

PRIEST SAYS NICE THREATENS YOUNG

Paulist Pleads That Cities Be Made Better Places to Rear Children.

CHILD WELFARE STUDIED

Judge of Court of Domestic Relations Emphasizes Necessity of Comprehensive Study of Science of Eugenics.

CHICAGO, May 14.—(Special.)—"If we could only make men see what monsters they are, we could accomplish a great deal more for childhood."

"By bettering the conditions of motherhood we can better the condition of childhood. And one way to do this is to wipe out the vice plagues in the country. By our votes we can make our cities better places in which to rear children and thereby pay the greatest possible tribute to motherhood."

These remarks were made by the Rev. Father O'Callaghan, superior of the Paulist Fathers of Chicago, in an address at the Coliseum tonight before one of the largest crowds which has ever attended the evening sessions of the Child Welfare Exhibit.

Healthy Mind Important.

"And this promoting of the welfare of the mothers of the Nation holds the sacred duty of municipality, the state and the Nation. We must make our cities and our land better places for the mothers."

"But perfection of environment does not necessarily make for perfection of childhood. Perfection of motherhood, morally as well as physically, is what insures ideal conditions in childhood and the rearing of perfect men and women. Mothers especially must be healthy in mind, as well as in body if we are to have healthy mental children."

"When we are really in earnest in the effort to better the Nation through childhood we will remove the saloons of our cities, the plague shops known as the dives, the dance halls and so forth."

Thousands of Mothers Attend.

More than 15,000 mothers visited the Child Welfare Exhibit and studied the various methods exploited for the bettering of conditions among children.

Mrs. Frederic Schoff, National president of the Mothers Congress, who is the guest of honor at the Child Welfare Exhibit, spoke on "Organized Motherhood" to several hundred mothers.

Judge Charles M. Goodnow, of the Municipal Court of Domestic Relations, emphasized the necessity of a comprehensive understanding of the science of eugenics and asserted that domestic troubles usually arise from ignorance and a misconception of the marital relation.

"Irreconcilable and badness, coupled with gross ignorance among parents," he asserted, "spell poverty, immorality, degenerate children, broken hearts and unutterable misery."

LYRIC COMPANY REOPENS

"The Financiers," Presented by Musical Comedians at Bungalow.

A brand new and highly diverting round of revelry began at the Bungalow yesterday under the name of "The Financiers," with the Lyric Musical Comedy Company sponsors.

West and Vack, two likable comedians, have the leading roles. West is Louis Blossom and Vack is Mike Bloom, and as a floral exhibit are most acceptable.

In the guise of Leonie Cheatham, they scamper along blithely through the plot, a transparent thing which serves as a fine foil on which to hang song and dance numbers.

Jeanie Fletcher, the new prima donna, is charming as Cassie Roland, a vocalist and pianist. She adds an excellent singing voice to her other charms of presence and histrionics.

Myrtle Howard is seen as a young chap in natty white flannels, whose sole aim is to get up trouble. Mae Edwin is a hard-working stenographer who doesn't "stenog" much, and Edna Golden sustains a bareheaded role of Leonie Cheatham.

Of the men, Ernest Van Ielt is certainly amusing in his role of a speculator, busy getting into and out of entanglements.

Jack Wise is cast as a gentleman of leisure, and apparently finds fun in throwing himself fully into the part. E. C. Hunt, who plays the Katzenjammer whiskers and a pantomime that is awe-inspiring, enacts the exciting role of Koffoff, an anarchist.

All the songs are rollicking and the chorus up to its usual standard. One number that elicited much applause was the "Annie Hansen" ensemble.

CAZADERO TRAINS COLLIDE

Motormen of Gravel Cars Blamed, but No One Is Injured.

Inbound passenger train No. 4 on the Cazadero line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, yesterday crashed into a train of 19 cars loaded with ballast at Hogan Station. No one was injured, although there were several passengers aboard the inbound train. Damage amounting to not more than $125.

