

WILLIAMS' CLOUTS FEATURE IN GAME

Allegart Proves Surprise, Holding Beavers to Two Hits, One Run.

ROADSTER LINE-UP GIVEN

Twenty-Six Players to Report on March 25 With Assurance From McCredie That if Needed Coast Will Add More.

SANTA MARIA, Cal., March 14.—(Special)—In a special five-inning game arranged for the benefit of the W. W. McCredie, who arrived here this morning, Buddy Ryan's Coyotes had sweet revenge on Walter McCredie's Beavers by beating them in a short-route contest this afternoon by the score of 12 to 1.

The Coyotes simply slaughtered Bill Russell's delivery in the second inning, when they scored 10 runs on 5 hits. The feature of the swiftest was the batting of Nick Williams, who scored a home run and a two-bagger in the inning.

Williams drove out the double in his first trip to the plate with Ryan on first, and when he came up the second time the socks were loaded and he hit the longest home run drive made here so far by hitting the ball over the far left-field wall, scoring three runners, Menzer, Ryan and Fullerton, ahead of him. Williams also picked the ball for a single and another two-bagger later in the game, making four hits all told and the last hit scored the final two runs for the Coyotes.

Allegart Is Surprise.

Allegart occupied the slab for the Coyotes, and the manner in which he mowed McCredie's forces down was a surprise to everyone. Even McCredie failed to hit the elusive delivery of the Berkeley lad, and the two hits he allowed were made by Tommy Sheehan and Eddie Klemm. Errors permitted the Beavers one run.

Previous to the game Nick Williams and the McCredies conferred at length over the Northwestern team, and while Williams is confident that his team will be a winner in its present form, he was this morning assured that he would be equipped with the men he needed either from the Portland Coasters or from the Cleveland American League team, and he is highly elated over the prospect.

The following is a list of the Northwestern League players who will report at Portland on March 25: Captain—Charles Harts, Brooks and Kirby; Pitchers—Bloomfield, Boyce, Garrett, Lamine, Glencoe, Tonneson, Dordland, Yates, Allegart, Madden and Josel Berger.

Infielders—Williams, Casey, Mundorf, Waters, Anderson, Clother and Mansor. Outfielders—Miller, Orr, Spears, Thompson and Stoval.

Locals to Be Tried Out.

The above list comprises 25 players, but there are a number of Portland and Oregon youngsters also to be tried out, but Williams and McCredie have not the list of them here.

Williams is confident that he is going to have a winner, and seems to think that his pitching staff will be his main dependence, as he expects great things of Tonneson, Allegart, Yates and Dordland. White, Lamine, Glencoe and Berger ought to prove fine pitchers, and then Billy Bloomfield, Jess Garrett and George Price should make good with their vengeance, said the blonde manager considers himself well off in this department.

In discussing the baseball situation Judge W. W. McCredie said: "I think Walt has the best club he has ever had and I am determined that Williams will also have a fine club." Our coast team looks at least 50 per cent stronger to me as all Walter's new men are fast men on the bases and seemingly are first-class batmen. I don't see what Walt is making all this fuss about Neal Ball for when he has such a player as 'Hank' Harris, who is fast enough to hit .350, we can trade Ball and not hurt his team at all."

"While in Los Angeles I play the Red Sox and I don't believe Hogan's team is as strong as last year. I don't know anything about the other clubs, but they will have to go to beat this bunch of Beavers playing here."

Irish and Dutch Lineup Given.

The lineup of the Irish and the Dutch teams for the game tomorrow, St. Patrick's day, will be as follows:

Irish.....	G. J. ...	Dutch.....
McGinnis.....	P. ...	Steen.....
McCredie.....	J. R. ...	Rapp.....
McKenna.....	J. B. ...	McKenna.....
Patterson.....	J. R. ...	Patterson.....
Sheehan.....	J. R. ...	Archie or George
Burgess.....	L. P. ...	Krueger.....
Yates.....	R. P.
Chadbourne.....	R. P. ...	Schmideler.....
Anderson.....	A. P.
Anderson.....	A. P. ...	Hoover, Brader,
Emmons.....	N. W.

After considerable wrangling and near fights between Tommy Sheehan and Buddy Ryan, on one side, and Bill Rapp and Archie Krueger on the other, the Portland Beavers managed to be assigned to the Irish and the Dutch teams.

Recollections of the last game here between the Irish and the Dutch, which broke up in a row because of a decision of theumpire in this vicinity, and no one can be found who is willing to undertake the job, which has resulted in the unanimous election of W. W. McCredie, president of the Portland club and ex-Representative in Congress. The Irish and the Dutch will be in the same division, and it is a cinch that none of the players, not even his nephews, will make a "goat" out of him on the Seventeenth of Ireland.

