Nick Williams Gets Clever Player That He May Add Strength to His Northwestern League--Griffith and Russell Let Opt.

SANTA MARIA, Cal., March 21.—(Special.)—A heavy rain falling during the night and most of the morning almost kept the Beavers indoors today, but the precipitation ceased about noon and the players went to the ball park this afternoon and had a good workout.

Some of them wore their new uniforms, which arrived today, for the first time, while others, more careful, donned the old suits for fear of soiling the new suits in the mud.

Sam Griffith and Bill Russell will be released by McCredie tomorrow, while Eddie Mensor will start north to join the Northwestern team either tomorrow or Thursday.

McCredie announced today that second baseman Jack Barry, formerly of the New York Giants, would join the Beavers here or at Los Angeles in a few days. Barry is now in Portland, where he is interested in the determination to make good and help Nick Williams land the Northwestern League pennant if possible.

Russell displays signs of being a fine young pitcher, but he lacks control and nerve, so McCredie decided he would not take a chance with the big fellow, while Griffith was unable to get into condition and his arm bothered him considerably.

McCredie announced today that second baseman Jack Barry, formerly of the New York Giants, would join the Beavers here or at Los Angeles in a few days.

However, Rodgers will be given a thorough tryout, and Mac thinks he can make good, but is sending for Barry to protect himself and because of the superior talent of the other players will prove a help to the team in many ways.

PROSECUTOR AT SPOKANE Townsend to Argue Against Coal Claimants Today.

SEATTLE, March 21.—B. D. Townsend, Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, left for Spokane today to represent the Government in the arguments in District Judge Rudkin's court on a demurrer to the indictment returned by a Federal grand jury last Fall against the locators of the so-called Doughton group of Alaska coal claims in the Kayak district of Alaska.

Harry White, ex-Mayor of Seattle; Charles A. McKinnis, a Seattle promoter; Donald A. McKenzie, Washington, D. C.; Raymond Brown and William I. Dunn, of Spokane, and Charles M. Douglass, of Pease, Wash., are charged with conspiring to defraud the Government out of 20,000 acres of coal land valued by United States experts at from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, and by others at various amounts, some as high as $30,000,000.

This is the group in which ex-Governor James N. Gilllet, of California; ex-Congressman McLellan, of Pasadena, Cal.; and Henry T. Oxnard, president of the American Beet Sugar Company, hold claims.

Townsend's proceedings at Spokane will be the first in a fight involving all the coal lands in Alaska.

NEW LEAGUE FORMS Portland Catholic Schools Organize for Athletics.

FATHER KIERNAN AT HEAD Baseball and Possibly Track Sports to Be Only Games Included in Work at First, but Later All Will Be Taken Up.

Known as the Portland Catholic School League, an organization whose function will be to promote athletics in the parochial schools of the city, was organized Monday night at a meeting of the directors of Catholic schools of Portland.

Father Kiernan and Brother Gabriel, F. C., were elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the new athletic organization. Immediately these men began to outline athletic events for the boys over whom the organization will supervise in athletics.

The plans for the future are elaborate and will embrace work in all departments of athletics.

Father Kiernan is especially well fitted to act as head of the new organization, having been director of athletics at St. Andrew's School for more than two years, during that time coming into contact with many boys.

Father Kiernan is prime mover in the organization of this new athletic-football league.

It is the intention of the directors of the league to establish a baseball league immediately to play to be held between the Catholic schools of the city arranged. Activities in other branches of athletics may not be encouraged this year, but plans for indoor and outdoor track meets for the following Spring are already being laid.

The organizers of the new league are deeply interested in grammar-school athletics, and every-day athletics for boys and girls. It is possible that teams from the schools in the Portland Catholic School League will enter the Columbia University Grammar School indoor track and field meet to be held April 1.

There are six schools represented in the league, those are St. Andrew's, St. Mary's, St. Lawrence's, Christian Brothers' Business College, St. Francis and St. Patrick's. Those delegates present at Monday's meeting were Fathers Kiernan, Father Daly, Father Hughes and Brother Gabriel.

"For a long time this league has been in the forming," said Brother Gabriel. "We believe it will do Portland's youth infinite good in that pure athletics will make up healthy minds and healthy bodies, the citizenry of the city profiting thereby. Athletics are becoming more popular every day, and by organizing at this time we hope to grow into a great league in a short time."

