of the $20,000,000 estate of her father. Her first marriage was in 1880 to the Honorable James Burke-Roche, heir to the title of Irish Lord Feormoy. The married life of the two was beset early with storms, there followed a disagreement and Mrs. Burke-Roche returned to her own country. Later the angry husband came over and left the twins on the doorstep of her father's home. He advertised far and wide that he would not be responsible for any debts she might con-

In 1891 the Superior Court at Wilmington, Del., granted Mrs. Burke-Roche an absolute divorce. After the marriage of her daughter, Cynthia, to Arthur S. Burden in 1907 it became known to the disgust of Mr. Work that his daughter had been secretly married for a year to Aurel Batonyl, the debonair whip of New York and Newport. Mr. Work was emphatic in expressing his disapproval of this marriage, as he had been of the first, and he immediately cut off his supplies.

Batonyl was referred to by Mr. Work as a fortune-hunting coachman. For a time the life of the Batonyis ran smoothly, then discord came and after much wrangling, in which accusations were tossed back and forth, they were divorced. Mrs. Burke-Roche has been noted far and wide as a horsewoman. It was at one of the horse shows in New York she met Batonyl.

Los Angeles Charter Evaded That He Might Buy From Gamewell Without Competition.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 21 .- (Spe cial.)-The arrest of F. W. Frankhouse in Portland last night may precipitate startling disclosure in the Gamewell Fire Alarm scandal. Frankhouser was arrested on a charge of faisification of public records. The special charge is that he altered dates on requisitions and demands issued for the purchase of Gamewell Fire Alarm apparatus several years ago. Under the last administration an in vestigation was begun and startling facts are said to have been uncovered. Frank-houser's connection with certain irregularities was discovered early when it was planned to prosecute him, he is said to have made a statement telling everything and seriously implicating oth-er city officials. Frankhouser's resigna-tion as head of the fire and police telegraph bureau was forced about a year ago. He agreed to remain in the city and to assist in the prosecution of others. He disappeared some time ago.

The demands and requisitions Frankhouser is said to have altered were for apparatus to have been used in equipapparatus to have been used in equip-ping the university police station. The charter provides that no purchases call-ing for more than $600 may be made without advertising. The Gamewell Company did not want to sell if it had to compete. Consequently, whenever a purchase of more than $500 was contemplated, requisitions and demands were divided into amounts of less than $500