MAROONS IN FIELD

Fast Independent Team Reorganizes for Season.

FIRST GAME NEXT SUNDAY

Many Nines Being Formed for Play in Portland and Vicinity—Period of Issuance of Challenges Now in Full Sway.

The Portland Maroons, one of Portland's fastest independent baseball teams for the past four seasons, has reorganized for the 1911 season. The Herchard team managed the team this season and the captain will be selected probably next week.

The Maroons will open their season next Sunday morning on the Buckman field, East Twelfth and Davis streets, in a practice game with the Meier & Frank team. Thereafter the team will be ready for all comers.

Chasney Mullen and "Big" Herschard will do the catching, while Alderman, who pitched for the Hillsboro Cardinals last year, will attend to the work for the third base. It is expected the new will be "Hank" Harris, the leading hitter of the Intercollegiate League last year, on first; Willy, a Tacoma lad, on second; Cohen, Porter Yett or Paul Duncan at shortstop and third base. The outfit will be taken care of by Roy Briggs, "Duds" Miller, Paul Dueber, "Tot" Manning or Jesse Strand.

The Maroons will play at home for the first two or three weeks of the season, and then will play out-of-town games. Any and all teams will be played. Last year they contained the record holder in previous years of being one of the fastest independent teams turned out on the Portland sand lots. The Maroons will probably be the first team to play out-of-town games from Portland.

In behalf of the Albina Colts baseball team, Harry Grayson, manager, has issued a challenge to play any teams in the Willamette Valley or vicinity of Portland for a side bet to see the team accepting the game. He is especially anxious to arrange games with Sheridan, Camas, Aurora, Hubbard and other Willamette Valley towns. The Albina Colts have secured the services of several fast local semi-professional men.

The Cale Bros. and Meier & Frank teams will meet Sunday afternoon at the Buckman field diamond. The game will begin at 3 o'clock. Charles Martin, who played several games in the Blue Mountain League, will wear a California uniform Sunday. Bill Read, first baseman, will perform at the initial sack.

The Popcorn Kings team has been reorganized with "Duke" Fletcher at its head. New uniforms were ordered by J. W. Patterson from the Spalding representatives and will no doubt arrive next week.

The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company shop has placed a baseball nine in the field and celebrated the opening day by beating Lents at Lents last Sunday by the score of 6 to 1. Sunday afternoon the team will engage in a game against the Hillside All Star team at the Columbus Club grounds, Williams avenue and Stanton streets.

Grammar School Teams Play.

Playing even in almost every inning of the game, when a couple of hits and a boot allowed three runs, the Glencoe Grammar School baseball team defeated the Crescent Grammar School team by the score of 8 to 7 yesterday.

RECORDS GO SMASH

Los Angeles Team Leads at Western Bowling Congress.

SPOKANE FIVE IS SECOND

Complaint Made That Alleys Are Not Fitted to Tournament.

Portland Pin Men Fall to Get Within Prize Money.

SPOKANE Wash., March 16.—(Special)—Every existing bowling record in Western bowling Congress tournament was broken tonight and to make the thing all the more decisive, some of the high marks were broken twice and three times, making the eighth day of the fifth annual tournament the biggest so far of the Central Pacific.

The Southern California, of Los Angeles, went into first place for the big $1500 prize, with a 2718 score and at the same time were given a battle royal by the Smiths Dope team of Spokane, backed by the new Western Bowling Congress president, which was put in the high marks that stood until today and now reposes in second place with 2622.

Joe Donohue of the Grove, of San Francisco, hung up a mark of 641 in the singles, which is so far 38 pins ahead of his nearest competitor. The team of Donohue and Kelton, representing the Grove, San Francisco, set a new mark for the doubles with 1212. Donohue also now leads for the best score for all nine games with a total of 1734 pins, passing the mark set by Dobb of Seattle early in the tournament.

This leaves every big prize in the hands of the Southern California, with two strong teams from Seattle, one from Wallace, Idaho, one from Calgary and one or two outside national possibilities to shoot today.

All sorts of arguments are being advanced to explain the failure of the crack bowlers to come up to the high scores of previous W. W. C. P. C. Games, where the alleys are too fast to make the hook ball, on which most of the crack bowlers rely; A. J. Warner insists that the new-fangled pin spotters, which work as a spike into a hole in the bottom of the pins, create a suction that makes the pins stick in spite of a ball that ordinarily would topple over; Tom Swinney says the alleys are too slippery, and other excuses are offered.

In the doubles this afternoon Portland bowlers performed as follows:

Amba 159 159 186

Heath 187 169 184

Totals 337 325 370

Grand total 158 200 182

Brackets 129 150 155

Total 232 390 377

Grand total Amba shot 474 in the singles.