Women Increase Registration.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 14.—(Special.)—Keen interest in the coming municipal elections made yesterday the heaviest day yet for this year for registration at the City Clerk's office, 121 persons calling during the day and signing the books. Fifty-one of these were women. This now brings the total number registered to date up to 2319, of which 115 are women. With the total considerably past 2000, indications are that the largest registration in the history of the city will be recorded before the final election.

PATRONESS OF CHILD WELFARE EXHIBIT, WHO GAVE $50,000 TO CAUSE.

ANTIQUES FOR SALE

Footsteps of Royalty Among Articles in List.

SILVER PLATE UNIQUE

Charles III Dinner Set, Supposed to Have Belonged to Neil Gwynn, Included in Interesting Ware.

LONDON, May 14.—Antiquarians look forward eagerly to the sale of the collections of the English silver, furniture and other treasures of the late Lady Meux, who died recently leaving an eccentric will disposing of her great fortune. Lady Meux was an obscure actress who married an immensely wealthy brewer.

The sale begins May 15 in Theobald's Park, the Meux seat, and will last ten days. Historically, the most interesting article to be sold is an Elizabethan carved oak staircase which is believed to have belonged to Neil Gwynn. Considering that a porringer of Charles II's time recently sold in London for $10,000, and a pair of spoons for $250, some remarkable prices are looked for.

CHINESE FAILS TO SINK

Asiatic Dives Into River to End Life, Acts Like Cork.

The inability of Chen Cheng, a Chinese, to sink, saved him from a suicide's grave at the foot of Stark street last night when he became dependent and threw himself into the stream to end his troubles.

A life buoy was thrown to him several times from the shore, but Chen pushed it away and ducked his head under the water. Then he would bob up like a cork. Half a dozen times he tried to submerge himself, but always came to the surface, apparently none the worse for the water he tried to force himself to swallow.

Special Officer J. C. Glover jumped into a boat, rowed out to the Chinese and with difficulty rescued him. Chen protested loudly against the interference of his self-destruction and bemoaned his inability to drown more than he had his troubles, which apparently consisted of his inability to raise sufficient funds to return to the Flowery Kingdom.

Chen was brought to the police station after being rolled over a barrel to force the water out of him, and a few minutes later the station was filled with Chinese, nearly all of whom were his "cousins," who wanted to take him home and care for him. He was finally given over to a cousin who lives at 53 Second street.

PORTLAND TO LEAD WAY

Country Looks to Coast for Great Ideas.

"We do not need a Mayor and Council for Portland who will not represent the best element of our city," said Dr. Luther R. Dyott, in his sermon at the First Congregational Church last night. His subject was "The Care of the City."

He said the good people of Portland ought to "wake up and stand together." Continuing, he said:

"We ought to be able to unite upon some definite plan of action that shall mean that our best citizens can carry things their way. If good life is worth anything, it should be able to do the thing that needs to be done. The question is larger than that of local politics or political wire-pulling."

"Moreover, it is a time calling for celerity of action on the part of our best citizens. We cannot afford to keep waiting, and even thinking, until it shall be too late, and then spend our time in regretting that we did not the removal of a growth in his chest. He rallied from the operation and indications are that he will recover rapidly.

CHEHALIS, Wash., May 14.—Ex-Mayor Wm. West of this city, will leave this week for a visit of three or four months to his old home in England. Mrs. West will accompany him. Mr. West settled at Chehalis 47 years ago, having crossed the plains from Illinois. He is generally known as the father of Chehalis and his force of character has been a strong factor in the growth of this city, and the development of Lewis county.

GERMANS OBSERVE DAY

THREE EPOCH-MAKING EVENTS ARE CELEBRATED.

Close of War, Lifework of Poet and Introduction of Physical Culture Are Noted.

German-Americans from every part of Oregon filled the Helling Theater last night to commemorate three epoch-making events of German history—the close of the Franco-Prussian War, the lifework of Schiller, and the introduction into German schools of the Jan system of physical culture. A carefully planned programme of oratory, music and song was given. Every part of the programme was given in German, except an address by Attorney W. C. Bristol.

