

HEENEY HAS FIGHT IN OLYMPIC CLUB

District Attorney Fickert Is Target for Graft Inves- tigator's Oaths.

OFFICIAL SPRINGS AT HIGH

San Francisco Prosecutor Says He Grappled With Noted Lawyer When Latter Reached as if to Get Revolver.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—Francis J. Heenev ran foul of District Attorney Charles M. Fickert at the Olympic Club this afternoon and was all but spanked by the former Stanford athlete. Excitement ran high in the crowded lobby of the club while the scene was being enacted.

Fickert, said afterward he was moved to double Heenev up like a jack-knife when the latter, after venting a stream of foul oaths at Fickert, made a reach for his hip pocket.

It is said that charges will be filed against Heenev in an attempt to have him tried and expelled from the club for conduct unbecoming a member.

The altercation commenced when Heenev and Fickert met in the bathroom of the club.

Both Dining in Club.
Fickert, with his assistant, James P. Brennan, had been dining at the club. Heenev was also dining there. Fickert had not noticed Heenev until he went to get his hat. The hat of the former local attorney was almost alongside that of Fickert.

In reaching for his own hat, Fickert brushed against Heenev before he noticed who it was, and apologized. Heenev said angrily: "Oh, get away, you big stiff."

Surprised at the interperate language from a fellow club member, Fickert turned to find Heenev staring at him. Fickert asked that Heenev moderate his language.

Heenev, fairly livid with rage, splurged out: "Don't address me, you're using the foulest word that can be applied."

Fickert Springs on Heenev.
Thoroughly enraged, Fickert then advanced toward Heenev, who placed his hand toward his hip pocket.

Knowing that Heenev has one killing to his credit and that he is reputed as handy with a gun, Fickert, as a measure of protection, sprang upon Heenev. Pinning his arms to his sides, Fickert threw the graft investigator to his knees.

Not until he had calmed down did Fickert release his grip. Heenev then seized his hat and made his way hastily from the club.

Fickert treated the matter lightly. "Heenev insulted me grossly, but I restrained myself because I was in my own club and had respect for the ethics of the club, until Heenev made a move which I interpreted was for a weapon. Then I seized him and held him until he quieted down," he said.

"There was not a time when I could not have spanked him if I had my mind fixed. Heenev was in a state of mind and coarse in his language and manner."

COURT ASKS FOR INQUIRY

Chief Tribunal of California, Wants Truth About Reef Case.

TASK HARD, DAY 6 HOURS

Rule Made for Railway Mail Clerks When Work Is Heavy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Official notice has been given to clerks of the railway mail service that on lines where their work is heavy continuously for six days each week, the standard of the service shall be considered at 8 1/2 hours.

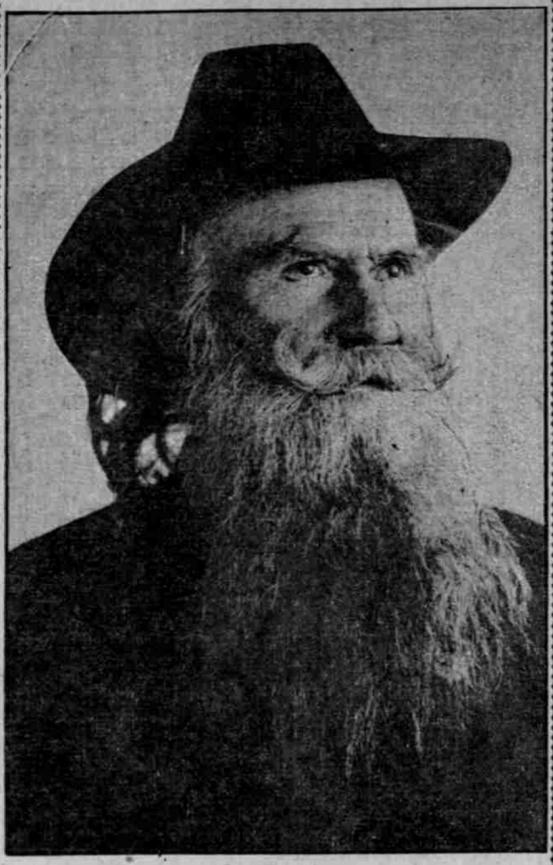

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Stewart, in a letter to General Superintendent Grant, of the Railway Mail Service, expressed the opinion that a minimum daily average of six and one-half hours would be sufficient for the work, but that exceptional cases should be considered upon their merits, and these are cases where a lesser number is warranted.

