ROADSTERS CORRAL FIRST HOME GAME

Between Showers, Williams' Men Land Heavily on Pitcher Jensen's Slants

FANS SATISFIED WITH TEAM

Few on Hand at Opening View Speak Kindly of Tourists-Southpaw Archer Shows That Hs Is Able to "Come Back."

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Weil Oh! well, Oh! well, Oh! well,
Nicks bunch has struck its stride;
So herws a 10 on the Portland squad,
And I guess I'll let it ride.
—Rubaylat of the Fan.

Two hundred Portland fans, figuratively wearing their "mittens and tip-pet," saw Nick Williams' Roadsters rise up yesterday as if from a hypoder-mic of yeast, and smite the Vancouver ram 9 to 2 in the opening game of the Northwestern League season in Port-

The curtain-raising act was not altogether a social success. The Coast leaguers had taken all the cream from the usual opening exercises and while Tumuit, Turmoil and their little broth-er. Plain Noise, might reasonably have been expected to be at the Vaughnstreet Park Jupiter Pluvius put the salt on that. Southpaw Archer, formerly with the lowed but five hits. Jensen was chosen to push over the queer ones for Brashear. They weren't queer enough, The rain which started in at the first jarring note from Umpire Steve Kane made it hard for Jensen to locate the Rain Halts Pastime.

Kane had to call the fiasco in the second and for 29 minutes fans and players flitted about the grandstand trying to keep from freezing to death.
All told, it was a marvelous melange of hits and missee, a pot pourri of wetness and chill requiring five senses and one more to trail out the devious

For four straight frames, before and after the cloudburst, the teams waded neck and neck through the mud, and then something dropped. It was Jen-sen's number. The Roadsters had it. Jens walked three in the upheaval and then, with two oot! Mark ye. Sandy, two oot! Stovall and Mundorff smote out singles to the garden and four runs sifted across the rubber. Portland scored three more in the sixth inning on a single by Mensor, a life to Ort on Scharney's error and a triple by Harris which eventually budded into a four-base swat on an over-throw to third by Bennett, Vancouver scored its first in the fourth on a sacrifice fly by Brashear, following a boot by Mensor and a wild heave to second by Archer, and its final tally in the seventh when Spiesman and Scharnweber lined safely in quick succession This was the only frame in which the Canucks got more than one hit.

Fans Are Satisfied.

The few brave fanatics who turned out to welcome the Roadsters are well satisfied with Williams' men. The team got nine safe pokes at the ball and dise pepper in the face of adversity than any other club that has shown here this season. Mensor in fact felt so good that he went in and dressed in his store clothes during the rainy intermission in the second and they had to hold the same two minutes while he was togging out in uni-form again. Mensor, Mundorff and Stovall did the bulk of the stick work. The Roadsters' new home uniforms failed to arrive on scheduled time but notwithstanding, Williams, Casey and one or two others were recognized in the traveling gray when the Tourists trundled upon the field at 2:15. One of the 20 bugs in the right field bleachers clapped a pair of field glasses to his eyes. There is Manager Nick. he flashed by way of a bulletin to the other 180 in the 50-cent section. The identification spread like a bit of scandal at a meeting of the ladies' auxiliary where they are knitting neckties for the natives of the Fijis. When Nick was clear out past first base, the fans had recognized him. When they cheered he san Fran. 22 is .505 Spokane . 17 3 .850 hid behind a smile.

Umpires Are Entertaining.

Another ingredient that went to make the Monday interpretation of the National frolic a spicy incident of our buseball existence was the appearance of Amos Russie, famous major league pitcher, and Stephen Kane, major league "ump." in the umpire roles. It was Amos' first offense with an indicator and he looked lonely and forlorn out there on the bases. Kane, on the other hand, is well named. He yelled at the players, bantered with the crowd and made it generally known that he McQuary, a youngster laden with mbonpoint, supplanted Jensen on the hill for Vancouver after the game was lost and allowed two hits in that many tunings. Cates or Erickson will heave for Vancouver today with Garrett op-posed. Swain and James, of the visitors, are on the sick list, Streib going out to left and Harrison taking James' seat at third. PORTLAND got its first run in yesterday's game with Vancouver on a hit and stolen base by Stovall and a safe drive by Mundorff in the first in-

Catcher Harris was the only one of the two teams "in Dutch" with custom officials when the boat landed at Seat-tie Sunday morning. Harris had to unroll his uniform case to the official gaze. No diamonds were discovered.

