The contract that was signed called for the delivery of 80,000 pounds. There is so much secrecy about the market now, though, that the names of the buyer and seller were not learned. It is understood that several dealers are in the market for the new crop at 20 cents, among them T. A. Livesiy & Co., Catlin & Linn and Louis Lashmund.

BRIGHTER CROP PROSPECTS CAUSE ENCOURAGEMENT.

Present Consumption Is Below Production Capacity-Export Business More Active Than Domestic.

NEW YORK, May 5 .- Dun's review tomor row will say:

The brighter outlook for the wheat crop is responsible for a better feeling in business, but the volume of trade, while necessarily large, is nevertheless slow, halting and without enthusiasm. Taken in the aggregate, especially in iron, steel and drygoods, consumption is below preduction capacity and concessions in prices fail to produce activity. duce activity.

Fundamental conditions are favorable, but enterprise continues to walt for the required of uncertainties. The export trade is more vigorous than domestic.

Good Inquiry for Alfalfa-Wheat Selling at Higher Prices. Advance in Onions.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 5.—(Special.)—
The berries that arrived this morning from Los Angeles were not in the best condition, and sold at $1.85. The last car of Los Angeles berries is said to have been shipped. Florins were in better condition and sold higher. Dollars commanded $2.75 to $3, and Jessies $2 to $1.25. The apple market was steady.

Owing to the active demand for onions and the limited supply of native stock, a few commission men are asking as high as $2.55 a crais.

Wheat was firmer. Bluestem changed hands at $4 cents. The other varieties were correspondingly higher.

The hay market was firm. Receipts of late have been hardly equal to the demand. There is a good demand for alluifa.

The feature of the produce market was the active demand for veal. Notwithstanding that receipts were heavy, the demand was of such volume that all tile veal that arrived today moved out without difficulty. Eggs were dull and unchanged in price. Dealers are still storing. The supply of local eggs held in storage here is now said to be larger than in any previous year.