It was announced by the Second Assistant Postmaster-General that credit for overtime would be given to clerks who do terminal work at either end of their runs or extra work that requires them to remain on duty beyond the standard number of hours.

Kiss Gives Czar's Family Measles.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 15.—Practically all of the children of the Imperial court are victims of an epidemic of measles, and the entire blame for the situation is placed upon the Grand Duchess Olga. The Grand Duchess Anastasia, and indirectly wrote of her plight to the little daughter of Grand Duke George. The latter kissed the letter, as did all the courtiers who handled it, according to custom. They in turn kissed their children, and all were stricken.

POET OF THE SIERRAS, DYING IN OAKLAND HOSPITAL.

JOAQUIN MILLER.

SIERRA POET DYING

Doctors Hold Out No Hope for Joaquin Miller.

NOTED WRITER DELIRIOUS

Complication of Ills Attack Com- poser of Western Lyrics Which His Seventy Years Cannot Successfully Combat.

SIERRA POET DYING

Doctors hold out no hope for the noted writer, Joaquin Miller, who is lying in Oakland hospital, suffering from a complication of illnesses which his seventy years cannot successfully combat.

MILLER EDUCATED IN OREGON

Poet Read Law in Office of George H. Williams, in Portland.

Joaquin Miller was christened Cincinnati Helme Miller when he was born in Wabash District, Ind., November 10, 1841. His mother was a cousin of General Burnside and his father a school teacher and contributor to the illness which now seems certain to take his life.

GEORGE GOULD DEFEATED

Course at Times Unsettled the General Led. It Advanced to 63 in the First Hour, but before the end of the day lost all but a small fraction of his early gain. Trading in the stock market, George Gould, of New York, defeated the Missouri Pacific system today.

REBELS SEIZE AMERICAN GOODS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The seizure of 15,000 pesos, a number of rifles and some saddles from the American Smelting Company, at Yalapa, by 200 revolution- aries was reported today to the State Department in a telegram from American Consul Freeman at Durango.

IOWA DEADLOCK STILL ON

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 15.—Today's ballot has left the future result ed as follows: P. E. Deemer, 47; Ken- yon, 46; Garst, 3; Sammis, 3; Porter (Dem.), 52; absent, 5. Necessary to elect, 50.

REBELS CONTROL NORTH

"Orozco has not been superseded, but he will now act in a more direct way," believes, for the insurgents under a centralized supervision. We do not feel that the failure to storm Juarez is a setback. It would have been desirable to take Juarez if it were possible, but the present position of the Federal forces has its advantages for us." "Rabadan Navarro advanced to the relief of Juarez from Casas Grandes and Guerrero, both important strategic points, which they had to abandon with- out a battle. Chihuahua is now garrisoned by only 75 Federal troops and between Juarez and Chihuahua the country is in our possession." "We do not care how many men the government coops up in Juarez. They do us no harm there and what we want is to spread the revolution. The more the country is left open to us, the quicker progress we shall make. When we solidify our forces it will be an easy matter to starve Juarez out. It is out of the south already." Gustavo Madero made the unqualified statement today that many of the federal officers suspected of sympathy with the insurgents have been excused secretly, but that so strict had been the censorship that no word hinting at disloyalty in the army or at dis- cussing the government had been permitted to leak out of the capital.

MADERO IS HIDING IN BORDER TOWN

Rebel Leader's Brother Says Affairs Are Coming His Way in Mexico.

JUAREZ TOTALLY CUT OFF

Gustavo Madero Declares Whole Country South to Chihuahua Is in Rebel Hands — Recognition May Soon Be Asked.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The reappearance today of Francisco I. Madero, provisional insurrecto president of Mexico, in the little border town of Guadalupe brought an acknowledgment here tonight from his brother, Gustavo Madero, that the chief was being hiding in American territory.

"My brother has been part of the time in El Paso," said Gustavo Madero. "I cannot at this time account for his movements," he continued, "but it is true that he is now at Guadalupe and his appearance there is a sure sign that he feels the situation is shaping itself to his desires. A board of strategy has been formed and he will share in its deliberations, although it is not yet planned that he should take the field in person. We do not know his ability as a military leader; he does not know that himself."

Rebels Control North.
"Orozco has not been superseded, but he will now act in a more direct way," believes, for the insurgents under a centralized supervision. We do not feel that the failure to storm Juarez is a setback. It would have been desirable to take Juarez if it were possible, but the present position of the Federal forces has its advantages for us.

