Indiscrement Admission Reversis Monart.

—For retaining a sack containing 1875, which he found on the street, M. E. Trautman was held by Judge Taxwell yesterday to answer to the grand fury on a charge of larceny. The complainant was F. H. Dill. who lost the money while on his way to the station to buy tickets to Texas for himself, wife and five children. The money was all he had. It was shown that Trautman knew to whom the money belonged, but refused to return it because he was not offered a larger reward. The sack was lost three months ago, and nothing was heard of the matter until an indiscreet admission by Trautman was reported to the pelice a few days ago. ORCHESTRA SALE MONDAY

Seats for the Only Orchestral Music This Year on Sale at Sherman Clay Store Monday.

No form of music makes so wide an appeal as that of a spiendidly selected and well balanced orchestra, and the coming here of the great Russian Symphony next Thursday for two performances has awakened a tremendous interest and much enthuslasm. The cut-of-town music lovers are taking advantage of the fact that the matines not only affords them all a chance to come in and get through some shopping, but to attend the splendid afternoon concert and still get back home without the loss of an entire 24 hours. The seats for both performances go on sale Monday morning at 10 at the Sherman Clay store under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman. Full announcement of the two programmes will be made in a day or two in the papers. There have been more requests made for favorite numbers for this orchestra to play than have ever been received by the management before.

yesterday afternoon's meeting of the beard. Mr. Sabin said that as Mr. Standley had not seen fit to make any explanation to the board in the last two weeks and as his published communiweeks, and as his published communi-cation was a serious matter, he would move that he be suspended as a teacher explanation was Resignation Is Offered.

J. V. Beach, acting chairman of the board, said that Mr. Standley offered to tender his resignation through Mr. Beach to the board, but he said he advised Mr. Standley to wait and see first what action the board wished to take. "I think he should be permitted to resign if he wishes to, and I am perhaps to biame for not presenting his resignation," said Mr. Beach.

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION VOTED FOR BUILDINGS.

Assistant Fire Chief and Deputy Make Recommendations After Investigation.

That only nine schools of the city are equipped with both standpipes and hose was the statement made to the Board of Education at its meeting last night by City Superintendent Righer. This statement was made during the discussion of the reports of M. Laudenklos, assistant fire chief, and W. R. Hoberts, deputy fire marshal, on the safety of the various schools. The report was prepared and submitted at the request of the Board. It recommends standpipes or hose, or both, for the Woodlawn, Jefferson High, Thompson, Shaver, Highland, Ockley Green and Portsmouth Schools. That only nine schools of the city are

The auditing committee's report to the Board was that the receipts for March and April amounted to $1.447.557.42, and the disbursements $228.-237.48. The receipts since the beginning of the year have been $2,055.855.59, which, added to the balance of $86.-28.70 on hand January 1, gives a total of $2,142.784.22. The disbursements 12 May 1 were $182.758.77.

The A. Sweeney was awarded the contract for improvement of the Chapman School grounds, his bid being $1184. Bids for the improvement of the Washington-and Hawthorne School grounds were also opened, the lowest bid being $600 and the highest $1900.

Steele & Bettelsen, contractors for the new Mount Tabor School building, wrote the Board saying they were unable to complete the building on contract time because they could not obtain materials. The matter was referred to the building committee of the Board. It was voted last night to compel B. E.
