DARKNESS HALTS 14-INNING GAME

Beavers and Senators Each Have Six Tallies When Playing Stops.

BOTH CLUBS FIGHT HARD

Seaton Twirls Entire Game for Portland and Fares Better Than Thompson and Byram—Fans Get Many Thrills.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 16.—(Special.)—Just as Murray stepped up to bat to begin the 14th inning this afternoon, Umpire McGreevy waved him aside, calling the game on account of darkness, the evening shades having been cast across the diamond while the score stood 6 to 6.

The game was a fight from the first inning, when both Beavers and Senators scored, until the last, each side scrapping for its half dozen runs.

The Beavers were threatening in the 13th frame, when Chris Mahoney, Sacramento's sensational new arrival from Boston, pegged a perfect throw to the plate from deep right, where he caught Sheehan's fly, getting Krueger, who was racing from third on the throw-in. Catcher Thomas caught the ball on the fly in getting his man. This play set the hungry fans frantic.

Seaton Pitches Good Game.

Tommy Seaton hurled the entire game, being found for only 11 safeties, while 12 were gleaned off Thompson and Byram. Portland showed the starter across in the first inning, when Chadbourne got life on Lerchen's error, advanced on two outs and scored on Krueger's drive to center. Sacramento gained a run in the same manner in the first with Danzig getting the necessary hit.

In the second, after two outs, Lerchen and Thomas singled and Shinn walked. O'Rourke drove a clean one to center, putting his crew two runs to the good.

The third-inning run for the Senators was caused by Danzig walking, going to third on two outs and scoring on the double steal when Peckinbaugh droped the ball at second in an attempt to get Lewis, who had reached first on Rapps' error.

Beavers Score in Fourth.

Rapps singled, Sheehan's infield out and Peckinpaugh's hit through short scored for Portland in the fourth.

Peckinpaugh drove two runs over in the sixth with a hit to left, scoring Krueger, who had singled, and Rapps, who took advantage of O'Rourke's error. But in the last half, the locals gained a run when Murray threw bad to third trying to catch Lewis napping. Rogers' single, a passed ball, stolen base and Ryan's safety gave the Beavers the seventh-inning run.

In the tenth Portland forged ahead when Rogers made as far as third on errors of Shinn and Danzig and scored when Ryan again tore off a timely single. Sacramento rallied as well in this first extra inning, Van Buren doubling, Lewis beating out an infield hit and Hunt, batting for Lerchen, splicing one through short. The score:

TENNIS LISTS REMAIN OPEN

Irvington Tourney Entries May Be Made Until Tomorrow Night.

With the idea of giving every tennis player who is a club member a chance to file his entry for the Irvington Spring tourney, the committee will not close the entry list till 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Entries may be telephoned to the steward at the club, either phone. Chairman Brewer is desirous of securing as large an entry list as possible, and up to date unusual interest has been shown by the club members. Special inducements will be made to the women members to enter the tournament, and as the entry list for each event, singles, doubles and mixed doubles, is but 50 cents, an unusually large number undoubtedly will seize the opportunity to show their prowess on the courts. Especial interest is being manifested by the men, who are determined to make the present holder of the Wilbur cup, Brandt Wickersham, fight for possession of the trophy this year. The tourney opens Saturday.

TURN VEREIN TO GIVE BENEFIT

Gymnastic Team to Be Aided by Smoker May 30.

The Portland Social Turn Verein will hold a boxing and wrestling smoker on Tuesday night, May 30, for the benefit of the gymnastic team to be sent to the Pacific Turnerbund to be held at Los Angeles in June.

This event will prove one of the most exciting events in amateur circles, for entries have been assured the Turners from the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, the Columbus Club, the Police Athletic Association and the Y. M. C. A., which means that the best amateur boxers and wrestlers of the city will compete on this occasion. The Turners are anxious to send a big delegation to Los Angeles as they intend to bid for the 1912 turnerbund to be held in Portland, and if they can send a big enough delegation to the Los Angeles meet they figure they stand a good chance to land the next annual gathering of the Turners of this jurisdiction.

Sheridan Has Wrestling Match.

SHERIDAN, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—Harry Pooler, of Sheridan, Saturday night wrestled Dick Ayers, of Iowa. Ayers won the two falls. Ayers weighed in at 135 pounds, while Pooler tipped the beam at 170.

EX-SEAL PITCHER IS ON WAY NORTH TO JOIN ROADSTERS.

FRANK EASTLEY.

Pitcher Frank Eastley, formerly of the San Francisco Club of the Pacific Coast League, who recently was purchased by Judge W. W. McCredie for the Portland Northwestern League team, is a young player of considerable promise.

