Balfour Says Tories Will Support Plan for Arbitration With America.

DILLON DOES NOT AGREE

Irish Leader Says Grey's Proposal Makes No Provision for Small Nations-Japan Has Given Opinion on Project.

LONDON, March H.-Sir Edward Grey's indersement of President Taft's arbitration suggestion was seconded with cheers in the House of Common the opposition, who, in the course of his speech, declared that he saw no ulty in the way of carrying out such an arrangement between this country and the United States. Mr. Balfour said:

Balfour said:

"The late government did its best to carry out an arbitration treaty with the United States. I hope there is a general feeling in America that the time has come when these two great countries may at least be bound by treaty to refer all questions which would possibly produce anything so horrible as a war between them, to some arbitration bly produce any man war between them, to some arbitration tribunal.

"The Secretary for Foreign Affairs will find no heartier friends of such a policy than those of the Unionist party."

Trish Member Dissents.

The first break in the chorus of ap-proval which greated S'r Edward Grey's appeals in the House of Commons came appeals in the House of Commons came from John Dillon, momber for East Mayo, who described Str Edward's speech as a gigantic red herring, most successfully drawn across the path of liscussion of the naval estimates.

There was, he said nothing different in the Grey proposals from what appeared in the treaty Lord Salisbury tried to negotiate with the United States, except creation of an offensive, defensive and coercive alliance against other powers.

The proposals made no provisions for small nationalities struggling for justice or seeking freedom. They referred only to mighty empires, which were invited to combine for the purpose of coercing others who would not submit to artitration.

Japan's Opinion Asked.

An effort was made in the House of Commens today to ascertain the views of the Japanese government on Presi-dent Taff's suggestion of an American-British general arbitration arrangement, but Sir Edward Grey declined to reveal them.

The Foreign Secretary admitted that the government at Tokio has been made aware of the British government's views on the subject, but he said to lay Japan's answer on the table of the House would be premature.

BALLINGER CASE EXAMPLE

Solon Mentions ex-Secretary in Cry Against Appointive Officials.

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—Richard
A. Ballinger, ex-Secretary of the Interior, was held up to the California Senore today as an example of what appointive power means. The instance was cited by Senator Shanahan (Dem.) in debate over a proposed constitutional amendment providing that the offices of railroad commissioners shall be appointive by the Governor instead groods under false pretenses and forbe appointive by the Governor Instead goods under laise precision of elective, as now provided. For years past Secretary Ballinger has not been acceptable to the people of the country and for years President Tait held him in office. There was no way by which the people could reach

CHARGE HURTS HARRISON

(Continued From First Page.) like the popping of blank cartridges. In the Twenty-ninth Ward the Dunne-Merriam Club has been organized, composed of men who voted for Edward F. Dunne for the Democratic nomination. John J. Conroy, an ardent Dunne admirer, predicts that two-thirds of the $3,000 voters for Dunne on primary ection day will cast their ballots for Raymond Robins, who wields a vast Raymond Robins, who wields a vast influence with organized labor of Chicago on account of past friendliness, has come out with a scathing rebuke for Harrison and for Hearst, his loudest backer. With Mr. Robins in his arraignment of Harrison are George C. Sikes progressive Democrat, and other influential members of that party who refuse to abide by the Democratic verdict on primary day.

Harrison Is Grilled.

If we were to elect Harrison Mayer "If we were to elect Harrison Mayer again," said Robins in a speech, "we would sink Chicago back into the stough of municipal corruption and cite treason. Harrison's conlition with the Hearst pirates is as pitiful a spectacle of a weak and lany politician, hungry for office, licking the hand that lashed him, as ever was presented in the political history of Chicago. "Hearst's acceptance of Harrison and of his 'red-light band,' each of whom he has deneunced with screams of plous horror, brands him as a 'fake' progressive and a common enemy of true Democracy and genuine social progress."

