TEMPHONE TO BE EXTENDED.—The Government is extending the telephone line along the Mount Hood wagon road to Zigzag River at Rhododendron Tavern. The men had reached Brightwood, which is several miles east of the old McIntyre place last week. The object of extending the telephone line is to secure competition with the mount is to secure connection with the moun-tain rangers in the Western Mount Hood district. Last year during the Hood district. Last year during the fires in this section there was no quick means of communicating with the rangers, except by wireless which was used by the squadrons of the National Guard. The Government went into an arrangement to build a telephone to the Toll Gate several years sgo and much of the work was done and poles were gotten out, but it has not been completed. Besides the forest rangers there will be six hotels near the Zizzag and other portions of Mount Hood and the telephone will be a creat advantage,

EAST MORRISON-STREET IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED.—Preparations are being made to improve East Morrison street, between Union avenue and the Morrison bridge, and wood blocks will be used. The street railway company will relay its double tracks with heavy steel rails. Also gas and other mains will be laid before the pavement is put down on the street. It will be the same kind of a pavement that is now being laid across the approach and spans of the Morrison bridge. On East Water street tetween East Mor-rison street and Hawthorne avenue a rison block improvement will be acide some time during the year. A large water main is to be laid on this street. Sections of the main have been dis-tributed along the street.

Twenty-Finer Street Paven.—The Hassam Paving Company has com-pleted the paving of East Twenty-first street, between Division and Powell streets. That part of this im-Powell streets. That part of this improvement between Brooklyn and Division streets was found defective and was removed by the company, and an entirely new improvement has been put down. Between Brooklyn and Powell streets only a few defects were found, and these have been repaired. The improvement, however, will be thoroughly inspected before accepted. Some of the property owners think that the south half of the pavement also should have been taken up and relaid as well as the north half. Sandy Commercial, Club Elects.

CHILDREN ENJOY MAY DAY

North Park Play Blocks Opened Under Auspices of Y. M. C. A.

Youngsters of Portland yesterday fitly celebrated May day at the North Park blocks, which were opened under the auspices of the playgrounds committee, at the head of which is A. M. Grilley, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. Despite a drizziling rain, nearly all day large crowds of school children visited the playgrounds, swinging on the swings, riding the chutes, playing ball or digging in the sand.

Miss Coreen Taylor is in charge of the girls' block and Kenneth Smullin is superintending the boys' playground. The grounds will be open under the supervision of these instructors every day until late in the Fall.

Sellwood Park and Peninsula Park playgrounds will be thrown open, June 1, to be followed on June 15 by the other playgrounds.

Laura Buckley must have a mighty keen sense of humor or she couldn't in-vest her impersonations of the manicurist, the breakfast food demonstrator curist, the breakfast food demonstrator, the old man and "mother" with so much human interest. Positively, Laura is uncanny in the realism of her types. The Robert De Mont trio present "Hotel Turn-Over," which is exactly what it says. Two small maids "acrobat" all over the place, dressed as youngsters, while Robert kills time with frollosome dance and novelty flip-flops; all of it interest-sustaining.

all of it interest-sustaining.
Waiter Schrode and Lizzie Mulvey have what they are pleased to term a musical skit. The word musical is excess verbal baggage. Most of their of-fering is "horse-play," and the really bright part of it is afforded by the whirlwind dancing of the two and Walter's highly ludicrous scene with a barrel of beer and a pitcher.

Tom Waters gives a quaint plane-logue that is very new, in some spots, and shabby in others.

It remains, however, for Minnie Vic-torson to revive that old query of "How on earth some acts ever get booked" Minnie, with assistants, "puts over" a hopelessly dreary and melodramatic "spasm" called "The School Teacher." The moving pictures are good, and, as always, there's "some class" to the or-the famous Nelson comiques earn their money. Silly, jolly, wholesome lines of comedy and acrobatic stunts are their specialty, and they are certainly "there" when it comes to fun-making.

Rube Strickland, too, is another whose feats are all to the good. He represents a rube musician and has a number of bird imitations which he performs on an old violin that are wonders. And as for Halligan and Ward ders. And as for Halligan and Ward in the "Rah, Ray Boys," well, they are simply irresistible.