"Of course, for a time we will be a small organization, and for perhaps the first year we will foster but one or two branches of athletics, but eventually we hope to encourage all forms that is what we are organized for. At first competition will be between our own schools, but later it may expand and take in non-sectarian schools, too. All the men interested in the league are firm believers in athletics, and we hope to make this league as strong as those of the East and West."

The next meeting of the Portland Catholic School League will be held next Monday night at the residence of Father Kiernan, 1813 East Eleventh street, North. Business pertaining to the baseball league will be part of the evening's work.

Turn Vereln Boys Take Hike. Thirty members of the boys' classes of the Portland Turn Vereln passed an enjoyable day's outing last Sunday by "hiking" from Portland to Oregon City. The boys met with Professor Gensers at 7:30 and the 12-mile walk was begun. The journey was made at a leisurely pace, arrival at Oregon City being made at 1 o'clock. The largest of the boys was 15 years of age and the smallest was 3 years old.

PORTLAND SENDS THREE LOCAL BALLPLAYERS TO TRY OUT WITH SPOKANE. Tauscher and Baker Brothers Will Seek Indian Uniforms—Al Lerch Is Going Later.

In the persons of Johnny Tauscher and the Baker brothers, Bill and Fred, Portland has sent a trio of baseball men to Spokane, where they will try to land berths with Joe Cohn's Spokane Indians, the Northwestern League. They are well-known local players, having been seen in action in this vicinity for some time.

Johnny Tauscher is a Portland-raised youth, having learned the great national game on the sand lots here, graduating into faster company several years ago when he donned a Gresham uniform. As a third baseman for "Bart" Bartholomew's Gresham Giants last year, Tauscher was a sensation and fairly strong at the bat. Fast, a clever fielder and a man who supported the pitcher by a running fire of conversation of encouragement, Jack, as he is more generally known, helped greatly in Gresham's conquest of the local baseball world.

That Joe Cohn, the Spokane manager, rates Tauscher highly was evidenced by his statement when in Portland last week. He said: "Tauscher has been very highly recommended to me and I intend to give the boy a chance trying out. Several really capable baseball judges rate the boy highly as a fielder. I understand that his physique is not the greatest in the world, but that can be developed."

"I am depending upon my youngsters to fill the infield. Shortstop is open and Tauscher will be given a chance there. He will not have to beat any seasoned veterans out of their jobs, so I expect the lad to 'make good'."

The Baker boys have been playing around Western Oregon for several years, Bill being a catcher, while Fred is a pitcher.

Another Portland boy who will go to Spokane for a tryout is Al Lerch, outfielder. He played in the Tri-City League for a time last season and distinguished himself during the indoor season by playing right field for the Dilworth Derbies. Lerch will not report to Cohn for at least a week.

The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company shops' team defeated the Gill Butchers Sunday afternoon at the Columbus Club field. The score was 12 to 1.

The Camas Blues opened their season Sunday by playing the Letourneau Camas nine. The score was 5 to 2. Camas has a faster team this year than last. Winterbotham is twirling for the team.

1000-Mile Airship Race Next. NEW YORK, March 21.—The Aero Club of America has just received the official conditions of the 1000-mile airplane race around Great Britain for a prize of $50,000, which is to be held next July. The contest will be begun on Saturday, July 23, and will be finished at the latest on August 2.

The race is open to competitors of any nationality holding an aviator's certificate from the International Aeronautical Federation. An entrance fee of $500 is required.

Brooklyn Nine Takes Game. In a practice game held Sunday afternoon the Brooklyn baseball team defeated the Hop Gulls by the score of 13 to 6. The Brooklyn team is willing to meet any team in Portland or fast out-of-town nine.

RACING GAME ENDS Sport of Horsemen in New York State Is Killed.

COURSE WILL BE CLOSED News in Empire State Given Out Simultaneously With Reports From New Orleans That Game Is Beyond Redemption.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Horse-racing is dead in New York state for this year at least. The Jockey Club issued a statement tonight saying that because of adverse legislation, it had been decided to make no application for racing dates.

This news came out almost simultaneously with reports from New Orleans that horse-owners believe they will have no racing there.

The Jockey Club announcement, signed by A. Daingerfield, secretary, says: "At a meeting of the representatives of the Coney Island Jockey Club, the Brooklyn Jockey Club, the Westchester Racing Association, the Saratoga Association, the Queens County Jockey Club, the Empire City Racing Association and the Metropolitan Jockey Club, held today, it was decided to make no application to the State Racing Commission for racing dates."

