Ready for Voters.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 28-(Special)-With the ballot title almost twice as long as proposed constitutional amendment itself, criticism is being heard here of the manner in which the title for the amendment, repealing the county tax amendment passed by the people at the last election, has been submitted to the Secretary of State.

Considerable comment was heard about the Capitol corridors today because of the fact that W. S. U'Ren, champion of the fact that W. S. U.Ren, champlon of the single tax, was present in the Attorney-General's office when the At-torney-General was completing the ti-tics. There is a possibility of a protest being made against the tille for this particular tax amendment. The tills in-cludes 49 words and the act has only 27 words in its subject matter. 27 words in its subject matter.

While it is understood that some words were changed at the request of U Ren, the Attorney-Cheneral refused to make all of the changes desired by the Oregon City single tax advocate, but just what the further changes desired were cannot be determined.

The ballot title as it stands reads: "For constitutional amendment to re-peal all of section 1A of Article IX except that part prohibiting poll and head taxes in Oregon and instead of the portions repealed to add a provision prohibiting the declaration of an emer-gency in any act passed by the Legis-lature regulating taxation and exemp-

These campaigns for money everywhere afoot are in themselves, however, doing little to modify the gravity of the problem before us as members of the Body of Christ-the Household of God. Rody of Christ-the Household of God. Insofar as people are merely appealed to for funds they are having the real duty clouded over; for, in thinking that in this way they are giving vital assistance con-science is hulled just when conscience should be given a trampet tongue in us all. Money is not the deep necessity of the time. Money has never failed when intelligence has been awakened and con-science axuused. To get the problem of suving Oregon from fevered commercial-ism and reckless selfishness on the hori-zon of the public eye, until the fear of moral disaster haunts the public mind-that is the crusade which the condition of Oregon calls for. To force this most serious question upon the minds of the general public is as grave a duty as any demanding present attention, and it may demanding present attention, and it may well be our Lenten crusade. "Human society clearly evidences an alienation from God which is not con-
