DIETZ IS ON TRIAL

Outlaw of Cameron Dam Conducts His Own Defense.

HE TRUSTS NOT LAWYERS

Surrendered by Bondsmen, He Questions Jurors About Despotism of Lumber Trust, Which He Defied for Years.

HATWOOD, Wis., May 2.—Surrendered by his bondsmen and without a lawyer, John Dietz, the outlaw of Cameron Dam, his wife and his son Leslie were placed on trial today before Judge Alexander Reid in the Circuit Court. They are charged jointly with having shot and killed Oscar Harp, a Deputy Sheriff, who was one of the posse which besieged the Dietz cabin at Cameron Dam on Thornapple River last October, and who was found dead after a gunfight with the Dietz family. There were several warrants out for John Dietz, who for a number of years had defied the officers. The trouble grew out of a dispute with the Chipewa Boom & Lumber Company, which built a dam in the Thornapple River near the Dietz homestead. The flood waters, Dietz claims, damaged his land. He claimed he could not negotiate a satisfactory arrangement with the company and he destroyed the dam and held up a large cut of logs for a year or more. The company was obliged to haul the logs off with teams. When the court opened, the Illinois Surety Company, of Milwaukee, and the indemnitors who reinsured Dietz' $40,000 bond, announced that they declined longer to be responsible for Dietz and he was given into the custody of Sheriff Fred Clark. Bonds of the other members of the Dietz family have not been revoked. When the court asked Dietz if he wanted a lawyer, Dietz said no, and added: "I might as well tell you I have not any too much faith in lawyers, since one told Myers that the lumber company had 100 witnesses to impeach her testimony and we would have to fight the Devil with the Devil's cubs." In the examination of jurors, Dietz repeatedly asked them if they would be influenced against him and his family by what he called the despotism of the so-called lumber trust.

HIGH JERSEYMEN SMIRCHED

Judge, Congressman, District Attorney Sued for $450,000 Lost.

TRENTON, N. J., May 2.—Thomas E. French, Samuel K. Robbins and George E. Bergen, receivers for the State Mutual Building and Loan Association, which has been in litigation for four or five years, today filed in the Court of Chancery a bill against the officers and directors of the company to recover about $450,000, which it is alleged was lost as the result of mismanagement and negligence. The headquarters of the concern were in Camden. There are about 50 defendants named in the bill, among them former Judge Edward M. Armstrong, Representative H. C. Loudenslager, District Attorney J. B. Vreeland, Attorney General Edmund Wilson and Edward E. Grosscup, appointed last week as a member of the State Board for the Equalization of Taxes. Many of the defendants are well-known politicians connected with the Republican machine in New Jersey. When Armstrong was tried for embezzlement, and pleaded the statute of limitations to escape, Attorney General Wilson acted as prosecutor.

WHITE SLAVERY CHARGED

Pocatello, Idaho, Grand Jury Finds True Bills Against Two.

POCATELLO, Idaho, May 2.—(Special.)—True bills of indictment were returned by the Federal grand jury here today against Kwan H. Ray, an educated Korean, and C. C. Ostrander, an Oregon Short Line brakeman, on white slavery charges. This marks the first step of the Government officials in this part of the inter-mountain region in breaking up what is considered a well-organized gang of procurers operating between Salt Lake and Boise on the west and Pocatello and Butte on the north. The special charge against the Korean is a violation of the Federal statute prohibiting the transportation from one state to another of women for immoral purposes. The charge against Ostrander is violation of the Interstate Commerce law. He is alleged to have sent an employe from Pocatello to Ogden for himself, and forged the word "Mrs." before his own name, giving it to a woman of the underworld to journey to Ogden to meet the Korean who in turn paid the woman's fare back to Pocatello to lead again a life of shame.

Grange Opposes Referendum.

EUGENE, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—The Lane Pomona Grange met in Junction City Saturday, with the largest attendance of any similar meeting ever held in the city. The matter of co-operation of granges was brought up by the Cottage Grove delegation, and was discussed, and the essential features adopted. The following resolution was passed unanimously: "Resolved, That the Lane County Pomona Grange deplores the action being taken to invoke the referendum upon the appropriation for the educational institutions of the state, and we as grangers will do all we can to discourage it."

Pendleton Has Small Rainfall.

PENDELTON, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—There is a deficiency in Pendleton's precipitation for the month of April of nearly an inch, while the rainfall for the first four months of 1911 is less than half the normal amount for those four months, being more than three inches less than usual. November, the wettest one ever recorded here, with a little more than four inches of rain, brings the total precipitation for the present wet season up to nearly 10 inches, which is less than an inch short of the normal. This is also more than was received during the entire year of 1908.

