CROWDS CHASE NEGRO

Crippled Chinese Attacked, Shrick Draws Throng-Man Caught.

Nearly 1000 persons took part in chase near Fourth and Everett streets, in New Chinatown, yesterday afternoon, after John Morrison, a negro, who had assaulted Lee Fou, a one-legged Chinese, with a sharp weapon. At the first cry of the wounded man every house in Chinatown poured forth its multitude, blowing police whiatles and calling for help. Whites joined in the chase, the pursuit gaining numbers at every block.

Morrison headed for the river. One
Chinese tried to intercept him, and was kicked in the face. A white man on a motorcycle joined in the pursuit, but discretion gained control when he was close, and he turned aside. A saloonkeeper ran out, but a show of beiliger-ence on the part of the fleeing man caused him to retreat. Detectives Tiche-nor and Howell and Patrolman Wade gave chase and finally overtook Morrison near the river. He is held on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. A burgiar entered Lee Fou's room Wednesday night, and when discovered pointed a revolver and escaped. Yes-terday Fou saw Morrison, thought he was the man, and tried to detain him. He was cut severely about the head.

Waiters' Club Raises Another Issue, Disclosing Fact That Ordinance Is Silent on Subject.

Proceedings were begun in Municipal Court yesterday to test the validity of section 5 of the new model liquor ordinance, which provides that possession of a Pederal liquor license shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the fact that liquor is being sold. The issue was presented upon the trial of Marie Hayes, a lodging-house keeper, arrested by Sergeant Riley. She had paid $25 for a license from the Collector of Internal Revenue, but had no license from the city, and the issues were made up on this evidence. Judge Tazwell imposed a fine of $100 and notice of appeal was given. Proceedings were begun in Municipal District Attorney held that he would have to depend upon the discretion of the trial court, as the text of the ordinance makes it an offense simply to possess a Federal license not backed by a city license.

Another side of the new model ordinance was adjudicated yesterday in Municipal Court when the first club to offend was made a defendant through its bartender. A. G. Storeki, was on trial before a jury, having been captured in a raid by the police officers upon the quarters of the Geneva Association, an international organization of waiters, last Sunday. The officers found about 49 men in the club rooms, waiters, last Sunday. The evening concert are the same as those that created such excitement and wild applause in one of his New York concerts, it may be interesting to recall what the critics said of Elman on that occasion.

"Like the cathedral roll of an organ is Elman's delivery of his own Shubert
"Sessonade" found about 49 men in the club rooms, with a bar running and money being properties. These facts were admitted but the defendant pleaded ignorance of the effect of the new ordinance, and pointed to the alleged fact that other clubs were following the same practice. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty but recommended mercy, and Judge Tazwell suspended sentence.

suspended sentence.

Search of the new brdinance, say Judge Tazwell and Deputy City Attorney Sullivan, reveals that no provision of any kind is made for clubs, and it is held that they must obtain city licenses and be run as ordinary saloons, con-forming to the closing regulations on Sunday and after 1 A. M.
