TWO PASTORS QUIT

Sellwood and Mount Tabor Clergymen Resign.

ONE RECTOR CRITICISED

Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Spokane Avenue Presbyterian, Blamed for Aiding Blosser's Parole-Rev. E. M. Sharp Also to Step Out.

Resignations of two prominent Presbyterian ministers of this city, that of Rev. D. A. Thompson, of the Spokaneavenue Presbyterian Church, in Sellwood, and that of Rev. E. M. Sharp, D.D. of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, have startled Presbyterian circles somewhat. Rev. Mr. Thompson submitted his resignation to the congregation Sunday. May 7, and Rev. Mr. Sharp resigned yesterday morning.

The congregation of the Spokane-avenue Presbyterian Church will meet tomorrow night to consider its pastor's resignation, and it is predicted freely that it will not be accepted. The resignation of Rev. Mr. Thompson is said to have come about through criticism of Calcutta. He is a graduate of Stanford University and will devote all his time for the next several years to lecturing to American audiences about through criticism to League night he will lecture at Christensen's Hall on India and her people. Thursday night "The Life and to reachings of the Master Buddha" will be his theme at the same hall.

No Charges Are Made.

"From what I can learn there have been no charges against Dr. Thompson," said J. W. Caldwell a contributing mem-ber and business man of Sellwood. "The ber and business man of Sellwood. "The whole affair is an outrage. The business men of the community are back of Dr. Thompson. If he did urge the parole of Blosser, he did no more than Rev. T. L. Eliot, of the Unitarian Church, ministers of the Baptist and Methodist churches of Sellwood, and also Rev. W. H. Foulke, before he left for the East a short time ago. If these people object to paroling Blosser, why don't they go to Judge Gantenbein, who granted the parole? The truth of the matter is that the objection is simply a pretext that the objection is simply a pretext raised by the small opposition to Dr. Thompson. ## Rev. E. M. Sharp Resigns.

Rev. E. M. Sharp. D. D., pastor of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Caurch, at the corner of Belmont and East Fifty-fifth streets, also surprised his congregation by reading his resigna-tion at the conclusion of his morning sermon yesterday. The resignation of Rev. Mr. Sharp was submitted to take effect by June 1, at the next meeting of the Portland Presbytery. No reasons were assigned by the pastor for his resignation. In his absence from the manse, Mrs. Sharp, referring to the resignation, said:

"The reasons for Mr. Sharp's resignation are purely personal which con-cern Mr. Sharp, and not the public There is no trouble in the church and its affairs were never in a more pros-perous condition. We recently moved into the new stone church and the work has gone forward successfuly. Re-cently we took in 25 new members. That is all there is to it.
