

EFFORT MADE TO OBTAIN REFERENDUM

Salem Business Men's League Takes Up Cudgel for Higher Education.

MOVEMENT HELD UNWISE

Resolutions Point Out Low State Tax Levy and Show Needs of State University, Agricultural College and Normal School.

SALEM, Or., March 21.—(Special.)— Launching a state-wide movement against the referendum directed at the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College and the Mouthout Normal School, the Salem Business Men's League adopted resolutions tonight and at the same time took steps to interest every conscientious business man's body and similar organization in the state to send copies of the resolutions to these organizations, accompanied by a letter.

The resolutions adopted are as follows:
"Whereas, it appears that an attempt is being made to invade the referendum on appropriations for the University of Oregon, the Agricultural College and the Mouthout Normal School amounting in total to $24,755.92 for the biennial period of 1911-1912; and

"Whereas, we believe that the various state departments and institutions of Oregon are being conducted in an economical and conservative manner, and that the appropriations summarized above were properly made and represent the imperative demand of the institutions named; and

"Whereas, it has been reliably estimated that the total amount of the appropriations sought to be referred may be raised by an average tax of 34-100 of a mill on the taxable property of the state for each year of said biennial period, and that the total of these appropriations is less than 3 per cent of the estimated amount that will be in direct taxation for state, county and local purposes during said period; and in none of these are referred less than 2 cents out of each dollar paid in taxes will be required in these appropriations, and

"Whereas, the total amount levied as state tax for the current year represents an average levy of 1.61 mills, which is the lowest levied in the history of the state (the average levy for the 52 years from 1859 to 1911 being 4.57 mills; and

"Whereas, the total tax collected for state purposes is very small, representing only about one-eighth of the total taxes, therefore be it "Resolved, that the attempt to invoke the referendum against the appropriations is not in the interest of the development of the state at large, and that every citizen should be encouraged in the matter of signing the petitions and promulgating the same."

CAMPBELL IS NOT WORRYING

Varsity President Hopes Referendum Against Fund Will Die.

SALEM, Or., March 21.—(Special.)—
"We are hoping that the referendum movement against the University of Oregon will die of its own inertia," said President Campbell of the university here today. "We are well doubtful as to what the range of the movement might be, and whether it will gain sufficient ground to delay the receding of the appropriation."
"In event the referendum plan is seen to be of momentous proportions, I hope that a united effort will be made to nip it in the bud, so that it parent to all progressive citizens of the state that the money is essential to Oregon's best welfare."

WOODSTOCK IN PROTEST

Plans Declared to Impair Home Ownership by Workers.

WOODSTOCK, March 18.—(To Editor.)—Through the initiation and influence of the Woodstock Push Club the City Engineer's office has surveyed and estimated the cost of grading to the permanent grade the streets and making sidewalk pavements within this suburban district, now within the city limits. These estimates do not include the cost of hard surface for the streets, nor of any general system of sanitary drainage or sewerage, which must follow sooner or later.

The proposed improvement scheme embraces an area of about 92 acres, containing 110 blocks or 440 lots of 100 by 100. Within this area there are 12 streets running north and south, and 10 running east and west, making a total of 22 streets, which have a surface area to be graded of about 248, 000 square feet. These 110 blocks have 8800 lineal feet of sidewalk, which if paved six feet in width, will cover an area of 528,000 square feet.
The City Engineer's estimate of such improvements is said to be about $100,000. The plans and estimates have been approved by the City Council and published. The district has been divided into five separate portions for carrying out the planned improvements. The lowest estimate per lot is about $100, and the maximum $450.

Many poor people of the working class, whose employment is in the city, have built their homes within this district; these will be unable to meet the cost of high-class improvements. In many cases the cost is more

PLOT AGAINST R.M.,
SO SAID CHARGES

Camorrist Accuses Carbineers of Seeking Downfall for Revenge.

RING USED TO CONVICT HIM

One of Six Men Charged With Killing Cuocolo Says Carbineers Try to Discredit Police—Priestly Prisoner Desires Death.

VITERBO, Italy, March 21.—The Camorrist on trial for the murder of two of their number are attempting the defense that they are the victims of false evidence, manufactured by the legion of carbineers of Naples, who, while accomplishing the apprehension of the defendants, sought to discredit the police of Naples and make the latter appear to be disloyal to the state and the church.