"Rabadan Navarro advanced to the relief of Juarez from Casas Grandes and Guerrero, both important strategic points, which they had to abandon without a battle. Chihuahua is now garrisoned by only 75 Federal troops and between Juarez and Chihuahua the country is in our possession."

"We do not care how many men the government coops up in Juarez. They do us no harm there and what we want is to spread the revolution. The more the country is left open to us, the quicker progress we shall make. When we solidify our forces it will be an easy matter to starve Juarez out. It is out of the south already."

Gustavo Madero made the unqualified statement today that many of the federal officers suspected of sympathy with the insurgents have been excused secretly, but that so strict had been the censorship that no word hinting at disloyalty in the army or at discussing the government had been permitted to leak out of the capital.

Recognition May Be Asked.
Senor Madero left for Washington tonight. The time is not yet ripe, he believes, for the insurrectos to demand recognition as belligerents, but he intimated that in case Juarez should fall into rebel hands, he would demand and upon the United States first of all. The revolutionists have agents in Washington, but no recognized representative.

JUAREZ UNDER MARTIAL LAW

General Navarro Claps Lid on North- ern Mexico Town.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 15.—General Navarro placed Ciudad Juarez under martial law today, closing 50 business houses, including the saloons and keno games and putting the lid on the city completely. He also took possession of the Mexico Northwestern Railroad and announced that he intended to operate the railroads out of Juarez for a few days.

Four express wagons, loaded with arms and ammunition, were captured today by United States troops, while attempting to cross the river near Falcon, east of this city. Eight Mexicans and two Americans accompanying the wagons, were arrested. The Mexicans were brought to El Paso and jailed on charges of violating the neutrality laws. The Americans escaped.

Francisco I. Madero, insurrecto provisional President of Mexico, is at Guadalupe, Mexico, with Abram Gonzales and members of the insurrecto board of strategy.

Mail advice to the Herald from Chihuahua, dated February 15, says that 50 rebels, including the regulars of Chihuahua, Saturday, and took charge of the town. They carried extra arms for 50 additional men and secured many recruits. The same advice says that a small force of rebels, including Madero Saturday, and reached Madero Saturday to meet 300 Pina Indians and Mexicans from Sonora, in order to move on to Chihuahua.

Raid on Americans Admitted.
PRESIDIO, Tex., Feb. 15 (via Marfa, Tex., Feb. 15).—A Lieutenant of the Federals frankly admitted that the Mexican soldiers fired on the American soldiers patrolling the Rio Grande during the battle at Matamoros on the 7th and 8th. He said the Federal were ordered to shoot at the American cavalrymen because they were shooting across the river.

Rebels Seize American Goods.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The seizure of 15,000 pesos, a number of rifles and some saddles from the American Smelting Company, at Yalapa, by 200 revolutionaries was reported today to the State Department in a telegram from American Consul Freeman at Durango.

Iowa Deadlock Still On.
DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 15.—Today's ballot has left the future result as follows: P. E. Deemer, 47; Kenyon, 46; Garst, 3; Sammis, 3; Porter (Dem.), 52; absent, 5. Necessary to elect, 50.

Rebels Control North.
"Orozco has not been superseded, but he will now act in a more direct way," believes, for the insurgents under a centralized supervision. We do not feel that the failure to storm Juarez is a setback. It would have been desirable to take Juarez if it were possible, but the present position of the Federal forces has its advantages for us.

"Rabadan Navarro advanced to the relief of Juarez from Casas Grandes and Guerrero, both important strategic points, which they had to abandon without a battle. Chihuahua is now garrisoned by only 75 Federal troops and between Juarez and Chihuahua the country is in our possession."

"We do not care how many men the government coops up in Juarez. They do us no harm there and what we want is to spread the revolution. The more the country is left open to us, the quicker progress we shall make. When we solidify our forces it will be an easy matter to starve Juarez out. It is out of the south already."

Gustavo Madero made the unqualified statement today that many of the federal officers suspected of sympathy with the insurgents have been excused secretly, but that so strict had been the censorship that no word hinting at disloyalty in the army or at discussing the government had been permitted to leak out of the capital.

MADERO IS HIDING IN BORDER TOWN

Rebel Leader's Brother Says Affairs Are Coming His Way in Mexico.

JUAREZ TOTALLY CUT OFF

Gustavo Madero Declares Whole Country South to Chihuahua Is in Rebel Hands — Recognition May Soon Be Asked.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The reappearance today of Francisco I. Madero, provisional insurrecto president of Mexico, in the little border town of Guadalupe brought an acknowledgment here tonight from his brother, Gustavo Madero, that the chief was being hiding in American territory.

