Mr. W. M. Horton called at the office to enlist the office of the paper in the search for her husband, who left Port-to find it, Horton decided to go to Grants Pass. He is a member of the Order of Word from Grants Pass was that he had not reached there. His trunk is still in his room in the house in Portland.

He had $100 with him. Mr. Horton is described as a man of good habits. He was in business in San Bernardino, Cal., before coming to Portland, and had disposed of his interests there. The police and the Elks are aiding in the search.
