.

Setting a pace faster than that of the first two nights, gaining one lap on the Tuesday night record for a total of three, Barnollar, Booth and Vanderlip were the leading runners in the Young Men's Christian Association six-day Marathon race remain in the same position as formerly after the third night's run. All three are bunched within five yards of each other. The other runners are straggling in the rear.

At times last night the half-hour race seemed more like a sprint, the contestants striking a fast pace. Just before the gun was fired ending the race the three leaders sprinted for three laps, with Barnollar carrying off the sprinting honors.

Barnollar, Mumford, Kurtz and McElroy, although far behind with no hope of gaining on the leaders, stuck gamely through the race. All are complaining of sore feet but vow they will go until the last gun is fired. Mumford, a high school boy, limping badly, was crowded into last position last night, and is also troubled with sore feet, having worn shoes too tight on Monday night.

Assuming the positions they held at the start of Tuesday's race, the men started last night. Booth and Barnollar started even, with Vanderlip two yards behind. Barnollar jumped into the lead and set a heart-breaking pace for the first few laps. Booth and Vanderlip followed and then allowed down, Barnollar still keeping the lead.

Barnollar retained the lead for the first 12 minutes, running freely. Vanderlip sprinted and took the lead, which he kept for about five minutes. Then Booth went to the front and stayed there about seven minutes, setting a fast pace while Vanderlip followed. Booth and Vanderlip were the last to finish.

Barnollar is tall and a finished runner. He seems to leap over the track and runs with a free and easy gait. Booth runs with a short, jerky stride patterned after that of Alfred Shrubb, the noted English distance runner. He is short and stockily built. Vanderlip is also tall and set a heart-breaking pace for the first few laps. Booth and Vanderlip followed and then allowed down, Barnollar still keeping the lead.

DUNNIFY WINS MATCH

PORTLAND BILLIARDIST PLAYS RINGS AROUND BRUNNER.

Several High Runs Made and Applause of Spectators Won. Wright Plays Tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—(Special).—Wilkie Dunway played rings around R. B. Brunner tonight at Wright's and won handily by the score of 159 to 97, giving him the match, 3-0.

The Northwestern champion had perfect control of the balls. His speed was good and he nursed the ivory for several long runs, completing his string with an unfinished run of 23 in the 21st inning.

His cushion bank shots again were the feature of the evening's play and his remarkable skill in making these difficult shots he was liberally applauded by the big crowd of spectators, who were impartial in their hand-clapping, as the Portland billiardist has made a host of admirers since his arrival in San Francisco because of his rascallyly demeanor and his clean-cut method of playing.

Dunway will cross cues tomorrow night with "Whitey" Wright in the hand-off at 10:30 b. k. line. The local man will play for 200 points to 150 for Dunway.

VANCOUVER TALKS BASEBALL

Idea of Independent Team Finds Favor With Fans.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special).—The bright sunny day brought out the baseball fans and started an agitation for a baseball team for Vancouver this season. Vancouver has been in the Tri-City Baseball League for several seasons, but it has not proved satisfactory, as the crowds after the first one or two games dwindle away to almost nothing and not enough money can be made to support the team.

It has been suggested that an independent team be organized, to play any and all comers, and that this would create a market for the team. The local man will play for 200 points to 150 for Dunway.

One of the wags who congregated at fanning bees, engaged "Spec" Harkness in a game of billiards with McCredie yesterday, and during the game announced "I've just completed a run of 18." McCredie replied "Well, don't run out the door when you get a match before a Bay City club. Both lads have been training hard for the bout."

Yean Gregg, engaged as a night watchman for the United States Immigration Bureau, took up his duties yesterday. Not being accustomed to city riding, Gregg left his home in the darkness of 5 A. M., and tumbled down stairs, which resulted in ruining a suit of clothes and an overcoat. Rather an expensive start, "methinks."

