REBELS DISAPPEAR, NEW ARMY COMES

Agua Prieta Abandoned Few Before Cabral Comes to Aid.

AMMUNITION IS ALL GONE

Having Nothing to Shoot or Eat, and Abandoned by Leaders, Army Marches Away-Cabral Shows No Signs of Attack.

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, Mex., April 18, via Douglas.—When darkness fell over Agua Prieta tonight it was uncertain whether Lieutensant-Colonel Dias federal troops would retain undisputed possession of the city, or whether rebel reinforcements, appearing suddenly from the westward this afternoon, would precipitate another battle.

Watchers were surprised after a day of quiet to see a column of troops move out of the mountain passes, 12 miles to the west of Agua Prieta and rebouch on the plains in front of the city. The column began its march directly toward the city. The men were mounted and were riding rapidly. As they drew near-er, it was made out with the aid of glasses that the approaching force were

As they approached the outer breast-works of the city the federal outposts opened upon them a long range rifle fire and the column halted.

Retreat Is Not Known.

It was apparent that the approaching rebels were unaware of the actual situation in Agua Prieta, whether the bor-der town was held by friend or foe. Finally the column wheeled about and started to return toward the mountains. Then it halted again and there ap-peared at the mouth of the mountain canyon from which the first troop had emerged a second and longer column. This second detachment joined the first. There were apparently more than 500 men in the combined columns.

600 men in the combined columns.

Cowboys who came into Agua Prieta about this time brought word that the approaching force was that of Juan Cabral, the noted insurrecto leader of Sonora. With him, it was reported, was the insurgent command led by Senora Talamantes, the "Mexican Joan of Arc." A Mexican insurrecto on foot crossed over the line west of Douglas and surrendered to an American citizen. He said he was a member of Cabral's band advancing from the west. He said Cabral had no knowledge that the federals had taken Agus Prieta and were moving forward expecting to join the rebel garrison when first fired upon.

Federals Pay No Attention.

The federal forces in Agua Prieta at first took small notice of the column which appeared in the distance. Their unsaddled horses were tethered in the bull pen. The column to the westward resumed its march and continued on a continued on a light the city. They eviline parallel with the city. They evi-dently had no intention of approaching near enough to offer battle.

As darkness fell along the line it was impossible to make out whether the moving rebel column would come in contact with the federal garrison or not. The commanders of the government troops in Agua Prieta issued strict or-ders that no one should cross the line and it was impossible to obtain infor-

Late this evening the Federals took wounded from yesterday's battle. These were all Federals. In the official reports given out by Colonel Disz, the total dead and injured, rebel and Federal, was about 50, but it is believed this figure is far less than the actual presidential election and a revision of the colonest into the bullring at Agua Prieta

Rebel Ammunition All Gone.

From daylight this morning there was was seen no sign of the rebel garrison, which vanished last night from Agua Prieta. They voluntarily gave up the city and fled precipitately after the exhaustion of their supply of ammunition in yesterday's all-day battle.
A portion of their command at least was completely disorganized and scattered in all directions. The major por-tion, however, moved away in consid-erable order, with the promise hastily outed across the line to the Amerishouted across the line to the American sentries that they would be back in a few days to fight it out.

The Mexican government troops moved into the abandoned city with the first streaks of dawn and took possession. The ports of Agua Prieta and Douglas were again formally declared open today with the reoccupation of Agua Prieta by the Federal JERSEY FRAUDS EXTENSIVE forces.

No deaths among the wounded in the hospitals in Douglas, across the line, were reported during the day. Before dawn this morning the national troops, who were within close shooting range of Agua Prieta, again

TRENTON, N. J., April 18.—The special appeared fire on the trenches within the town. The rebel soldlers defending the fort and the last row of trenches, sent a courier to rebel headquarters in the town, saying they were out of ammunition and could no longer hold back the Federal advance if they were not supplied.

"We are all out of ammunition, and cannot help you," was the word sent to the front by the rebel commander.

At this juncture, the horses of the rebels were ordered to be saddled and preparations were made to evacuate the town. Those in the outlying trenches were ordered to fail back. They wore overtaken with fear that they would not be able to join the main army in its evacuation of the town, and many of them threw down their gubs and ran in any direction that promised safety. Only this pertien of the rebel force was thrown into confusion, notwithstanding the desartion of their edical Assembly committee appointed to investigate the election in Atlantic County last November reported to the investigate the election in Atlantic County last November reported to the House today that it found there was false registration, illegal voting and purchasing of votes, and that election of ficers of the county failed to do their duty. It is estimated by the committee, from the testimony taken, there were approximately 100 illegal votes.

