

LORIMER'S TITLE AGAIN ATTACKED

La Follette Proposes New Inquiry Into Bribery by Senate.

PRECEDENTS SET ASIDE

Resolution Names Committee Chosen at Insurgent Conference—List Comprises Only New Senators. Lorimer's Foes Increase.

FATE OF LORIMER RESTS WITH 19 NEW SENATORS.

William Lorimer held his seat in the United States Senate by a vote of 44 to 41. Of the 41 Senators who voted in Lorimer's favor, 19 are no longer members of the Senate. Of the 49 Senators who voted against Lorimer, four are no longer members of the Senate. Thus the vote of the old members of the Senate can be taken to stand: For Lorimer's retention, 16. Here are the new members of the Senate who will cast the deciding vote at Lorimer's new trial: Republicans—Lippitt, Rhode Island; McLean, Connecticut; Townsend, Washington; Townsend, Michigan; Work, California—3. Democrats—Blount, Florida; Chilton, West Virginia; Hughes, Colorado; Hitchcock, Nebraska; J. Morgan, Maine; Kern, Indiana; Lea, Tennessee; Myers, Montana; Martin, New Jersey; O'Gorman, New York; Penrose, Ohio; Reed, Missouri; Williams, Mississippi; Wood, West Virginia—14.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Violating several precedents, La Follette today introduced a resolution in the Senate for a new investigation of the Lorimer bribery charges.

It is contrary to precedent to reopen a case of this kind once decided. It is also contrary to precedent to name the members of the investigating committee on the resolution appointing it. It is a further violation of precedent to appoint only new members of the Senate on such a committee.

La Follette proposed that the committee be composed of Works of California, Townsend of Michigan, McLean of Connecticut, Kern of Indiana and Penrose of Ohio. Of these the first two are insurgents, the last two Democrats and McLean is a regular. It is understood they were selected at an insurgent conference.

Punk's Charge Is Basis.

The resolution recites the action of the Senate last session, when a resolution to declare the seat of Senator Lorimer vacant because of alleged corruption of the Illinois Legislature which had elected him, was defeated. The resolution recites:

"It appears from the published reports of the proceedings of the said Illinois State Senate committee, that witnesses who were not called and sworn by the committee of this Senate appointed to investigate said charges, have appeared before the said committee of the Illinois State Senate and on being interrogated, have given important material testimony tending to prove that $100,000 was corruptly expended to secure the election of William Lorimer to the United States Senate."

The fight will begin at the outset, for the Lorimer Senators will endeavor to refer the resolution to the committee on privileges and elections, of which Dillingham, a Lorimer man, is chairman. In the hope that it will be smothered there.

Lorimer's Chances Worse.

The prospects of unseating Lorimer are greatly improved by the recent revelations at Springfield, Ill., and also by the injection of new insurgent and Democratic blood into the Senate, nearly all of the new members being counted as anti-Lorimer.

Some of Missouri made the prediction at the White House today that the Senate would be compelled to investigate for the second time the charges of bribery in Lorimer's election. Senator Stone believes a new committee will be appointed to prosecute the investigation.

"The testimony in the legislative investigation in Springfield is so ugly," said Stone, "that it seems to me Congress must take notice of it, and if I am not mistaken, the Senate will take serious action. The precedents of the situation might influence the Senate to wait until the Illinois investigation is finished. Testimony produced in Springfield undoubtedly would be brought officially to the attention of the Senate."

TILDEN READY TO TESTIFY

But Packer Can't Find Committee, Which Has Adjourned.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 6.—Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing Company, of Chicago, who was yesterday named by Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester Company, as the receiver of an alleged $100,000 Lorimer slush fund, for more than an hour today walked about the Capitol here, trying to deliver himself to the Helm bribery committee under a subpoena served upon him in Chicago yesterday. The subpoena directed him to appear before the Helm committee today. It was made out by the committee prior to the taking of Clarence S. Funk's testimony yesterday. The committee's secretary failed to notify Mr. Tilden that the committee had adjourned until next Thursday and that in consequence his presence would not be necessary until that time. As soon as Mr. Tilden learned of this he returned to Chicago.

Lack of acquaintance in legislative circles enabled Mr. Tilden to roam through the Statehouse without his presence being discovered by the reporters who were upon his trail. Persons to whom he applied for information did not know his name and he did not make his identity known. Senator Logan Hay, another member of the Senate bribery committee, explained the error and released Mr. Tilden until next Thursday. Mr. Tilden returned to Chicago on a train this afternoon without being interviewed. Many House members today gained the impression that the committee was prepared to summon them. This undoubtedly would result in a clash between the two bodies.

Lorimer Declines to Comment.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 6.—Arriving here this afternoon, Senator Lorimer.

of Illinois, was shown a telegram from Washington, announcing that Senator La Follette had introduced a resolution in the Senate, calling for a new investigation of Lorimer's election to that body. Mr. Lorimer read the message calmly and then said that he could not comment on it except on the floor of Congress. He announced he would return today to Washington, leaving here early this evening.

RED APPLES HELD BEST

New York Exporter Declares Jonathans, Winesaps and Spitz First.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., April 6.—(Special.)—"I am still preaching the red apple as the one to grow for the New York market, and the best sizes as from 2 1/2 to 3 1/4," said Kenneth H. Day, representative of Sigbel & Day, apple exporters of New York, who was in the White Salmon yesterday interviewing orchardists. "The Jonathan, Winesap and Spitz are the three best selling red apples and should be marketed in the order I have named them. The value of the red apple is that it is very striking on the fruit stands and in the stores and appears riper than the greenish yellow Newtown alongside of it. The Spitz should have been sold out by the fore part of January, leaving the way clear for the Newtown, a particularly great seller in the European market. Newtowns, by the way, are selling pretty well now and would net the grower here about $1.75 per box. Apples, many of which are Newtowns, are now being shipped to England and this country, 60,000 boxes coming to New York City just two days ago.