The wait for the rain to abate in the second inning lasted 29 minutes. One minute more and there would have been no game.

The bleacher crowd poured into the stand during the downpour. No con-test and their rainchecks would have entitled them to a grandstand seat to-

Robert Brown, president of the Vancouver club, occupied a box with Judge McCredie.

Captain Williams did some quick thinking in that eighth innning. He was on second and Ort on first, taking a big lead, when Brashear sig-nalled for a quick throw to first by the catcher on the next delivery. Splesman threw all right, but Williams was on third before Vancouver knew what had happened.

Today's game will begin at 3 P. M.

Judge McCredie made the original suggestion which resulted in the ap-pointment of Rusie as an umpire by Prosident Lindsay, of the Northwestern Brashear probably will hold down first base permanently for Vancouver. Strelb is a classy fielder and valuable initial sacker, but Brown wants an infield captain.

Casey, Ort. Williams, Speas and ther Coast League favorites received hearty applause from the stands during the opener.

Northwestern League Official Does Not Think That Philadelphia Can Keep Up Pace Which It Has Been Setting.

Umpire Steven Kane, who is in charge of the Portland-Vancouver series here this week, has been umpiring 10 years, GORDON SHUTS OUT GIANTS the last two having been spent in the National League. Kane, therefore, is qualified to speak with weight upon the race now in progress in the National circuit. He favors Chicago to win. "The Philadelphia Nationals cannot keep on winning the way they have," declared Kane last night at the Oregon Hotel. "Dooin, Paskert, Lobert and Ma-gee are hitting like flends and their pitchers are going good, but the team hasn't started on its Western trip and that's where the bumps will come.

that's where the bumps will come.
"The fight will be between the New York Glants, the Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburg Pirates. I think Chicago has the best outlook if Chance gets back in the game soon. It looks to me as though Steinfeldt got a dirty deal when he was released. Zimmermann may be just as good a third-sacker but 'Steiny' should have been kept around as utility man as a reward for his years of serv-

"The acquisition of Hunter, of the Kansas City club, at first is the only change Pittsburg has made, while the Giants have stood pat on the 1919 line-up. Doyle and Dever are playing better ball, however, and McGraw expects much

Previous to going to the major league,
Kane umpired four seasons in the American Association. He started out in 1900 in the Cotton States' League, going then to the Central and later to the Three-I League.

LADD NINE DIVISION CHAMPION

Contest for Grammar League Trophy Is Keen. Winning yesterday from Terwilliger,

$ to 2, on the Portland Academy Field the Ladd School team cinched the West Side division championship Grammar School League. Although played on a wet and slippery field very few errors were made. Ladd School will meet the winner of the East Port-land division May 25.

The Ladd players are Schuh, catcher; Davis, pitcher; Holt, first base; Knud-son, second base; Bolin, third base; Watts, shortstop; Ceasar, left field; Sitton, center field; Gorham, right field.

Ladd School is the first to win a dirision championship. Eliot and Irvington virtually have won the championships of sections two and three, respectively. Montavilla, Stephens and Holliday are fighting for the leader-ship in section four. Montavilla is leading but several games are yet to be played.

The final round of games probably will begin next Monday on Multnomah Field. The winner will get the Honey-man Hardware trophy, while the winner of a series for second place teams in each division will get the Hudson Arms Company bronze placque.

Boxing Bouts Not Prizefights.

LOS ANGELES, May 8 .- That boxing bouts, as staged at the Vernon arena here, are not "prizefights" within the meaning of the law prohibiting such events, was determined today when Judge Willis, in the Superior Court, dismissed the charges against the principals, promoters and others concerned in the Wolgast-Memsic contest here,

In a lengthy decision Judge Willis held that "no public offense has been committed." As a result of the decision it is certain that boxing here will be conducted as heretofore.

Game Postponed Third Time. Just as Umpire Rankin shouted play ball a torrent of rain fell yesterday, converting Multnomah Field into a small-sized lake and caused the third postponement of the annual Lincoln High School-Portland Academy base-ball game. It is probable the game will not be played until next week, because Lincoln is to play another game this
