Colonist Day at the "Made-in-Oregon" Exposition Grand Concert at 2:30 P. M. by Weber's String Orchestra

THIS will be a day of extraordinary import at the Manufacturers' Association's "Made-in-Oregon" Exposition at Meier & Frank's!
It will be Tourist Day—a day every loyal citizen should add their mite in "boosting" Oregon—and Portland.

Representatives of the leading Real Estate and Colonization companies have established booths on the Exposition floor for free distribution of all kinds of Oregon literature—beautifully designed, colored booklets, maps, posters, etc. WRITE TO YOUR EASTERN FRIENDS TODAY—tell them what a grand country we live in! Work for a greater and bigger Oregon!

A World of Pretty Wash Fabrics Are Ready!

MOST every hour hosts of veritable fairy tissues have trooped in, announcing Spring and the gladness of sunshine till a maze of soft, clinging fabrics now await you. Paris, Glasgow and Dublin sent some, others hail from America's most famous looms—but all are the loveliest materials summer weather has ever suggested.

fabrics enlivened here and there with some distinctive this-year's touch, besides handsome assortments of cool, crisp, durable, tubable Linens. And the colorings! Violets, roses and poppies have lent their aid; an Oriental rug, some quaint, far-away bloom and ancient masterpiece have given suggestions! Never was an array more exquisite, never an assemblage more comprehensive, never choice more unrestrained!
