EXTENSION OF LARRABEE STREET URGED

Residents and property owners on Larrabee street and adjoining streets are pushing their claims for a direct street to the East approach to the new railroad bridge now under construction. They are asking that Larrabee street be extended to the approach, not directly south, but to follow the brow of the bluff overlooking the railroad lands. The residents desired a direct street to connect with the viaduct, but this would be expensive and difficult, so they have adopted a new plan with reasonable prospect of success. The point out that Larrabee street will be a great highway connecting with Mississippi avenue, and that both are being improved with hard-surface pavement to North Albina.

PROVERBIAL REMINISCENCES TO BE PUBLISHED

Rev. Harold Oberg, pastor of the Montavilla Methodist Church, announced yesterday that the publication of the history and reminiscences, written by the late Rev. Thomas Royal, pioneer minister, is assured. More than 400 subscriptions to the first edition have been secured and 500 are required. Rev. Mr. Oberg said that money would be forthcoming and that the printing of the book would be undertaken at once in Ohio, under the supervision of Rev. Stanley O. Royal, son of the writer. Rev. Mr. Oberg, who has read the manuscript and seen the numerous illustrations, said that it would be a valuable contribution to the historical literature of pioneers and a story of rare interest.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN'S FUNERAL

The funeral of J. L. Cross, of Boring, who died last week, was held from his late home. Rev. Mr. Calder, of Pleasant Home, assisted by Rev. David Wolfe, conducted the services. Mr. Cross was a veteran of the civil war, having enlisted at 21 years old as a member of Company A, of the Minnesota Cavalry. He was a prominent member of the Grand Army, and the funeral was attended by members of the Gresham Post. Death was caused by paralysis. A widow, a daughter and two sons survive him.

LOVE FIB TO BE BEAUTIFIED—J. A. Snowbird, secretary of the J. A. Snowbird Cemetery Association, reports that $2500 has been received to be used to improve and beautify Love Fib Cemetery, as a result of a call issued by the executive committee. The fund has been placed in a bank and will only be used when enough has been received to insure completion of the improvements contemplated. A committee from the association visited the cemetery yesterday and examined the ground preparatory to starting work.

MODERN TENDENCY IS DECRIED

"Reaction of American Civilization" Is Topic Discussed. What he styled the "reaction of American civilization," was taken by Dr. John H. Cudlipp as the subject for his sermon at Grace Methodist Church last night. He said that he had heard of a Portland firm which sold 25 automobiles, and that to pay for 20 of them it was necessary for the purchasers to mortgage their homes. "In the City of New York one lawyer has foreclosed 200 mortgages for the same reason," continued the speaker.

THE SWORN STATEMENTS OF ALL REGULAR LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES DOING BUSINESS IN OREGON (43 IN ALL) ARE NOW ON FILE WITH STATE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER S. A. KOZER. THEY SHOW THAT:

1. Issued more policies in Oregon than any other Life Insurance Company.

2. Collected more money for first year's premiums than any other Life Insurance Company.

3. Made greater net gains from business written in Oregon than any other Life Insurance Company.

4. Gains of outside companies are principally from removals to Oregon of policy-holders from other states.

5. Led all other companies in 1909, as well as in 1910, and is in 1911 surpassing all of its previous wonderful triumphs.

LAFFERTY IS MUSCULAR

Oregon Congressman Helps Unload Lumber Wagon in Washington. A. W. Lafferty, Congressman from the Second Oregon District, is gaining a reputation as an athlete in Washington. The following dispatch under a Washington date line appeared in the New York Herald April 9: "A full-sized man, with the bearing of an athlete, approached the House office building yesterday just as a wagon loaded with heavy lumber backed up to the entrance. The driver and his assistant were preparing to unload the lumber when an athletic young man stepped up and offered his assistance. It was accepted, and the young man, wearing a cap, went to work with a will. When the job was completed the stranger said 'Thank you,' and entered the building."