Some of the radicals of the United Societies, which comprises the 'personal liberty' element in Chicago, sought to have that organization of basel to so, one woters indores Harrison, but others protested and the matter of choice hetween the candidates was left for the limited Secteties and Jeertam, seeking to greate antagonism between the United Secteties and Jeertam, seeking to give the impression that if Merriam becomes Mayor he will close down on the saleome and inaugurate a system of bits sloome and inaugurate a system of bits laws. Merriam has declared bimasing plainity on the question. He amnounces he is for the largest possible measure of personal liberty comsistent with good order, that he believes in home rule for Chicago, and that, since plain Chicago is not in favor of laws, he is firmly against flying e face of the predominating senti-

The Roger C. Sullivan Democrats are not lifting their hands in ald of Harrison. Their candidate for the nomination, Andrew J. Graham, polled 39,000 votes at the primaries. Many of these voters will go over into the Merriam column on account of the persistent and bitter attacks made by the Hearst papers and by Harrison on Graham and his backers.

Harrison Not Weak.

Harrison Not Weak.

It is not to be presumed from all this that Harrison is not a strong candidate. As the situation stands today, the race is a close one. The advantage may even lie with the ex-Mayor. Many leading business men have faith in his ability as an executive. Harrison always has proved a good campaigner and it is yet to be disclosed that he has lost his cunning in that direction.

His campaign cry for "70-cent gas" is a good one, if the results of the primaries may be cited in evidence. There is no real reason why he should be preferred to Merriam on this score. Gas will be just as cheap under Merriam as under Harrison.

Merriam has announced in his cam-

MRS. PATERSON MUST STAND TRIAL IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Woman Still Insists She Is Widow of Robert S. Farrelly, Oakland Capitalist.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 .- (Special.)-Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Inez Paterson, alias Mrs. Henrietta Parrelly, the woman accused of negotiating a loan on the pretense that she was the widow of the late Robert S. Farrelly, today was set by Police Judg's Shortall for Tuesday morning.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 18.—According to the opinion announced today by Judge Robert E. Umilet, Mrs. Lida Eleanor Fitzgerald is given all she asked in her aut against her ex-husband, Gen-eral Purcell Fitzgerald, a wealthy resi-dent of Ireland, with extensive interests in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is to get allmony at the rate of $15,000 a year, until a fund shall have been accumulated from Fitz-gersid's coal and coke properties in Penn-sylvania amounting to $300,000, the in-come from balf of which she is to have and the remainder is to be placed in the hands of trustees for Fitzgerald's chil-

DIXON MAY BE SENATOR

Indications Point to End of Deadlock in Colorado Legislature.

DENVER. March 15.—Strong indications of a break in the deadlock that has prevented an election of a United States Senator by the Colorado Legislature were shown today when seven votes were cast for County Judge John B. Dixon, of Denver.

The report was freely current that within the next two or three days all the "platform" Democrats and scattering votes will be united on Judge Dixon, and confidence was expressed that enough other votes would be secured to insure his election.

PEKIN, March 16.—The Chinese government declares its intention of agreeing to both points at issue with Russia, and is now drafting a reply to the recently received ultimatum.

The foreign board says it is prepared to accept the establishment of Russian Consulates in the places specified by Russia, and also promises to take measures regarding Chinese monopolies in Mongolia which will permit Russian subjects freedom in trade in Chinese goods, as well as in the goods of other countries.

as well as in the goods of other countries.

Russia contends that the treaty of 1881 did not provide for the institution of customs tariffs concurrently with the establishment of Consulates by the Russian government, but M. Korostovitz, the Russian Minister in Pekin, evidently is willing to consider a separate discussion regarding the imposition of tariffs in Mongolia after China has acquiesced in the Russian demand.

It is expected that the Chinese government will endeavor to obtain permission to impose tariffs for the purpose of protecting its domestic prestige.

The newspapers are crying out against the instability of the government and deplore the fact that the country possesses no navy, has but an ineffective army and an incapable foreign board. Petitions

Judge Hough sentenced Munroe to serve three years in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta. Chief of the charges on which Munroe was tried was that he promoted through the mails extensive sales of wireless telegraph stock, the greater part of which was never delivered.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Members of the firm of Munroe & Munroe were among the first men arrested in the crusade instituted last Autumn by Postmaster-General Hitchcock against concerns that were conducting alleged fraudulent transactions in stocks and bonds through the mails.