"As the so-called directors' liability law remains on the statute books, the same reason exists, as in September, 1910, for keeping the course closed, and it was further decided to make this public announcement."

Racing Gone; Park to Be Sold. NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—When the directors of the New Orleans Jockey Club met last Thursday, it is reported they will consider a plan to dispose of the City Park racing plant. It is said the owners do not believe racing can be revived in this state.

PORTLAND IS TIED FOR SECOND Revolver Association Matches Give Springfield Championship.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 21.—Official returns from the final matches of the Indoor League of the United Revolver Association last week place the Springfield club as champion.

Manhattan of New York and Portland, Or., are tied for second place. Final standings of the clubs follow:

Table with 2 columns: Club, Won. Lost. Springfield, 22 2. Portland, Or., 21 2. Boston, 19 4. Washington, 18 4. Providence, 15 8. Seattle, 14 9. Chicago, 12 11. Emeryville, Cal., 12 11. Oakland, Cal., 9 14. Portland, Me., 8 15. Spokane, 7 16. Youngstown, 6 17. Louisville, 5 21. Belleville, 2 23. Fall St. Marie, 1 24.

Nick Williams, manager of the Northwestern team, will soon be in charge of the conditioning of the Roadsters. Williams left here Saturday and expects to be in Portland by next Friday at the latest.

Krueger modestly asserts that he will make the other fly chasers, even Chadbourne, go some to lead him.

Buddy Ryan is offering to bet any member of the Portland team a new hat that he hits .275 this season, and Walter McCredie says that if Buddy does he will buy him a new suit at the end of the season, and Bud can have it made anywhere he likes. Bill Rodgers, whose sensational improvement in form grows better every day, has so taken the eye of Walter McCredie that he never refers to Neal Ball in discussing his team with Captain Sheehan and his uncle, W. W. McCredie. The latter is especially impressed with Rodgers.

When Nick Williams arrives in Portland he expects to be quizzed considerably about the Beavers, and before he left he remarked to Walter McCredie: "I am going to boost your bunch as repeaters, and it will be up to you to make good." "Go as far as you like, Nick," replied Walter. "Roaring Bill" Rapps is another Beaver who is showing decided improvement in all departments. Bill is hitting the ball harder than he did last Spring, and is playing a rattling good game at first base. The Missionary promises to have another good year.

Roger Peckinpugh is getting his eye on the ball, and has been batting quite pleasingly in the recent practice games. As a fielder he is the equal of any other in the team, and is playing quite lively and throws accurately from any position.

Gus Helling, the ex-Portlander, is playing center field for the "Protesters," and is starting off in fine style. He has been getting his hits regularly, and is playing in such glib style that he may displace either McCredie, Hoffman or Bowser, the gardeners figured as the Oak's regulars.

DEFEATED BOWLERS RETURN Portland Teams Take Only Minor Prizes at Spokane Tourney.

Defeated but not discouraged, the last of the Portland bowling contingents arrived home from the Western Bowling Congress at Spokane yesterday. The pinners reported a big gathering of bowling experts and one of the most successful Western Bowling Congress tournaments ever held. There were 44 teams entered, 41 of which were from Spokane and the others from places widely scattered through the Pacific Coast and Canada.

The Portland men reported Los Angeles the winner of the biggest plumb, a prize of $1000. Spokane teams took second, third and sixth. Seattle, San Francisco and Portland took fourth, fifth and seventh places, respectively, each place carrying with it a cash prize. The best score made by any of the Portland quartet of teams was registered by the Portland quietest, consisting of C. H. Kruse, captain; George Henry, Gus Heylund, L. F. Bishop and Al Arena. These men rolled a total of 247 for their games.

With 37 two-men teams competing the Keen-Davis combination from Seattle carried off top money with a score of 1192. Portland had two teams in the 1100 class, the Ahrens-Swinney and Bishop-Ball pairs scoring 1109 and 1107 points. A Spokane roller, tooling up with a score of 1100, rolled fifth and seventh places, respectively, each place carrying with it a cash prize. The best score made by any of the Portland quartet of teams was registered by the Portland quietest, consisting of C. H. Kruse, captain; George Henry, Gus Heylund, L. F. Bishop and Al Arena. These men rolled a total of 247 for their games.

Although they went with the intention of making a record-breaking run on Broadway, "The Climax" is a very beautiful story of Bohemian life in a great metropolis, but the intention of the original production, which is its very humanity is so completely lost that it is almost impossible to see the point of the play.
