VARSITY AT WAR OVER MAY QUEEN

One Faction Declares $100 Check Provided Majority for Rival of Miss Bennett--Societies and Student Body Clash.

SALEM, Or., April 21.—(Special.)—Following the recent election of Miss Alma Haskins as Queen of the May at Willamette University over Miss Theodosa Bennett, a lively factional war has been in progress among members of the respective societies and the student body.

Recriminations have ressed back and Recriminations have passed back and forth and rather startling allegations of high finance methods in electioneering have been flung from one side to the #### $100 Check Involved.

Miss Haskins represents the Adelante Society and Miss Bennett the Philodosian Society. The student body started a move to place the election of the May Queen in its own hands instead of in the hands of the societies, as has been the custom, but this move full fist and the societies won out, but only after considerable feeling had developed.

Following the election it was charged

Following the election it was charged by one faction that a check for 100 had been used to buy votes. This was with the understanding that it would not be used unless needed, and that after the election the check would be returned to its makers uncashed. It was alleged that several of the students were a party to this scheme. No scorer was this allegathis scheme. No sooner was this allega-tion made by one side than a similar one came from the other faction.

Money Provides Votes Enough.

A suggestion was then offered that all

A suggestion was then offered that all of the money be placed in a trust fund in the hands of a committee instead of going to the societies, and be used by the committee for certain purposes. This plan did not meet full favor.

The committee of society representatives, who have charge of the May Queen election, say the fight has been settled, but refuse to say how it has resulted. It is understood, however, that the makers of the 100 check will be compelled to stand good for the amount of the check and that Miss Haskins will remain as Queen of the May. Had the check been protested, sufficient votes would have been lost by Miss Haskins to have changed the result.

Diphtheria at Seaside Post Severs Self From Town.

FORT STEVENS, Or., April 22-(Special)—Reports that diphtheria is prevalent at Seaside have caused orders to be lasted by Colonel Foote, commanding officer at Fort Stevens, to prevent its spread to this fort. Nearly all the post laundry has been done by a Seaside company, but according to orders just lessed, none may be sent until further instructions.

Another paragraph of the same order directs that all travel must be on the Government hoats. This means that the Astoria & Columbia River branch of the North Bank Raliroad is cut off from fur-ther traffic with the post. #### BROOM CORN CROPS TRIED Pendleton Farmers Aim to Have Every-Year Harvest.

PENDLETON, Or., April 11.—(Special.)

Believing they have solved the prob-lem of a satisfactory crop to grow on mer fallow land, thus getting a valuable harvest every year instead of other year as customary in Umatilia County, John Hogan and J. H. Cavin, farmers north of Pendleton, are sowing broom corn in a 200-acre field.

They tried the experiment on a small scale last season and it proved so suc-coasful that they decided to try it on a larger scale this year. If the quality of the corn produced on the big field this search is equal to that grown in their garden on the same kind of land last year, they will establish a plant on their farm and manufacture the product into brooms.

May 11 Is Set Aside as Portland Day--Children to Parade in Mile-Long Pageant--College Band Engaged Three Days.

ROSEBURG, Or., April 22. — (Spe- SECRETARY OLCOTT LIKELY TO cial.) - Preliminary arrangements for the third annual Strawberry Festival in Roseburg in May were completed at a meeting of the carnival committee Friday night. On May 11, designated as Portland day, it is expected that the city will be thronged with visitors from all sections of the state. Upon the arrival of the special train from Portland every automobile in the city will be in waiting to transport visitors to points of interest in the country.

Miss Alma Haskins, May Queen at Williamette University, Whose Election Brings Out Pactional Strife at Varsity.

Arrangements have been made for two Curtis biplanes, which will be in charge of members of the Curtis aviation team. In the afternoon the gueste will view the fraternal parade, in which every lodge in Roseburg and Douglas County will participate. Folowing the fraternal parade will be a decorated automobile parade. The day's festivities will close with a public reception at the Roseburg Commercial Club rooms under the auspices of the Commercial Club.

