KENTON TO HAVE FRATERNAL HALL.—Kenton is to have a fraternal hall on Derby street near the bank building. C. W. Meyer has bought a lot at this place and is now having plans drawn for a two-story concrete and brick building. The side and back walls will be concrete blocks and the front of pressed brick. A fraternal hall will occupy the second floor of the building. The lot is 100x50 feet and the hall will be 100x50 feet and will be fitted up specially for the use of fraternal orders, of which there are half a dozen in Kenton. Work on the foundation will be begun as soon as the plans have been completed.

BRUTER IS CHEAPER and strictly fresh Oregon eggs, right from the ranches, cost you only 20c per dozen, and are packed for a full two-pound square. Smith's A No. 1 guaranteed fresh Oregon creamery butter is down to 10c and "Smith's Meadows," a real good butter, is only 12c for a full two-pound square. Small, fancy sugar-cured hams for which folks ask 12c, Smith sells for only 10c; very light, fancy breakfast bacon is 10c; medium lean bacon 10c, and heavy bacon is 10c; lard is cheaper too. Smith's medium kettle-rendered, absolutely pure lard sells for 6c in three-pound pails; a five-pound pail is 6c, and a ten-pound pail is 6c. Round steak and sirloin steak from Oregon prime steers are only 15c; tenderloin steak, something really choice is 15c and the half is 10c and 10c; beef for boiling is 10c and 10c; shoulder roast pork is 15c and 10c; shoulder pork chops are 15c and 10c and pork chops are 15c. The above prices prevail in every one of Frank L. Smith's 22 markets—they are the prices for you.

KENTON HOPE FOR PAVING.—The committee from Kenton hope that the proposed paving of 15 streets in that suburb can be started this year. Westrumite asphalt pavements have been asked for. The committee of the committee reported at the meeting of the Kenton Push Club Monday night that the City Engineer did not favor the new pavement, but that the committee had overcome it. It was announced that the plan was to improve the streets of Kenton so that they would connect with Lombard street on the south and the Columbia boulevard. One or more of the Kenton streets will be extended to these thoroughfares.

MISS MARY CAPLES ILL.—Saddened by the thought of separating from the work in the Portland Hotel, Miss Mary Caples, housekeeper, lies dangerously ill in a private sanitarium at 31 North Tenth street. Some ten days ago she resigned her position with the Portland Hotel people to take a similar one with the Howard Hotel servants about Portland. She was taken sick the next day. It is stated that her recovery is doubtful.

BOARD OF HEALTH TO MEET.—When the members of the State Board of Health meet tomorrow afternoon in the office of Secretary White, one of the chief features for discussion will be the widening of the scope of work of the board. It is said to be the intention of the board to enter upon a more aggressive and far-reaching program in future than has been followed. The members of the board are: Dr. Andrew C. Smith, of Portland, president; Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton; Dr. Alfred Kinney, of Astoria; Dr. E. B. Pickett, of Medford; Dr. W. B. Coman, of Salem; Dr. E. A. Pierce, of Portland.

HEADS ONLY NAMED

"Roosevelt Committee" Chosen to Represent All Clubs.

OFFICERS ARE SELECTED President Beckwith, of Commercial Club, Puts Entertainment of ex-President into Hands of Seven to Prepare Programme.

The "Roosevelt committee" that will have charge of the arrangements for the entertainment of Theodore Roosevelt and party during their stay in Portland April 5 from 3 o'clock to midnight, was formally announced yesterday by Harvey Beckwith, president of the Portland Commercial Club, to which organization has been assigned the duty of looking after the local end of the visit.

The committee is composed of the officials of various clubs, the object being to select only those who hold the higher official positions so that the entire membership of the clubs be represented upon the committee selected. The membership of the committee is as follows: Portland Commercial Club—The board of governors consisting of: H. Beckwith, E. B. Piper, George Lawrence, Jr., W. L. Hoise, H. M. Calk, F. W. Leadbetter, C. W. Hodson, J. P. Wetherbee, Postmaster Charles B. Merrick, Brigadier-General Marion E. Maus, U. S. A., Vancouver Barracks; Brigadier-General G. K. McGunagle, Vancouver Barracks; Adjutant-General W. E. Finser, Oregon National Guard; Governor Oswald West, Ben Seiling, President of the Oregon Senate; Jerry Rusk, Speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives; Joseph Simon, Mayor of Portland.

Leading Clubs Represented. Portland Chamber of Commerce—H. M. Haller, R. L. Gilliam, Charles F. Beebe, Arlington Club—Edward Cookingham, W. D. Wheelwright. Press Club—S. E. Vincent. University Club—F. H. Strong, Concordia Club—F. H. Rothchild. Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club—W. A. Holt. Spanish-American War Veterans—A. J. Salisbury. Churches—Most Rev. Alexander Christie, Rt. Rev. Charles Scadding, Rt. Rev. Charles W. Scadding, J. F. Carroll, C. S. Jackson, Hugh Hume.

Upon a motion of the board of governors of the Commercial Club President Beckwith was instructed to appoint from out of the committee an executive board to look after such details as the committee might desire to have executed. The committee appointed for this purpose are as follows: H. Beckwith, chairman; C. B. Merrick, secretary; H. M. Haller, S. E. Vincent, W. J. Hofmann, Charles F. Beebe and William D. Wheelwright. In the course of a few days the committee will meet and prepare a tentative programme which will be submitted to Mr. Roosevelt for his approval. It is virtually assured that he will spend a portion of his time with the members of the Portland Press Club in their new rooms and with the Spanish-American War Veterans of which he is a member.

According to the latest information Mr. Roosevelt is to be accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, his daughter Ethel, and her friend, Miss Corneal Landon, and Frank Harper, the Colonel's secretary. The party will travel some of the time in the Pullman coaches of the regular trains and at other times in private cars. Mr. Roosevelt is to speak in San Francisco before the Commonwealth Club on March 21.
