LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Unmistakably enthusiastic was the reception given Colonel Theodore Roosevelt during the first of his two days' stay in Los Angeles.

Cheering crowds greeted the Colonel upon his arrival at the railroad station in the morning, and they continued to wave their approval all day as he appeared, on the street or elsewhere.

The first address was at the Young Men's Christian Association, where Colonel Roosevelt spoke for a quarter of an hour on the work of that organization.

The luncheon given the Colonel by E. T. Earl, the Los Angeles publisher, was attended by 25 guests. It was purely a private function.

During an extended informal talk at this luncheon, Colonel Roosevelt is understood to have discussed many important topics in a very frank manner.

The exact language of Mr. Roosevelt, as given out for publication, follows: "When in the Oregon land case, it became necessary to obtain a man of great ability and indomitable courage.

"We need these qualities more than anything else, of standing absolutely square with regard to social, political or economical influences."

Colonel Roosevelt's second address of the day was delivered at Temple Auditorium, where he spoke for three-quarters of an hour to the high school and upper grades.

After Colonel Roosevelt's address at Temple Auditorium, he was taken by automobile to Pasadena, where he was the guest of honor at the dinner given by Arthur Fleming.

Two ex-presidents' wives together. Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel were the guests tonight at a dinner in their honor given by Mrs. James A. Garfield, widow of the martyred President.

Colonel admires triquets. Girl triquets occupied a portion of Colonel Roosevelt's time today. Shortly after his arrival at the hotel he was informed that Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bever, with their three daughters, Orena, Reona and Ramona, born last August 9, were in the lobby.

"Mrs. Bever, I want to say to you that you represent the very highest type of citizenship in my opinion. What fine girls they are, indeed."

"Motherhood is too sacred a matter to be treated lightly or made the basis for notoriety under any circumstances," he said. "There will be no photograph taken, please."

Famous Negro Educator Appears in New York Courtroom Ready to Testify, but Defendant Waives Examination.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Through an agreement of counsel, the charge of felonious assault made by Booker T. Washington against Albert Ulrich, a carpenter, growing out of an attack upon the negro educator Sunday night, was reduced to one of simple assault today, and instead of the case going to the grand jury as a felony, Ulrich waived examination and was bound in the Special Sessions on the minor charge.

Interest centered in the appearance of Washington in Police Court. His head was still swathed in bandages and he arrived in a taxicab, accompanied by ex-Governor Pinchback, of Louisiana.

By this time the crowd in the street had grown to several thousand.

PUBLICITY OF CUSTOMS SEARCH CAUSES STATEMENT.

Notoriety Given to Georgia Case Not Deemed Necessary to Report to Attorney-General's Office.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The publicity which attended the search of the baggage of Mrs. Joseph W. Hull and her daughter, of Savannah, Ga., on board the steamer Lusitania by custom officials at New York on March 17 and the criticism of the action of the custom officials was the cause of an official statement made by the Treasury Department today.

The department was "advised," the statement says, "that some member or members of the party would attempt to pass certain personal effects through the Custom-House without payment of duty, and consequently directions were given for the careful examination of the baggage."

The examination disclosed the fact that there had been omitted from their declarations more than $600 worth of dutiable merchandise. In accordance with the law applicable in such cases, a writ of the undeclared articles was made and forfeiture will be completed.

The department, however, has not deemed it necessary to report the facts to the United States Attorney for his action, in view of the disagreeable notoriety to which the women in question have been already subjected.