Children to March.

The children's parade will be held Tuesday morning. Every child of school age in Roseburg and vicinity will march. Special preparations are being made for this feature of the programme, and it is expected that the procession will be at least a mile long. Tuesday afternoon the visitors will Tuesday afternoon the visitors will view the Grangers' parade, in which every Granger in Douglas County will participate. The several county granges have already appointed committees which are arranging details for the parade. Following the Grangers' parade the Maypole dance will be held in the Courthouse Square.

OUST IT FROM CAPITOL.

Laws Effective May 20 Will Demand Office Room for Three New Officials-Space Small.

SALEM, Or., April 23 .- (Special.)-It now seems probable that the move to oust the state printing plant from the State Capitol will not fall flat with the advent of Ben W. Olcott as Secretary of State, and from present indications the Secretary will be compelled to make such a move shortly after the new laws become effective, May 20

At that time additional rooms will have to be provided for C. B. Frazier. the new state purchasing agent. Already rooms have been provided for W. C. Knighton, State Architect; F. A. Elliott, State Forester, and F. B. Meredith, Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture. Mr. Frazier, Mr. Elliott and Mr. Knighton are all holding positions which were created since the first of the year. Mr. Knighton has the offices formerly occupied by the Master Fish Warden and the Fisheries Department is lodged on the first floor in a room formerly used as a carpenter shop and a very small car-penter shop, at that.

The office of Secretary of State is hadly cramped and to catch up with back work much new help will be required. Miss Eunane Craig is another additional stenographer put on yes-terday to aid in catching up on recording of articles of incorporation, which is two years in arrears. Other assistance will be needed before the quarter is over and probably the state print-ing plant will be moved to allow a portion of the space now used by it to be utilized as a storeroom for the Secretary's documents and miscellaneous reports and session laws, which have piled up year after year. In that event the present storeroom will be used as a room for the stenographers and the offices proper of the Secre-tary's force will be rearranged with separate compartments for the various departments and the general public will be excluded from behind the rail. It is understood that the state print-ing plant has its room in the building without authority of law and merely by virtue of the leniency of the vari-ous secretaries, who have had complete

SEE TAFT IN 1911

President Detained at Washington by Urgent Affairs of State.

BALLINGER IS AUTHORITY

Ex-Secretary of Interior Also Says Chief Executive Will Be Sure Not to Make Trip in 1912. Democrats Are Active.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 12-(Special)

-Among Presidential possibilities for 1912. William H. Taft is probably the only one that will not visit the North Pacific Coast during the present year. Citizens generally and politicians in particular, and more especially residents of Alaska without regard to party ties, have had high hopes that the Chief Executive would adhere to his announced plan; but a statement made by R. A. Ballinger, ex-Secretary of the Interior, which has the force of authority, puts a new light on the matter. terior, which has the force of authority, puts a new light on the matter.

Affairs of state will keep President Taft close to Washington, D. C., and consequently the State of Washington will be obliged to forego his visit for the pressnt at least. As Mr. Ballinger has pointed out, the delicity of situations involving the country precludes a Western tour.

tions involving the country precludes a Western tour.

Since Mr. Taft was here during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition in 1929, there is said to be no pressing need for a trip to the Pacific Coast now.

"If Mr. Taft does not come West this year," said Mr. Ballinger, "he certainly will not do so in 1912, Presidential year. In 1912 he will be closely confined to his Summer headquarters, probably makhis Summer headquarters, probably making short trips into the Middle West, as visits to his old home require, and responding to the formal invitations the President is under obligations to accept."

Democrats Are Interested.

Among possibilities as a representative of radical views in the Republican faith is Senator La Foliette, of Wisconsin, and also may be named Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, while Woodrow Wilson. Democratic Governor of New Jersey, is scheduled to be in Seattle early in May. Following him as the liveliest kind of an adversary will be another Democratic officeholder, Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohlo.

son Harmon, of Ohio.