Consul Thomas H. Norton of Chemnitz writes that sodium is an important by-product in Saxony, where forests cover one-quarter of the surface of the kingdom. It is largely used in the manufacture of caustic and acetic acids and in purifying illuminating gas.

TILDEN IS WINNING

Alleged Treasurer of Lorimer Fund Yet Free.

LAWYER AND JUDGE CLASH

Bitter Fight Made to Escape Having to Show Bank Books to Helm Committee—Court Gives Tilden First Ruling.

CHICAGO, May 2.—(Special.)—Another signal victory was won by the Lorimer forces today in Judge Pettit's court when the petition to quash the habeas corpus writs issued last Friday in behalf of Edward Tilden, William C. Cummings and George M. Benedict were refused by the court. The motion to quash the writs was made by E. Allen Frost, associate counsel for the Helm committee, which is investigating the methods employed to secure the election of William Lorimer to the United States Senate. Numerous clashes between Judge Pettit and Mr. Frost marked the progress of the day's proceedings in the court in which arguments were being made to determine whether or not Edward Tilden, who is alleged to have been the treasurer of the so-called $100,000 "slush fund" which, it is charged, was disbursed to pollute the general assembly of the state two years ago, will be compelled to appear before the Helm committee and show his books and records of his financial transactions during the months just prior to and following the election of William Lorimer.

Arguments Occupy Session.

Hearing of arguments and the citation of legal authorities occupied the entire session of the court today and further arguments will be made tomorrow.

During the arguments this afternoon, made by Mr. Frost, Judge Pettit repeatedly interrupted counsel by asking questions. "Do I understand that the Senate wishes to examine all the books covering a period of five months during which the $100,000 is supposed to have been spent for the election of Senator Lorimer?" asked the court. "That is the first time I have heard that proposition raised here," answered Mr. Frost.

Senate's Rights Urged.

Mr. Frost urged upon the court the fact, which he declared to be obvious to every thinking mind, that in investigating the purity of its membership, the State Senate was entitled not only to "certain papers and documents," but to all of Mr. Tilden's papers and records.

"These documents are material to the investigation that is being made by the committee," declared Mr. Frost. "But whether or not that be true, the Senate is the sole judge and this court has no right to attempt to pass on the proposition in any way. And the pleading, if it is to be made, that Mr. Tilden's constitutional rights are being violated, will not lie in this court or any other tribunal of the land until after Mr. Tilden has complied with the requirements of the Senate and has appeared before that bar and been duly adjudged guilty of contempt and sentenced in accordance with the authority of the Senate."

GLOVER MAKES NEW MOVE

Mrs. Eddy's Son Says Purpose of Agreement Was Not Known.

CONCORD, N. H., May 2.—Counsel for the plaintiff in the action of George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., against Henry M. Baker, executor of the will of the late Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, filed a motion today to amend their amendment of March 25, by adding the averment that the agreement made by Glover prior to his mother's death not to contest her will "was not made with her, but was made only with the defendant, McClellan, and the other directors, whose purpose, unknown to the plaintiff, was in order, if possible, to secure themselves the fruits of Mrs. Eddy's legal residuary bequest to them of more than $2,000,000, of which money they were then in possession. In the agreement and in Mr. McClellan's purpose therein Mrs. Eddy took no part."

The "McClellan" referred to is Archibald McClellan.

Moscow Priest Run Down by Auto.

MOSCOW, Idaho, May 2.—(Special.)—Dr. J. C. Wilk, a Scandinavian physician and surgeon, while driving his automobile on Main street today, accidentally ran over Father Pecoul, priest of the Catholic Church, who was riding his bicycle. Father Pecoul was meeting a team so near the sidewalk that he turned to the left and just at that time Dr. Wilk came up behind the team and turned to the right, resulting in the collision. Father Pecoul was taken to a hospital, where he was found to have been seriously hurt. He is being attended by Dr. Wilk.

Coaling Station Advocated.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 2.—Representative Humphrey today urged the Navy Department to establish a coaling station at some point in Alaska, maintaining that such a station would be of more use in the event of war on the Pacific than at any other point in American territory remote from the Pacific Coast. He points out that there are five suitable tracts of Government land already reserved for naval or military use, any one of which would be adapted for a coaling station.

Indian Girl Acquitted.

JUNEAU, Alaska, May 2.—(Special.)—Selma Dowling, aged 17, reputed to be the most beautiful half-breed girl in Alaska, was acquitted today of the charge of murdering her mother, an Indian woman, at Douglas, on January 27. The mother died in agony after eating candlefish brought to her home by John Harris, an Indian suitor for Selma's hand, and of whom the mother did not approve.
