Railroad Commission by the O.-W. R. & N. Co. for a change in the sugar rate from La Grande to Portland and to intermediate points, to effect competition with sugar coming from California by water. The company says in its application that there is a sugar factory at La Grande which depends largely upon Northwest territory for its markets and the company has been unable to dispose of its product satisfactorially because of the California water competition. The San Francisco to Portland rate by water is 11½ cents per 100 pounds and the railroad desires to make a rate of 15 cents per 100 pounds from La Grande to Portland, with a minimum of $0.000 pounds. From La Grande to points intermediate to Portland the company desires to base the rate on the water rate to Portland plus the local rate from Portland to such destination, not exceeding the Oregon taste distance tariff rate from La destination, not exceeding the Oregon state distance tariff rate from La Grande.

As an example the railroad sets out the proposed rates as follows from La Grande: To Portland, 15 cents; Hood River, 10½ cents; The Dalles, 21½ cents; Biggs, 31½ cents; Arlington, 40½ cents; Umatille, 24 cents; Fendleton, 25 cents.