Each Democratic leader and possibility for the Presidential nomination has ar-Each Democratic leader and possibility for the Presidential nomination has ardent supporters here—so that, notwith-standing the havoc wrought by the direct primary with local political organizations, the ranks are beginning to be stirred with the prospect that both Republicanism and Democracy in this state will really be of consequence in the National battle of 1812.

Heisler and Madras. This paralyzes the business of Princeville merchants in the wheat belt south of Madras and Culver Junction. A letter mailed to patrons of the rural routes in that part of the county, not more than one hour's ride from Princeville by automobile, must go to Portland and return and if all trains connect it will reach the person addressed on the fifth or sixth day.

Poindexter Is Overshadowed.

Aside from Presidential politics, situation in which it has placed Senator Poindexter. On April 4 he had not taken his oath of office. Instead of being present at the opening of the Sixty-second Congress in extraordinary session, he chose to squander almost a fortnight re-porting to the Senate, greatly to his prejudice in committee assignments. Poindexter in touring the state was so completely overshadowed that he did not appear to advantage in the glory radiated by Roosevelt; and the experi-ment, insofar as Poindexter himself was concerned, approached perilously near to ilsaster. "Why absent from the post of duty?" has been the query pressed home duty?" has been the query pressed home to him from all parts of the state; and these hot shots have been fired with precision by the friends of Senator Jones. In particular, W. W. Robertson, publisher of a North Yakima paper in Jones' home town, has not lost any opportunity to grill Poindexter. Both Senators reside in the eastern part of the state, and the point that must not be lost sight of is that Jones, when he comes up for re-election, will be geographically wrong.

A belief is current here that the views of La Follette and Cummins will result ultimately in forcing Roosevelt into ultimately in forcing Roosevelt into support of Taft; and along the distinct lines of Taft conservatism and La Follette radicalism Republican leaders in this state are beginning to feel their way cautiously, with a struggle inevit-able between Republicanism proper and extreme insurgency. The fight will come in the clubs, which already are in process of formation, and in the attempt to control delegate conventions along the lines indicated.

Harmon Managers Confident.

As to Democracy, Folk has come and gone, with Wilson looming on the heri-zon intent upon his mission to sound out party preferences in this state; but at that, the prospects are that Harmon will lead in organization, for his man-agers are quoted as confident that they can deliver the state to him.

Governor Wilson will reach Seattle during the week ending May 20. He will be welcomed by the Democratio state central committee, the Princeton state central committee, the Princeton Club, the University Club and the faculty of the University of Washington. Secretary George E. Ryan, of the state committee, will have charge of arrangements for the Democracy, while the demonstration on behalf of Princeton will be directed by Charles P. Spooner, son of ex-Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin. During Governor Folk's visit here he came out flat-footed in favor of Canadian reciprocity. He said: "While it is possible that reciprocity might cause Alaskans to trade more with the small towns on the Canadian Pacific Coast, towns on the Canadian Pacific Coast, still this same reciprocity will cause those towns to get their supplies from Seattle. Sentiment in the Middle West is overwhelmingly in favor of the treaty; sentiment in the Northwestern states, also, is on the side of the treaty, although there is much opposition on the mistaken theory that it might affect the value of farm products in this country. I do not think the farming interests will be injured, but, on the other hand, vastly benefited with all other interests, by reason of wider market being accessible."

Railway Extension to Be Urged. tival, the public will be entertained at aerial races in the morning and the livestock parade will be held in the afternoon. F. E. Alley has charge of this part of the programme.

PRINEVILLE, - Or., April 23 .- (Special.)-The First Assistant Postmaster-General and members of the Oregon Congressional delegation have been besieged with letters and telegrams for the last three days by Prineville busi-ness men, asking that the mail for Prineville and points south be sent di-rect over the Oregon Trunk, instead of by the long stage haul from Shaniko. The Commercial Club has also acted and it is thought that the change will be made soon.
