TRIPLE PLAY NOW HABIT OF BEAVERS

Accomplishment Is Feature of Yesterday's Victory Over San Francisco.

SEATON'S PITCHING GOOD

Seals Acquire Only One Tally, While McCredie's Men Amass Total of Six From Offerings of Moskiman and Sutor.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12 -- (Special.) -Another triple play, the second that the Beaver warriors have pulled off this week against the Seals, was the interesting feature of the Portland victory

It was hardly a necessity, that triple. as the Northerners, having located Harry Sutor, had their game well in hand, 6 to 1, but even the old-timers can't remember far enough back to place two triples by one club within three days. When fans stop to reflect that the entire Coast League went all of the 1910 season with just two triples to their credit, the performance is all the more remarkable.

The more remarkable.

Perhaps it is that San Francisco fams are becoming accustomed to that sort of fielding, for the play didn't raise the enthusiasm that was its due. As a cleancut bit of fielding it far exceeded that infield effort of the middle of the week, although with the game practicable. cally tucked away, the speedy retire-ment of the San Franciscans that came in the eighth inning meant far less than on Wednesday, when the bases were hurriedly cleaned with neither team having scored a run.

Sutor Starts Well.

Harry Sutor, who started in good shape, for all told he fanned 10 men in his seven innings of play, seven of them in a row, weakened in the sixth and with the score a 1 to 1 tie just before he started to stop gave away five runs to the Oregonians on costly walks and expensive hits.

Tom Seaton pitched remarkably steady hall all the way and had a lead that was well-nigh unbreakable.

The triple play was over almost before the crowd had realized what had happened. Seaton, who had not walked a man for seven innings, suddenly de-veloped a streak of wildness. McArdle was passed and so was Jimmy Lewis, who was playing center field. Then Tennant hit a liner straight at Rapps. The ball struck in the baseman's glove and Rapps, quick as a flash, turned and tagged Lewis, who was off the and tagged lewis, who was off the bag. In the same instant, and almost with no motion lost, he wheeled to-ward second, threw to Peckinpaugh and McArdle was out at second before he could get back to the cushion.

Beavers Score in First.

Up to that time the play had been of the in-and-out variety. The Beavers sent a run across in the first inning, thanks to two bad errors. It looked a mighty large run for four innings, since the Seals were having trouble to con-nect with Seaton and the tally that tied came almost out of the clear skies. Oscar Vitt was bit and, after stealing second, came home on a single that Claud Berry sent crashing through to

The seventh was almost as Rodgers walked on another costly four and Murray sacrificed, Seaton tripled to center to score the men in front of him and after Chadbourne singled. Because Sutor fielded the ball and then stood stock still as the men were running, Ryan squeezed the Portland pitcher home on a sacrifice.

Tripled out in the eighth, the Seals aw themselves doubled out in the ninth, hopelessly snowed under. The

OAKLAND CLUB IS CRIPPLED

Wolverton Sends Mitze, Who Was Hurt in Wednesday's Game, Home. LOS ANGELES, May 12,-(Special.) -The Los Angeles club is not the only one hit hard by the injury hooded Manager Wolverton, of the Oakland club, today shipped Mitze, his mainstay behind the bat, back to Oakland, after ascertaining that the injury received in Wednesday's game would in capacitate him indefinitely, and Tiede-man was hurried here from the North, to be used in the event of Bunnie Pearce, the change catcher, meeting with a mishap.

Even with Mitse out of it, Oakland is pretty well fixed behind the bat, with Pearce in shape for regular duty, but no club fancies having its regular catcher laid on the shelf.

LINDSAY DOES NOT WAIT FOR ACTION BY DIRECTORS.

Northwest League President's Action Said to Have Been Caused by Tacoma Manager's Regret.

TACOMA, Wash, May 12.—(Special.)
-Without waiting for the action of the coard of directors of the Northwestern League, President Lindsay tonight re-instated Mike Lynch, the suspended manager of the Tacoma Tigers. While the reinstatement is provisional upon the confirmation of the directors, it is generally conceded that the directors will not override the action taken upon Lindsay's own volition.

Lindsay's own volition. While the president of the league has issued no official statement regarding the case it is intimated that he allowed Lynch's return to the game upon the assurance that the big manager is heartly sorry for the trouble which occured in Vancouver. Lynch will replace Abbott in center field to-morrow afterneon in the game between the Tigers and the Giants.

Berger-Lamline Lament.

"Pa" Georgie Engle, ten years ago the star hurler on Jack Grim's Portland

"Pa" Georgie Engle, ten years ago the star hurler on Jack Grim's Portland pennant winners, returned to the paternal hearthstone yesterday and let Portland down with three hits. In the meantime—sand it was a mean time—Vancouver's swatsters feil upon three of Nick Williams' slabsters for a total of 15 hits. The score was 11 to 1. To eleborate a little on that scenario, it might be well to add that Vancouver had the 11 and Portland collected the 1.

Lamline started heaving the spiral fuzzers for Williams. He lasted two frames after allowing six hits and four tailies. Berger than went upon the mole. The visiting sluggers, like the police reporter's story of a darky ball, "mingled around for a couple of moments and then—they mixed." Such a carnage! Five walks and two hits in an inning and a haif. Bloomfield was called from the bench in the middle of the fourth and the one hit he allowed in the frame brought the ninning up to five scores. Total 9 to 0. "Bloom" pitched good ball from that on.

rom that on. The weather was-brrr-cold and less

The weather was—brrr—cold and less than 200 fans were in the stands. It was a grand little imitation of a December day. This may account for the Lamline and Berger failures to show anything that would shatter the epidermis of a lemon meringue ple.

There is little use in dwelling on how the visitors garnered their runs. "Burst of batting" is a way Bob Brown might put it. "Poor pitching," says the fan. Take the first inning. Adams, Bennett and Brashear hit safely in a row. James walked. Then Harrison drove to right. Three runs. The rest is a repetition, only worse. In the fourth a walk by Berger, an error and a hit clogged the sacks. Berger then passed Brashear and Harrison and forced two more. Such foy! Jamés, Bennett, Harrison' and Spiesban we're the batting heroes.

There was just one other feature to two stolen bases, an error and a triple netted three runs, gave Washington the game. Two passes, an error and a single in Chicago's half scored two runs. Score:
