

SQUEEZE IN COFFEE

Expected Movement by Bulls Has Started.

MARKET LIFTED A CENT

Arbuckle Buys up All the Spot Stocks in New York and Everything Afloat From Brazil—Trade Is Excited.

Telegram received from New York yesterday would indicate that the bulls are again getting ready to boost the coffee market. In fact, one of the largest operators on Saturday bought up all the available supply, both spot and afloat, and the market promptly advanced one cent a pound on Santos, to 15 1/2 cents and nearly one cent on Rio, to 12 cents.

European and Brazilian markets naturally advanced in sympathy and it is just possible the long-tailed of squeeze in March may be beginning to form.

Cables received from a respectable Santos house states that a syndicate has bought up 1,000,000 bags and adds that this move is practically possible and probable.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Coffee futures closed a shade off from the best under realizing but steady at a net advance of from 20 to 27 points. Sales, 135,000 bags.