This was the defense set up by Giuseppe Salvi, when he was interrogated on the resumption of the case today. Salvi is one of the six alleged assassins of Gennaro Cuocolo and the latter's wife. It is charged that he is one of those who stabbed the husband to death and later, in company with Corrado Sortino, executed the Camorrist sentence of death against Maria Pattinelli Cuocolo at her home in Via Via Nardone.

Salvi was confronted today with a ring which had belonged to Cuocolo and which the authorities found hidden in the mattress of a bed at the home of a woman known as a friend of the accused.

The theory of the police was that this ring was to be sent to Luigi Arena as proof of Cuocolo's death. Arena asked his brother Camorrist to murder Cuocolo in revenge for his betrayal. He set forth that Cuocolo wished a share of the spoils from a robbery committed by Arena and a few companions and, being refused, denounced the robbers to the police, resulting in their imprisonment. Cuocolo was already under suspicion, and this final accusation against him resulted in the determination to put him out of the way.

Salvi is a small man, and he called the attention of the court to this fact, saying:
"The strong and dreaded Camorrista would never think of employing a man of my size to murder an abie-bodied woman."

Piot of Carbineers is Defense.

As to the finding of the ring, he declared that it had been placed in the mattress of the woman in a deliberate effort to make evidence against the Camorrista. This assertion, though not unexpected, produced something of a sensation in court, as it was plain that the carbineers are to be attacked on the ground of having antagonized the police. They are prepared to go to any extreme to show complicity between the Camorrista and the police officials of Naples.

The priest, Ugo Vittozzi, is suffering from a slight pectoral ailment, and was against the advice of the prison physicians that he went to court today.
While he was being taken thither the springs of the wagon broke and he was left that in view of the weakness of his heart, the accident might have resulted in his death. To this the priest replied:
"That would have been a short cut to the end of all my miseries."

The proceedings were not resumed in the afternoon, owing to the illness of a juror.

President Bianchi announced that the trial would be resumed tomorrow morning in the course of the day. At Professor Otto Lenghi of the faculty of medicine at the University of Rome, arrived to examine the informer, Gennaro Abbatemaggio. He is a member of the defense, which will attempt to prove that Abbatemaggio is mentally irresponsible. When the president was examined, he remarked calmly:
"Professor, you're losing your time." Abbatemaggio thinks that his interrogation by the court will occupy about one week during which he expects to repeat his revelations regarding the crime of the Camorrista.

RELAY TEAMS CHOSEN

Y. M. C. A. AND INDIANS NAME
TRIOS OF FAST RUNNERS.

Chemawa Runners More Experienced. All Having Taken Part in Annual 50-Mile Events

Booth, Bardolliar and Nelson were selected to represent the Young Men's Christian Association in the six-mile relay race with the Chemawa Indian Training School to be held Friday night at the association gymnasium. Tryouts were held Monday night and Nelson, the third man chosen, won his berth on the team by beating Smith by less than a yard in a two-mile run.

Nelson was one of Washington High School's point-getters in the annual inter-school track and field meet last month. He ran the mile and half-mile races, getting points in each event. With Windasage and Barber, Nelson completed a trio of winning distance runners for the East Side High School.

Booth and Bardolliar are the men who ran such a great race in the six-day Marathon held by the Y. M. C. A. a month ago. In competition with the Jefferson High School team recently Booth lowered the mile record of the institution by several seconds. Last
races, getting points in each event. With Windasage and Barber, Nelson completed a trio of winning distance runners
for the East Side High School.

The Chemawa Indian have been training for the past two weeks. The Indian school will be represented by William Mose, Kiatus Jim and Louis Jan. Mose is a Digger Indian, aged 22, from California and ran the five-mile race in the last two Salem-Portland races.
In 1908 he won over McDaniels by 12 seconds and in 1910 won from Laasch by 2 minutes 25 seconds. Kiatus Jim is a Yakima Indian from Washington, aged 19, and ran Vanderlip about even in the 1910 contest. Louis Jan is of the Mukleshoot tribe from Washinton, aged 18. He ran in the Salem-Portland relay in 1910 and 1909, both times against Perkins. Two years ago he defeated Perkins by 25 seconds; last

TACOMA BEATS SEALS BY 4 RUNS

San Francisco Score Only Three Against 7 of Tigers.

