Dividend of 10 Per Cent to Be Paid From Cash in Hand When Claims Are Proved-Large Loans Partially Scenred.

VANCOUVER, Wash. April 20.— (Special.)—The depositors of the Com-mercial Bank of Vancouver, now in the hands of M. B. Kies, receiver, having failed to open its doors December 19, 1910, will hold a meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in Eichenjaub's Hall, when the report of Receiver M. B. Kies, the first he has made official-ly since he has had the affairs of the heart in charge will be given to the bank in charge, will be given to the committee for its enlightenment. Mr. Kies thinks that the bank will pay at east 50 cents on the dollar, And per-The depositors also will discuss at tomorrow's meeting the feasibility bringing proceedings against H. Philips, president, and Gilbert Dan-lele, cashier of the wrecked bank. Some depositors are said to favor prosecution of the bank's officials. Phillips Expects Court Action.

Mr. Phillips foday said that the published charges against him were so far in error and so grossly misleading that there would be nothing sained by denying them. He said that it looked to him as if the subject would be cardial to the said that it looked to him as if the subject would be cardial to the said that the would ried into the courts and that he wor to him as if the subject would be carried into the courts and that he would then, on the witness stand, tell his side of the story. In making this assertion he intimated that he expected to be arrested and that the case would be fought out in the courfs.

In the report which Receiver Kles will make to the committee and depositors' meeting tomorrow will be stated the amount of claims which have been proved, approximately $233.065. The amount of claims against the bank is about $365,512, to which is added $7765 of anpaid outstanding drafts, making a total of approximately $175,000 in proved and unproved claims against the bank. The unproved claims amount to about $76,680.

The amount of cash on hand and on deposit in bank in this city is $42,500, part of which will be used in paying a dividend of 10 per cent which Receiver Kles has declared, and which will be paid as soon as the claims have been proved or a sufficient time has elapsed after notice has been given.

ABERDEEN, April 20,—(Special.)—
W. J. Parks, Mayor-elect, tonight announced his selections for several appointive offices. F. R. Archer, chief of police, will be retained. The new Mayor's action in this case was a surprise as it was thought that Chief Ar-cher would resign and that the vacancy would be filled by Captain George Dean, former chief. One of the many changes former chief. One of the many changes proposed by Mayor-elect Parks is the combining of the engineering, street and water departments. This will mean the dismissal of the officers, and the promotion of E. W. Ewart, present city engineer, to the post of supervisor of that department, John C. Hogan, present department, John C. Hogan, present ent City Atterney will be retained.

THE Mosessohn Advertising Agency has been absorbed by Frederick Hyskell & Son. The new concern will be known as Frederick Hyskell & Son Advertising Agency, and by reason of its predecessor having been established since 1902, will enjoy the reputation of being the oldest recognized agency in the Pacific Northwest.

A square deal will govern every detail of every transaction.

Many of the old established agency customs will be abandoned. For example: Advertisers will be charged according to the size of the job to be handled and will in turn be credited with all commissions received.

The head of the concern will centinue his personal work in the specialist's field. The organization will be sufficiently large and strong to furnish the best publicity that can be bought.