"My brother has been part of the time in El Paso," said Gustavo Madero. "I cannot at this time account for his movements," he continued, "but it is true that he is now at Guadalupe and his appearance there is a sure sign that he feels the situation is shaping itself to his desires. A board of strategy has been formed and he will share in its deliberations, although it is not yet planned that he should take the field in person. We do not know his ability as a military leader; he does not know that himself."

Rebels Control North.
"Orozco has not been superseded, but he will now act in a more direct way," believes, for the insurgents under a centralized supervision. We do not feel that the failure to storm Juarez is a setback. It would have been desirable to take Juarez if it were possible, but the present position of the Federal forces has its advantages for us.

"Rabadan Navarro advanced to the relief of Juarez from Casas Grandes and Guerrero, both important strategic points, which they had to abandon without a battle. Chihuahua is now garrisoned by only 75 Federal troops and between Juarez and Chihuahua the country is in our possession."

"We do not care how many men the government coops up in Juarez. They do us no harm there and what we want is to spread the revolution. The more the country is left open to us, the quicker progress we shall make. When we solidify our forces it will be an easy matter to starve Juarez out. It is out of the south already."

Gustavo Madero made the unqualified statement today that many of the federal officers suspected of sympathy with the insurgents have been excused secretly, but that so strict had been the censorship that no word hinting at disloyalty in the army or at discussing the government had been permitted to leak out of the capital.

Recognition May Be Asked.
Senor Madero left for Washington tonight. The time is not yet ripe, he believes, for the insurrectos to demand recognition as belligerents, but he intimated that in case Juarez should fall into rebel hands, he would demand and upon the United States first of all. The revolutionists have agents in Washington, but no recognized representative.

JUAREZ UNDER MARTIAL LAW

General Navarro Claps Lid on North- ern Mexico Town.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 15.—General Navarro placed Ciudad Juarez under martial law today, closing 50 business houses, including the saloons and keno games and putting the lid on the city completely. He also took possession of the Mexico Northwestern Railroad and announced that he intended to operate the railroads out of Juarez for a few days.

Four express wagons, loaded with arms and ammunition, were captured today by United States troops, while attempting to cross the river near Falcon, east of this city. Eight Mexicans and two Americans accompanying the wagons, were arrested. The Mexicans were brought to El Paso and jailed on charges of violating the neutrality laws. The Americans escaped.

Francisco I. Madero, insurrecto provisional President of Mexico, is at Guadalupe, Mexico, with Abram Gonzales and members of the insurrecto board of strategy.

Mail advice to the Herald from Chihuahua, dated February 15, says that 50 rebels, including the regulars of Chihuahua, Saturday, and took charge of the town. They carried extra arms for 50 additional men and secured many recruits. The same advice says that a small force of rebels, including Madero Saturday, and reached Madero Saturday to meet 300 Pina Indians and Mexicans from Sonora, in order to move on to Chihuahua.

Raid on Americans Admitted.
PRESIDIO, Tex., Feb. 15 (via Marfa, Tex., Feb. 15).—A Lieutenant of the Federals frankly admitted that the Mexican soldiers fired on the American soldiers patrolling the Rio Grande during the battle at Matamoros on the 7th and 8th. He said the Federal were ordered to shoot at the American cavalrymen because they were shooting across the river.

Rebels Seize American Goods.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The seizure of 15,000 pesos, a number of rifles and some saddles from the American Smelting Company, at Yalapa, by 200 revolutionaries was reported today to the State Department in a telegram from American Consul Freeman at Durango.

Iowa Deadlock Still On.
DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 15.—Today's ballot has left the future result as follows: P. E. Deemer, 47; Kenyon, 46; Garst, 3; Sammis, 3; Porter (Dem.), 52; absent, 5. Necessary to elect, 50.

Rebels Control North.
"Orozco has not been superseded, but he will now act in a more direct way," believes, for the insurgents under a centralized supervision. We do not feel that the failure to storm Juarez is a setback. It would have been desirable to take Juarez if it were possible, but the present position of the Federal forces has its advantages for us.

"Rabadan Navarro advanced to the relief of Juarez from Casas Grandes and Guerrero, both important strategic points, which they had to abandon without a battle. Chihuahua is now garrisoned by only 75 Federal troops and between Juarez and Chihuahua the country is in our possession."