San Francisco, March 21.—(Special.)— If San Francisco had any hopes of seeing the Seals twist the Tiger's tail last night, they were grievously disappointed. It is not a pleasant story to tell how the class B recruits from the Northwest pounced on the class A Seals and it might be best to whisper it. You can't get away from "facts and figures" however, and you have to admit when it is all over, that Tacoma was on the sunny side of a 7-to-3 score.

The one bright ray of sunshine as far as the Coastiers are concerned, is that two of their aid twirlers, Edna Hart and Melkie, did the pitching. Their support at critical moments was of the variety to make you shudder, for the errors were of a good margin.

John Bassey, not so many years ago an outfielder with the Beavers, was really the day's hero. Bassey got a couple of stolen bases and three hits, one of which was a homer over right.

Kid Mohler is confined to his room with stomach trouble. Weaver and Schmidt caught the entire game, Walter Ryan having been struck full in the face by a thrown ball during the practice work.
Mike Lynch worked his regular squad save that Goldenstein held down short for a time in order that the Tacoma manager might have the chance to look over his California recruits.

PIPELINE RIGHT FIRST

LOT OWNERS CANNOT OBSTRUCT BULL RUN WATER.

Supreme Court Upholds Injunction, Freight Rate Undercharge Does Not Release Shippers.

SALEM, Or., March 21.—(Special.)— Portland's Bull Run water supply cannot be interfered with by those who have bought town lots in Greenham, through which the pipeline operates, is the opinion of the Supreme Court, written by Chief Justice Eakin and handed down today, affirming Judge Gatens, of Multnomah County. The affirmation is in an action started by the city to enjoin D. W. and Emma Metzger, appellants. These defendants purchased lots in Greenham, and in the lower court several separate and distinct acts of cruelty were set out in the complaint and the Supreme Court finds them of such nature and so well proved that the lower court is reversed and a decree entered.

Judgment is reversed in an opinion by Justice McBride in the case of Baldwin Sheep & Land Company vs. the Columbia Southern, appealed from Judge Cleland in Multnomah County.
Plaintiffs started the action to recover $4487.44 as an overcharge caused by an alleged misquotation of a freight rate.
The court holds that if the rate quoted is less than the schedule rate established and published, the shipper is liable for the full rate, and whether he actually knows that the rate is less than the scheduled rate or not.

Other cases were decided today as follows:
Yale Market & Grocery, appellant, vs.
M. E. Atter and wife, respondents, appealed from Multnomah County. The court reversed the judgment in an opinion written by Justice McBride.

Authe and wife, respondents, vs. Hillboro Gold Mining Company, respondent; appealed from Washington County. Justice McBride, in an opinion written by Justice Eakin, affirmed the judgment of Judge Cleland in Multnomah County.

George H. Burroughs, appellant, vs. Curtis and wife, respondents; appealed from Multnomah County. Justice Moore, in an opinion written by Justice Moore, affirmed the judgment of Judge Cleland in Multnomah County. George H. Burroughs, appellant, vs. Curtis and wife, judges, affirmed in opinion by Justice McBride.

Performance at Baker Adds $600 to Convention Fund.

The Baker Theater was filled last night by the members of the Portland Ad Club and their friends at a special entertainment provided in connection with the regular performance of "A Texas Steer." It was a most successful affair, and it was a happy event to give for the purpose of raising a fund to send a delegation to Spokane to secure the next meeting of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association, which will meet in Spokane several days next month.

Miss Mabel Ferris gave a monologue in a most pleasing and artistic manner. Bob Albright, of the Pentecost, known as the "Man Melba," gave imitations of prominent singers, and G.
Herbert Mitchell, of the Grand, told several stories. Henry Stockbridge and Ray Butler, of the Baker Stock Company, each gave one of their specialties.

The stock company, in presenting "A Texas Steer," played with unusually good effect, and the members were cheered by the ad men. Miss Ida Adair as Bessy was especially captivating.
The ad club cleared about $600.