The remainder of the rebel garrison got away in good order, and as they fied past the American Custom-House at daybreak, they waved their badges and guns at Colonel Shunk, who remained there at his post of duty, where he had been all night long.
"We have no more ammunition in Agua Frieta," was shouted in Spanish. "But we have some more in the mountains and we will be back and see you again."

Ralazario Garcia, who fled across the line last night and gave himself up to the American officers, said he surrendered because his men were not obeying his commands. He was not in command of the entire rebel force, he said, but was ranked by Colonel Luis the line and gave himself up. He has furnished no reasons for his descriton except that the evacuation of the town was imminent and he had to seek some place of reasonable safety.

POLITICS TO BE IGNORED

Committee Chairmen Agree That President Is Doing All Possible. Neutral Zone on Border Among Suggestions.

WASHINGTON, April 18 .- While recognizing the gravity of the situation in Mexico, leaders of Congress today appeared satisfied that President Taft is doing everything possible, and nowhere is there apparent the slightest disposition to interfere.

It was learned at the close of a conference at the White House today, at-tended by Senator Cullum and Repre-sentative Sulzer, chairmen respectfully of the Senate and House committees on foreign affairs, that the President, for the present at least, does not contemplate sending to Congress a special message dealing with Mexican affairs. The President, however, is keeping the leaders of both parties thoroughly acquainted with developments

Politics Is Eliminated.

Wh'le no confirmation could be ob-tained, a rumor was current that the Politics has been eliminated. There today appeared as complainant in a suit for damages of $160,000 filed in the nounced their intention of making an issue of the mobilization movement. In the House, Representative Gar-rett, of Tennessee, offered a resolution The defendants, who are charged with conspiracy to ruin her character, are President Harry Pratt Judson of the university; Miss Marian Talbott, dean of women; Miss Eva Robinson, Mrs. A. W. Small, wife of Dean Small, and Mrs. Florentine VonMassou Jahn, who has attained some renown as a sculptress and is a sister of Mrs. Small.

"I have been the victim of a conspiracy just because Mrs. VonMassou Jahn supposed I had accused her of stealing the plumes from my hat," said Miss Mercy. "I was boarding at her home while attending the university, and one night when I unwrapped my hat the plumes were missing and the hat ruined. I immediately called Mrs. Jahn and informed her. She flew into a rage and threatened to have me arrested for directing the committee on foreign af-fairs to investigate the Mexican sit-uation with special reference to conditions along the border. Senator Stone of Missouri offered a resolution of simi-lar nature yesterday in the Senate, empowering the committee on foreign relations to conduct such an investiga-tion and he proposes to speak in sup-port of it on Friday. In the event of general discussion, it is expected the attitude of the Senate will be made clear.

Neutral Zone Proposed

Sulzer is of the opinion that thus far Suizer is of the opinion that tous far there has been no overt act in Mexico sufficient to warrant intervention. He intimated, however, that a plan was be-ing considered to relieve the danger to Americans near the border. This con-templates an agreement for a neutral threatened to have me arrested for accusing her of stealing the plumes. I did not accuse her, but from that time on trouble began to break for me at on trouble began to break for me at the university.

"On December 8 I was called before the university authorities and charged with being an improper person to have at the university.

"Dean Taibot said to me: You are an unfit character to have at the uni-versity." I was accused of entertaining men in my room, visiting men in their rooms, and with failing to pay my zone from five to ten miles wide along the boundary line. Congress, Sulzer said, will not act under any circumstance without a spe-cial message from the President.

TROOPS FOR ISLANDS WAIT

Mexican Situation Withholds Men Destined for Philippines. WASHINGTON, April 18 .- The departure of all troops now under orders for duty in the Philippines will be delayed

This is generally attributed to the sit-uation in Mexico, the President being unwilling to disturb the forces on duty

In the South.

At the War Department, it is explained that the postponement is due to a decision to make the term of service in the Philippines 2½ years, instead of two, as at present.

This postponement long has been under consideration, and the acute Mexican situation seems to have presented an opportunity for putting it into effect.