"We do not care how many men the government coops up in Juarez. They do us no harm there and what we want is to spread the revolution. The more the country is left open to us, the quicker progress we shall make. When we solidify our forces it will be an easy matter to starve Juarez out. It is out of the south already."

Gustavo Madero made the unqualified statement today that many of the federal officers suspected of sympathy with the insurgents have been excused secretly, but that so strict had been the censorship that no word hinting at disloyalty in the army or at discussing the government had been permitted to leak out of the capital.

A Tremendous Petticoat Sale

Exactly as Illustrated

An Extraordinary Purchase and Sale of One One Thousand Silk Petticoats

FRIDAY
$3.45

A Revelation Awaits You in Style, Quality and Price

Eight New Models in Soft Taffetas and Messalines

—The cleverest purchase ever made by our suit department buyer, who is now in New York, and with the combined influence of our Mr. W. F. Lipman, who is also in the East, we were enabled to obtain the whole of a large manufacturer's surplus Spring stock. It's the most wonderful sale, from a standpoint of price and quality, ever offered the women of Portland, when you take into consideration the fact that the silk would cost you more than we ask for the finished garment.

KNIFE PLAITED AND RUFFLE MESSALINES

in solid colors and stripes—made in the new clinging styles—now in greatest favor. The assortment includes black, navy, copenhagen, smoke, brown, garnet, si ver, leather, tans, champagne, light blue, salmon; navy and white and stripes; black and white stripes modeled in soft, light-weight clinging silk in a most attractive style, also an entirely new pattern of knife plaiting, in navy, jasper, brown, lavender, green, red, rose, light blue, black, gold, tan and changeables. Also a novelty soft taffeta in plain colors with a four-inch band of dainty Dresden silk set in the center of the flounce.

TAFFETA FANCY FLOUNCE PETTICOATS

—Four large corner windows are now devoted to the display of these silk petticoats, but none will be sold until Friday.

TO OUT OF TOWN CUSTOMERS

—Special Notice:—Rarely are we in a position to give our MAIL ORDER CUSTOMERS the benefit of the Lipman, Wolfe & Co. special sales, as quantities are seldom large enough to last until orders from out of town customers reach us.

—On account of the enormous quantities in this sale we are better prepared to fill mail orders providing the same reach us no later than Saturday. In order to avoid disappointment on the part of our mail order patrons we would suggest they make a second choice —ORDER BY NUMBER ONLY—No. 1—Plain and changeable Taffeta. No. 2—Navy or black striped Messaline. No. 3—Black Taffeta. No. 4—Black Taffeta. No. 5—Taffeta with Dresden flounce. No. 6—Black and colored Messaline. No. 7—Black and colored Messaline. No. 8—Black Taffeta.

Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

Merchandise of Merit Only choice, 75. The vote formerly given to Senator Young was cast, with his consent, for Justice Deemer.

Rebels Besiege Ojinaga.
PRESIDIO, Tex., Feb. 15.—(Via Marfa, Tex., Feb. 15.)—A scouting party of insurrectos under Emilio Salgado has captured seven wagons loaded with provisions and ammunition intended for the Federal garrison at Ojinaga. The town is practically a state of siege and insurgents are scattered in the hills within a few miles of the guard line. Yesterday several American officials and a school teacher from Presidio visited Ojinaga, but were promptly ordered out of town by General Luque, commandant.

Pianos, Watches, Etc., Free!
Also numerous other valuable prizes if you can find three or more of the great composers' faces in the contest advertisement published on page eight of this issue.

PLAYER PIANO SELLING CONTINUES UNABATED.
The Reduced Prices made possible by the well-known Eilers' Selling Policy, which has now been applied also to every make of Player Piano, places these superb musical instruments within the reach of every comfortable home!

Investigate carefully the merits of the Player Piano—the latest, best and most highly improved Player Piano that is now being sold by Eilers Music House.

Best Remedy for Catarrh, Croup, Coughs, and Colds

Breathe HYOMEI out of all diseases of the breathing organs. It is guaranteed. In case of croup, which is very common in children, send for a doctor at once. In the meantime pour 30 drops of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water and hold the child's head over it, covered with a towel or cloth so that only the air filled with HYOMEI vapor is breathed.

This treatment is best taken just before going to bed; it only takes about five minutes' time. Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl three-quarters full of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel, and breathe the vapor for ten minutes deep into the lungs. By this method many a hard cold has been broken up over night. A HYOMEI outfit, which consists of a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00 at drug stores everywhere. Extra bottles if afterward needed cost only 50 cents. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid. Write to Eilers' Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.