WATERS ARE IN LIGATION

IRRIGATION AND LAND COM-PANTES IN COURT.

Right to Flow of Willow Creek in Question-Right of Way for Ditches Is Wanted.

The right to the use of the waters of Willow Creek, in Malheur County, is involved in the suit of the Willow River Land & Irrigation Company against the Eastern Oregon Land Company, which went to trial on its merits before Federal Judge Wolver-ton yesterday. The Willow River company is seeking to condemn an ag-gregate of 67.3 acres, made up of a large number of atrips, which it says it must have for constructing its ditches and flumes. The plaintif al-leares further that it has constructed three large reservoirs at great expense three large reservoirs at great expense and that there is enough water in the reservoirs to irrigate the land suscep-tible of irrigation. Little of the land wanted for flumes and ditches, says the plaintiff, is fit for agricultural pur-poses, because it is too steep and rocky. The Willow River company wishes to

Of the land which the plaintin com-pany wishes to appropriate 14.3 acres are in section 3, 18.4 acres in section 15, 1.3 acres in section 21, 22.7 acres in section 31; this for the main canal. The plaintiff desires to use 3.9 acres in section 15 for laterals, 3.7 in section 31 for laterals and 5 acres in section 15 for a siphon line.

MOYA MANNERING.

A famous English beauty is Moya Mannering, who appears tonight, tomor-row and Eaturday, with The Arcadiana," a charming musical fantasy, at the Hellig Theater. The production, under the management of Charles Frohman, is given by the identical cast that effaced the play at the New York Theater. Among the playes coming are such citwer and capable ones as Johnny Costorni, Alice Russen, Ruth Thorp, Verson Davidson, Marie Shields, Glibert Childs and Edward Lester.

Edward Lester. The song gums that the composer, Miniskion, has supplied in his score of "The Arcadiana," are sure to be as popular in Portland as they were in New York. The list numbers 24 and among them are "The Pipes of Pan." "Joy of Life." "My Mother" and "Truth is Beautifal." Besides these dialogue that is fairly scintillating, comming situations that are legical, as well as humorous, and a plot islimg an interesting and entertaining love story, are all in the makes up of "The Arcadiana." The company numbers 75, with a special orchestra of 16 municiana and is the first musical show ever greented in Portland by Mr. Numbers Frohman