Following the opening overture by Sepp, Dr. H. Dammasch, the newly elected president of the Consolidated German-Speaking Societies of Oregon, under the auspices of which the entertainment was given, delivered an address of welcome, referring to the importance of the German societies in America. A cantata, "Glorious Germany," by E. Baum, of Portland, was sung with fine effect.

The significance of the three events in German history was explained by many, composed for the occasion by the members of the Jefferson High School, quoting freely from the works of Schiller, whom he designated as the poet of youth and liberty. A series of follow-up plays, portraying scenes from Schiller's dramas and from the life of Frederick Ludwig Jahn, and ending with a scene, "Columbia and Germany."

In his address, Mr. Bristol lauded Germany for its achievements and spoke of the high citizenship of German-Americans.

Preceded by a German march, the famous play, "In the White Horse Tavern," completed the programme. All the members of the cast acquitted themselves with credit, the leading roles being taken by persons with professional training.

Among those who attended the entertainment were several veterans of the Franco-Prussian war.

ELLIS WILL NOT RESIGN

COUNCILMAN TO MAKE STRONG FIGHT AGAINST RECALL.

Three or More Opposing Candidates Expected—Vote May Be Taken at Regular Election.

J. T. Ellis, Councilman from the Tenth Ward, against whom a recall petition has been filed, declared yesterday that he had no intention of resigning the office, but on the contrary would fight to a finish those who would unseat him as Councilman.

Under the provisions of the statute providing for the recall of Councilmen, Ellis has five days following the filing of the petition in which to resign. If he fails to quit the office, it then is the duty of the City Council to order a special election in which Ellis must be a candidate.

Among those who attended the entertainment were several veterans of the Franco-Prussian war.

The official count of the recent primary nominating election developed a tie between Zan and Mann, each receiving 160 votes. The tie was broken by a meeting of the two candidates arranged for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the office of City Auditor Barber.

Concert to Be Given. Frank J. Sinnott, one of the pioneer pupils of the college, formerly known as St. Michael's School, responded to the toast, "Early Days at St. Michael's." John F. Cahill, president of the Alumni Association, spoke on the "Duties of Alumni Boys Toward Their Alma Mater." Archbishop Prasp's Orchestra will furnish the music.

WALLA WALLA MAY GET $350,000.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 14.—(Special.)—Bill increasing the appropriation for the Walla Walla Federal building to $350,000 will be introduced in the Senate and House concurrently Monday by Senator Jones and Representative LaFollette, according to information received in this city yesterday, which again brings this important matter before the citizens. That the matter of a Federal building for this city has not entirely been lost sight of was proven yesterday when it became known that both Senator Jones and Representative LaFollette had interested themselves in the matter and were doing everything possible to secure the immediate construction of the building.

Two Arrested for Speeding.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 14.—(Special.)—A. J. Edwards and L. E. Jeffries, of Portland, were arrested here tonight for speeding on Main street. Each man had a new machine and was accompanied by a young woman. E. P. Youmans, a local realty dealer gave $30 bail for each. Edwards is Portland agent for an automobile company.

Christian Brothers Business College Celebrates.

PONTIFICAL MASS SUNG

Morning and Evening Services at Cathedral Held in Honor of 25th Year of Catholic Order Here—Fifty Sing.

The Silver Jubilee celebration of the Christian Brothers Business College at Grand avenue and Clackamas street, opened at St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday morning at 11 o'clock with solemn pontifical mass. Archbishop Christie officiated, and Rev. W. J. Deeney, S. J., preached the panegyric on "The Teacher Saint, Father of Modern Pedagogy," referring to St. John de la Salle, founder of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Archbishop Christie also officiated at the solemn pontifical vespers last night. "The Vocation of a Religious Teacher" was the subject of the sermon, preached by Rev. Bernard Murphy, O. S. B., sub-prior of Mount Angel Monastery. Father Murphy referred in his sermon to double taxation for schools, which, he said, Catholics are obliged to bear in the United States.

"Yet such is the love of holy church, of American Catholics, for the souls of their children, that they would rather submit to unjust taxation than forego the benefits of Christian education," he declared. "We are doing more than the Catholics of any other country on earth."