"One of the chief reasons why prices were not realized for certain districts this winter is that huge quantities were dumped into Chicago and New York at the same time and the weather was unusually warm, many going to soft fruits as a consequence. It was one of the warmest winters we ever had. There is absolutely no danger of over-production of such quality apples as you grow in the Hood River, White Salmon, Underwood and Mosier sections, apples that are known to be the very best. The Central Selling Agency, such as you contemplate, will prove a good thing. "As to pears, there is a very promising future, the marketing is broadening, for them and the growers of Bartlett, Anjou, Comice, have nothing to lose."

STEEPLECHASE TO BE RUN

Vancouver Barracks Plans April Programme of Sports.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., April 6.—(Special.)—A steeplechase course of a mile and an eighth, with hurdles from two and one-half to five feet high, has been made. Several steeplechases will be run this month. Four silver cups for horse sports events have already been secured and several more will be put up before the events are run. A polo game between a team from Portland and one composed of officers of the barracks will play here Sunday morning and to this the public is invited. The players will be virtually the same as those who played last Sunday. An officers' team to be organized will challenge the winning team. A closed paper club is also being arranged for some day this month and members of the Portland Hunt Club have been invited to participate. The post baseball team has issued a challenge to any amateur ball team in Oregon or Washington, the game to be played here preferably. This team won the championship title of this district in Tacoma last July.

BANKWRECKER LET OUT

Imboden May Sue Accusers for Plot to Imprison Him.

DENVER, April 6.—Leonard Imboden, who with James A. Hill was sentenced in March, 1908, to nine years in the penitentiary for having attempted to wreck the Denver Savings Bank, will leave prison tomorrow, a parole signed by Governor Evans and Chief Clerk Blake having been granted. Imboden has obtained permission to go to Kansas City and thence to New York on business. Eventually he will go to Arizona. It is said that Imboden and Hill may start civil suits on the ground that they were the victims of a conspiracy. Hill was released Jan. 17.

Initiative Decision to Be Published.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—Senator Brown, of Nebraska, secured an order in the Senate today to print as a public document the decision of the Supreme Court of Oregon in the case of Frank Klerman against the City of Portland, involving the legality of the Oregon initiative and referendum act.

MOTIVE IS NOT LEARNED

Valet Finds Employer Lying Dead in His Room—Son Insists Death Must Have Been Result of an Accident.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—Craige Lippincott, head of the publishing house of J. B. Lippincott Company and prominent in the financial and social life of the city, shot and killed himself early today in his magnificent home, 213 West Rittenhouse square. The motive that led Mr. Lippincott to end his life is not definitely known. An authorized statement given out by an officer of the publishing company says that he killed himself during a period of temporary aberration. Mr. and Mrs. Lippincott last night attended the Metropolitan Opera-house, where they witnessed a performance of "Quo Vadis" given by the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company. In this opera the curtain goes down on a scene in which Petronius declares that he is tired of life, and then, after a beautiful love-duel with Eunice, the slave girl, they die in each other's arms. Sensation Is Caused.

The tragic death of Mr. Lippincott caused a sensation. There was a strong disposition on the part of relatives and friends to doubt that he had died designedly, his son, Jay B. Lippincott, going so far as to make a sworn statement giving it as his opinion that his father had died by accident. It is declared that neither Mrs. Lippincott, the widow, who was in an adjoining room, nor the son, who was on the floor above, heard the "fall."

Mr. Lippincott, who was 55 years old, was found dead by his valet. There was a bullet wound in the right temple. So far as can be learned, Mr. Lippincott retired last night in good spirits.

Statement Is Issued.

The following authorized statement by an officer of the J. B. Lippincott Company was given out this afternoon: "During a period of temporary aberration Craige Lippincott, president of the J. B. Lippincott Company, shot and killed himself at his residence, 213 West Rittenhouse square, early this morning. The business of the publishing house will not be affected by Mr. Lippincott's death."

A sworn statement by Lippincott's son says: "My father always kept a loaded revolver in his room, and at the least bit of noise he heard he would get the revolver and then investigate. In my opinion he heard some noise and went and got the revolver, and in some way it was discharged. It must have been an accident."

GAYNOR RETURNS HOME

Ex-Convict Who Swears He's Pauper Jestis About Poverty.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 6.—Colonel John F. Gaynor, who was released from the Federal prison at Atlanta, March 24, after serving a sentence of three years for defrauding the Government on harbor improvement contracts, arrived in Syracuse last evening after an absence of 19 years. "He appeared in excellent spirits today, although suffering from locomotor ataxia. Seated in his handsomely furnished home, he joked about his poverty. Colonel Gaynor's plans are not yet formulated. He said he wanted to forget the past and asked the newspapers to give him a fair deal.

IRELAND HAS TRADEMARK

Taft May Aid Recognition of Nation by United States.

LONDON, April 6.—John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Parliamentary party, has given out the correspondence between himself and President Taft concerning appropriations to secure special legislative protection in the United States of the Irish national trademark.

In a letter dated March 11, Mr. Redmond calls attention to the increase of exports from Ireland to the United States and asks the President to use his "powerful influence in securing the passage of a special act recognizing the Irish national trade-mark," so that it may obtain registration in the United States.

Replying on March 20, Mr. Taft writes: "I think such a provision would be fair and equitable."

The President adds that he is getting opinions on the subject from the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Patents.