Eastley is now on his way to Portland to join Nick Williams' squad. He is a native of Pittsburg, Pa., and is a boyhood chum of Tommy Murray and Bill Steen, two other Pittsburgers with Portland in the Pacific Coast League. Eastley is a right-handed pitcher, but his work with the Seals has been erratic due, it is said, to factional disturbances in the ranks of that club. Eastley is a hotheaded youth and the bantering of some of the bullying players on the Seal payroll proved too much for him on several occasions, and he has the reputation of having "trimmed" two or three of the Seal brigade at fisticuffs.

He gladly welcomes the change of teams, for he in an ardent friend and admirer of Nick Williams and will undoubtedly pitch great ball for the blonde manager.

144 ATHLETES TO VIE

28 SCHOOLS WILL TAKE PART IN CORVALLIS MEET.

Contestants Gather for Big Interscholastic Track Events to Be Held May 19-20.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—Entries received by the athletic management at this institution indicate that more than 144 high school athletes, representing 28 schools, will take part in the annual interscholastic track meet scheduled to be held on the local athletic field May 19 and 20.

The list of entries includes representatives from practically all of the larger schools of the state, and from all of the Portland institutions. The list, moreover, represents the pick of the high school athletes. The secondary men, who have performed in such a way as to attract attention, are all entered to take part in the big contest here at the end of the week.

The schools are Jefferson High School, Lincoln High School, Washington High School, Allen's Preparatory School, and Columbia University, all of Portland; Roseburg, La Grande, Pendleton, Dilley, Ontario, Hood River, Newberg, Baker City, Forest Grove, Oregon City, Dayton, Union, Salem, Condon, Hillsboro, Cove, St. Johns, Corvallis, Medford, Vancouver, Wash., Cottage Grove, Eugene and Albany.

The field promises to be in fine condition and the track will be one of the fastest in the state unless it is spoiled by heavy rains between now and Friday. At the present time it is hard and firm and should make possible some exceptional records.

The preliminaries in the dashes, weights and hurdles will be run Friday afternoon. Saturday afternoon will be given to the finals in these events and to the distance runs. The officials have been selected from among a list of star athletes in the state and the members of the college track team.

The high school athletes from La Grande, Ontario and Pendleton are already in the city and will remain here during the week.

TWO WRESTLERS ARRIVE

SPANJER AND BAUERS WILL REPRESENT EAST IN BOUTS.

Seattle, Spokane and Los Angeles Teams Will Arrive Today for Amateur Contests.

H. J. Spanjer and Gus Bauers, of Newark, N. J., the Eastern contingent of grapplers who are to compete at the National wrestling championships under the auspices of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, arrived today. Yet to arrive are the Seattle, Spokane and Los Angeles teams, expected today.

Spanjer is the National champion at 135 pounds, and he expressed confidence in his ability to once more carry off the honors, though this time he is scheduled to meet some exceedingly clever men in this division from Pacific Coast points. Spanjer is a product of the National Turn Verein of Newark.

The championships will be staged at the Heilig Theater, commencing promptly at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Herbert Greenland and Hal H. Rasch, of the Multnomah Club, have been nominated as referees of the bouts. The matches will be under the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, which bars hammerlocks and the strangle hold, and each of the first two falls is to be of six minutes' duration and in the event of there being no decision at the conclusion of the second fall, or if the grapplers have won a fall each, the third fall of three minutes' duration will be called. At the end of this last fall the referee is compelled to make a decision.

All of the entries in the meet are being notified to be on the stage of the Heilig Theater not later than 7 o'clock tomorrow night, for the entries are to draw competitors at that time.

RAIN HALTS GAME IN FIFTH INNING

Fans Are Disappointed for It Looked as if Roadsters Would Win.

STRAND TO REJOIN CLUB

Seventeen-Year-Old Southpaw Will Pitch for Indians on Ladies' Day or Sunday—Cohn Discusses Sale to Boston.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Paul Strand, Spokane's southpaw "phenom" purchased by the Boston Americans for a sum reputed to be $5000, will pitch in the Portland-Spokane series either on Friday or Sunday, according to the announcement by Captain Ostdick last night. Strand has been resting up at his home in South Prairie, Wash., since Sunday but joins the champions here today.

Bonnef, righthand youngster sold to Connie Mack last Fall for $1750, officiated for the Indians against Tonneson yesterday in a five inning session postponed by rain. Portland's amphibious Roadsters too, had all the best of the splashing at the Vaughn-street aquarium, for up to inning number six the visitors had not batted out a safe hit off Tonneson while Williams' sluggers beat a melodious ratapian that sounded like seven safeties through the pattering aqua pura.

The score was 0 to 0 with Stovall, Bradley and Mundorff the near-heroes in the batting line and Southpaw Tonneson the sprouting seed of hope in the Portland breast. Nearly 800 fans grumbled at the intervention of the Jupiter stuff for it looked like Portland's game all the way through. Spokane got but one man to first.

Strand League Sensation.