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL LOSES

Alco Club Basketball Team Scores 37-10 Victory.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special).—By a score of 37 to 10 the Alco Club basketball team in a fast game in the club gymnasium in this city last night. The contest was close and hard fought throughout, the club leading in the score all the time but by a narrow margin. The score at the end of the first half was 15 to 10 in favor of the clubmen. In the last half the high school lads gained two points but couldn't overcome the lead the Alco established in the first period. The line-up was as follows: Alco Club. Position. Albany H. S. Stalaker ... Point Guard ... Kanard E. Dooley ... Forward ... Kanard E. Dooley ... Forward ... M. Higbee ... Forward ... G. Crowell ... Guard ... Torbet ... Guard ... Crowell, C. Bigbee

Interest in Boxing Bouts Friday.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special).—Much interest is being manifested among fight fans in the coming bout between Kid Morrissey, of Spokane, and the reigning champion, San Francisco, Friday evening in the Auditorium. Neither one has sparred here, but both are said to be clever boxers. Bud Anderson will challenge the winner for a match March 17.

Vancouver to Play Academy.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special).—The Vancouver High School will play the Hill Military Academy, of Portland, in the Vancouver Armory, at basketball, Saturday evening. Vancouver has a winning team this year, and expects to take the game Saturday by a good score.

GOTCH LOSES TEMPER

TEMPORARY ADVANTAGE OF AMERICUS CAUSES MAD RUSH.

When Wrestlers Meet They Fall Off Platform in Struggle.—Gotch Wins Match.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 8.—World's champion wrestler Frank Gotch tonight won from Gus Schoenlein (Americus) in straight falls. The first fall came after 42 minutes and 25 seconds with a half-Nelson and crotch hold and the second in 20 minutes 20 seconds with a toe hold.

Little Gotch displayed much of his championship form. His work was inclined to be rough. This did not please the crowd and several of the Iowa farmers were hissed.

Americus was on the defensive during the greater part of the first fall. At the beginning of the second half of the contest he took the offensive and in a few minutes threw Gotch to the mat with one shoulder on the floor. The champion was infuriated and, wriggling out of the hold, rushed wildly at Americus.

The men were working on an elevated platform without ropes and when the wrestlers met, both fell to the floor three feet below. Neither was injured. A moment later Gotch again rushed Americus off the boards, while many spectators hissed.

Americus was subjected to intense pain when Gotch finally clamped a toe-hold on him. He saved the program for a couple of minutes and then forfeited the fall.

Hunt Club to Ride Saturday.

The regular semi-monthly ride among the members of the Portland Hunt Club is scheduled to take place Saturday at 2:30 P. M. This ride will be a closed paper chase and the start will be from the clubhouse on Madison Street. The hares for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Cronin and a new and pleasing course will be selected. The ride will be served at the clubhouse after the ride.

SPORTING BREVITIES

CHARLES STINGER, city ticket agent of the Southern Pacific Company, is getting into communication with all the Portland players residing east of Chicago with a view of having them come to the Coast on the Boston Red Sox special train which leaves that point February 13.

Williams had signed up about 50 billiard clubs, including over the last of the men who had placed their "John Hancock" with the Northwestern team. McCredie finds a total list of 25 billiard clubs, but only 10 of them must have fallen by the wayside.

A San Francisco paper, in playing up Hal Chase with a full page, illustrated yarn, makes a mistake by not censoring the drawing contributed by artist, for Harold is depicted as a right handed thrower as well as a billiard player, whereas the star of the diamond is left-handed.

Kid Exposito is scheduled to box Joe Veasley, of San Francisco, before the Sellwood Athletic Club Friday night, and on his showing against this fighter, Exposito expects to get a match before a Bay City club. Both lads have been training hard for the bout.

La Grande Minister Resigns to Be Raiser of Fruit.

LA GRANDE, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special).—Back to the farm is the decision of Rev. Ford Ellis, pastor of the local Central Church of Christ. He made the announcement this week to the board of stewards and in April, with his wife, he will move north of La Grande to manage a paying orchard at that point.

Rev. Mr. Ellis came to La Grande two years ago direct from college and is a young man. During the two years' service he added over 100 new members to his church, and local orchardists hope he will show the same success in the apple growing business as he does in the pulpit. His ranch, about ten miles from the city, has many modern improvements.
