WORK TO BEGIN SOON IN MOUNT TABOR

The Pacific Bridge Company will start on the improvement of the Mount Tabor street improvement district by May 10, according to the announcement made by George Simons, manager of the company, yesterday. This district includes East Sixtieth street, or West avenue, and the principal streets westward to East Fiftieth. Sewers and watermains have nearly all been laid. The company will move its plant to the district and push the paving of these streets as rapidly as possible. East Sixtieth street will be paved last, as a sewer must be laid in that street and the contractors for the new Mount Tabor reservoir are still using the street with a supply track.

NORTH ALBINA LIBRARY OPENED

The North Albina reading-room was formally opened last night as a permanent branch of the Public Library Association in a room in the Sinnott building on Albina, near Killingsworth avenue. S. L. Osborne, who had been active in starting and maintaining the reading-room, presided. Rev. Thomas L. Elliot spoke in behalf of the Library Association. The branch was started two years ago and maintained at the expense of the neighborhood in a small building donated by J. H. Nolte. Between 2000 and 4000 books will be kept there.

EAST TWENTY-EIGHTH STREET TO BE IMPROVED

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is relaying its tracks on East Twenty-eighth street, between East Ankeny street and Sandy boulevard, preparatory to laying hard-surface pavement. A single track will be put down between East Ankeny street and Sandy boulevard, although the property owners requested that double tracks be laid.

PETITION FOR FIRE PROTECTION

A petition asking for fire protection in Montavilla is being circulated and largely signed according to the report submitted at the meeting of the Board of Trade Monday night. The committee having the petition in hand expects to have it ready for presentation after the next meeting of the Board of Trade.

BENEFIT FUND IS LARGE

Total Receipts for Three Nights Performances of Kirmess Are Approximately $20,000. Seven thousand dollars apiece will go to the Open Air Sanitarium and People's Institute, as a result of the Kirmess performances last week at the Heilig Theater. This information was given out yesterday by A. L. Mills, treasurer of the organization, who says that though the gross receipts were about $20,000, an estimated $8000, expenses rather exceeded the $2000 mark.

SEATTLE FOLK COMING

John W. Pace, manager-secretary of the "Golden Potlatch," notified the local festival management yesterday that the three railroads operating out of Seattle, the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and O. & W. R. R., would each send a special excursion train from that city and intermediate points to the Rose Festival next month. It was also announced that one full train would be reserved by the Potlatch people and their families who will come as guests-of-honor, and as evidence of their friendship toward Portland.

SPECIAL EXCURSION TRAINS DUE FOR ROSE FESTIVAL

Podlatch Management Will Reproduce in Float Old Alaska Steamer Portland. The following committees were appointed yesterday by President Kellerman, of the East Side Business Men's Club, to carry out the events planned for Rose Festival week on the East Side. CHILDREN'S PARADE

It is proposed to decorate Grand avenue between Hawthorne avenue and East Burnside street, or the part which will be used for children and fraternal parade, and the design will be selected in a short time. Arrangements are being completed for the drilling of the children for their parade.

YE OREGON GRILLE

It's an absolute certainty that "Ye Oregon Grille" hasn't an equal in the city as a place to invite a party of friends to luncheon, dinner or an after-theater visit. Everything is in keeping with its usual high standard, while the musical programmes presented each day at the luncheon hour and during the evenings are superior to anything to be heard in the city.

THEATER IS NOT CLOSED

Princess Compiles in Detail With Strict Building Laws. "Published reports that we were obliged to close the Princess Theater, on Sixth street, near Burnside, because it failed to fulfill the requirements of the fire ordinance were untrue," said Edwin F. James, the owner, yesterday. "We opened the new theater Saturday night, and because of delay in the city license department we did not have a license at that time. Our attention was called on Monday to the omission and the license was issued immediately. The theater was not closed, and there was no thought of closing it."

LAWYER ON BOTH SIDES

District Attorney George Cameron in Strange Legal Controversy. By a peculiar circumstance, George Cameron, District Attorney, has become the legal representative on two sides of a legal controversy. This unusual condition came about by the state, which Mr. Cameron recently represented, joining in the suit filed by C. M. Ryerson against the county, which Mr. Cameron also legally represents, to force it to accept the bid of the Thompson-Stewart Company for the construction of the west wing of the new Courthouse.

Not Yet But Soon

Heitkemper's Removal Sale will be a thing of the past. When we first announced this sale, although we had a tremendous stock of high-grade Jewelry, etc., to dispose of, we did not expect it to last over one month. The disappointing delay to the Yeon building has kept us at the old stand—still tagging low prices on the many beautiful articles in our line.