Strand, who will twirl against Portland on ladies' day or Sunday, has been the sensation of the league this year. He is but 17 years old and was picked up by Owner Joseph Cohn of the Spokane's from under the nose of Mike Lynch at Tacoma.

Nine-tenths of the fans and baseball men in the Northwest pooh pooh at the $5000 outlay John I. Taylor is reported to have given Cohn for the portside youngster. "How much did you really get for Strand?" the writer asked Cohn yesterday upon his arrival from the Seattle league session.

"I have consistently refused to make known the price, acting under instructions from the Boston Americans but come up to my room at the Bowers and I'll let you see some of the telegrams I received," answered Cohn, leading the way. At the Bowers, the Spokangite produced a bundle of yellow messages from nearly every major league head in the business. Murphy of the Chicago Cubs sent no less than four telegrams. "Cincinnati got badly fooled with Rube Benton. I can't give you that figure," heads one of his appeals.

Telegrams Tell Story.

The dispatches that cover the Boston deal, however, are as follows:

"Boston, Mass., May 6.—Joseph P. Cohn, Victoria, B. C.—Will give you $2000 and $2000 on June first next year. John I. Taylor."

Cohn wired back holding out for $5000. Taylor then answered:

"Boston, Mass., May 10.—Joseph P. Cohn, Victoria, B. C.—Think too much money as I understand Strand is only 17 years old. Would take chance on death or injury on first payment only. John I. Taylor."

Cohn's reply to this was as follows: "Victoria, B. C., May 11.—John I. Taylor, Boston, Mas.—You assume responsibility on first payment only. Better than Gregg or Baker ever showed. Answer. Joseph P. Cohn."

The Spokane baseball man refuses to divulge the contents of Taylor's reply to this so the fans must necessarily judge for themselves. At any rate it seems safe to say that the price was something better than "$2000 down and $2000 in June next year."

The score of Tuesday's five-inning whitewash affair is as follows:

Notes of the Game.

Everything was breaking for the Roadsters in the five innings before the heavy rain and the interruption undoubtedly saved the savage Spokanes another defeat.

In the first inning Bradley set the fans wild by a remarkable overhead bare-hand catch of a high foul.

Outfielder Gough, released by Portland, received a telegram from New Haven, Conn., offering him his 1910 job back. Gough is after a berth with Spokane.

Captain Ostdick was behind the bat for Spokane for his first work since the opening game. He caught Stovall off first in the opening inning by a quick heave and probably saved the game in the fifth by backing up on a wild throw past first with two on the sacks.

Cooney and Casey are the cut-ups on their respective teams. After the rainy interruption in the middle of the fifth Spokane tried to bluff out a longer wait to give the greasy infield time to dry. Casey thereupon ran out to the pitcher's box, reached for a handful of dust and tossed it in the air, proving that the ground was in fine condition. Cooney applied an antidote by hunting out a puddle and waving aloft a few handfuls of muck.

Cooney pulled a tricky one in the exciting fifth, when, with men on first and second, a throw to catch Miller at the keystone went screaming out to center field. Cooney sprawled all over Miller and kept him there.

In Monday's game, Nordyke of Spokane drove a liner up against the left field fence near the hull, a distance of 320 feet from home plate. In the post-season series at Spokane last Fall Nordyke lifted a fly over the left field fence 324 feet from home plate, establishing a left field record on those grounds.

Garrett or Lamline probably will twirl today for Portland, Holm or Kraft for Spokane.

EDDIE BURNS PINCH HITTER

His Timely Blow Enables Tacoma to Win From Victoria.

TACOMA, Wash., May 16.—Eddie Burns proved to be the man with a pinch hit in the last half of the ninth inning, when he drove in the winning run. It was a pitchers' battle in every sense of the word, Thomas having the better of it. The superb defense of the locals saved the game. Score:

MOTORBOATS WILL CONTEST

Series of Races Will Take Place on River on Memorial Day.

The Portland Motor Boat Club has decided to hold a series of races of speedy river craft on the Willamette River Memorial Day. This regatta will be the first big affair of the aquatic season, and all of the members of the Portland Motor Boat Club are working hard to have their craft in shape to participate.

John F. Cordray, manager of the Oaks, has offered several silver cups for the different boat races to be held, and the number and distances of these events will be decided at a meeting of the motor boat enthusiasts Thursday night. The manager of the pleasure resort has also extended an invitation to the club members to be his guests at a banquet at The Oaks Tavern on that night, when the resort will be opened for the season.

The racecourse will also be named Thursday night, and will extend from some point near one of the bridges in Portand to The Oaks.

Washington Plays Lincoln Today.

The frequently-delayed baseball game between the Washington and Lincoln High School teams, of the Interscholastic League, will be played on Multnomah field this afternoon, providing the weather does not again interfere. These teams have been scheduled for over a month, but every time they have tried to play, rain has interfered and the game has been postponed to a later date.
