STEINER WARNS JUDGES

Says Too Many Mistakes Are Made Sending for Attendants.
 SALEM, Or., April 30.—(Special.)—Regardless of the fact that Superintendent Steiner of the Oregon Insane Asylum, has sent notices to all of the County Judges warning them to be specific in writing for attendants, trouble is still being experienced by the

CO-EDS' POLITICS WINS

Washington Varsity Women Elect Sophomore to Control Board.
 UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, April 30.—(Special.)—Co-eds of the University of Washington demonstrated last week that they are good politicians when they elected Miss Hazel Learnard, a sophomore, to the board of control of the Associated Students of the Uni-

TONO COMPANY GOVERNED

Little Coal Mining Town Bars All Outside Businesses.
 CENTRALIA, Wash., April 30.—(Special.)—Tono, rising from a mining village of 150 inhabitants to a city of the fourth class by a sudden boom in coal as the result of the Harriman line choosing its coal for engine-fuel from there, is in the eyes of the state. Many applications for saloon licentenses, moving picture shows, etc., have been turned down. Letters galore have been addressed to "The Mayor and Honorable Council," but there is no Mayor or Council, yet. The reason lies in the fact that Tono is going to be as much of a company city of the fourth class as it was a company mining village. Before the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific decided to use the Tono coal for their new 107 Mikado engines, Tono was controlled by the Washington Union Coal Company. The company officials say they mean to run things in the interests of the employees, and will allow no saloons or other places not operated by the company. Centralia is five miles south of Tono.

 Policeman Hurt by Own Weapon.
 GRANTS PASS, Or., April 30.—(Special.)—John Banfield, an extra policeman, while chopping wood, dropped his revolver with sufficient force to discharge the weapon. The ball passed upward and plowed its way through the muscular part of his jaw and neck, and barely escaped cutting the jugular vein.
