Mas. Bunkhard Dies in Los Angeles.
Cari Zimmerman, friend of the family, yesterday received a telegram from Los Angeles, Cal., announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Burkhard, wife of Joseph Burkhard, early residents, of Portland, from apoplexy. Mr. Zimmerman had just returned from Los Angeles and when he left Mrs. Burkhard was in good health, apparently. Mr. an Mrs. Joseph Burkhard lived in East Pertland in the early days, the Burkhard building, on East Burnside street, having been built by Mr. Burkhard. They moved to Los Angeles 20 years ago. Mrs. Burkhard is emryived by her husband and the following children: Frank and Herman Burkhard, Mrs. Anna H. Erkenbrecker and Mrs. Sue Einder, of Los Angeles. The funeral will be held today in Los Angeles. The funeral will be held today in Los Angeles.

Croissant a waterfront saloonkeeper, who was the first man to be arrested under the "model" liquor ordinance, escaped with a light penalty when his case was colled in Municipal Court yesterday. Following the old custom, his case was placed on the state docket, thus coming under the operation of the statute which provides a maximum penalty of $55 and that was the amount of Croissant's fine. It is the intention of the city authorities to file a new complaint, on the contention that Croissant has offended against twe sovereignties and cannot therefore plead prior jeopardy.

LAST DAY BEFORE PENALTY IS DUE SEES INFLUX.

Property Owners Swamp Tax Department to Pay Cash Due-10 Per Cent Thought Delinquent.

Deputies in the tax collecting office at the County Courthouse were deluged with mail, containing checks and bills in payment of taxes yesterday. From early morning still the office closed at 5 o'clock there were lines of property owners passing in front of the various windows designated as receiving points. The reason for the rush was the fact that yesterday was the last day on which taxes could be paid without incurring an arbitrary penalty of 10 per cent of the amount due in addition to 1 per cent a month.

So heavy was the mail that it will be impossible to give an accurate statement of the percentage of the tax paid until near the end of the week, but it is estimated that not more than 10 per cent of the total sum to be collected is delinquent. The rolls called for the payment of approximately $6,400,000. This was on the basis of a 22-mill rate. The taxes of business men on central city property have been for the most part paid, but many took advantage of the ruling which allows the payment of half now and the balance early in October without the incurring of a pensity.

The prisoner was mute when asked questions concerning his parentage and place of residence.

Gutani was arrested after a woman had called the officer's attention to the He was weeping pitifully and told all inquirers the time-worn tale of having lost his money and of the beat-ing he would get when he returned home without it. The informant said that she had observed him several days, plying his traffic at the same corner.

Gutani replied "I don't know" to all questions. He said that he did not know the way home, as his father called for him in the evening. Then he remembered that his father was a janitor at a downtown office building and he was released, pending investigation by the Juvanile Court. He was recog-nized by several officers as the boy who in months past has reaped a harvest in the sale of newspapers, assisted by his lachrymose appearance.
