Shortage Is Figured Out by Some Dealers.

CROP IS LARGE ONE

Market Is Firm and Higher Prices May Prevail Later-Other Traders Believe Stock Will Be Ample for All Needs.

The grain bag market is firm and in some markets it is believed prices will have to how a material advance before the season ply of bage and the prospects for a big crop.

According to a local dealer, the importations to date have been 22,000,000 bags, there is a carry over from last year of 5,000,000, the San Quentin supply is placed at 5,000,000, and the Walls Walls supply at 2,500,000. This, except for a few black stripes here and on the Sound, is all he finds available for the conting crop. He places the resulter and on the Sound, is an infor the compling crop. He places the requirements this year at 00.050,000, based on the present crop outlook, as last year $8,000,000 bags were used. This figures out a material shortage, which cannot be unde up as it is too late now to bring more bags from Cal-

on the other hand, it is pointed out by other dealers that there are enough bars in sight on the Pacific Coast for all probable needs, unless the cosp should be abumper one, and even then the farmers would no doubt be able is merry through some way. There has never yet been one actual defeciency of justs on the Coast, though in some years, particularly in 1905, there were grave fears that the farmers would not be able to sack all of their wheat. The crop that year was figured out before harvest, yet the entire crop was before hurvest, jet the entire crop was narksted without loss, Hands at Private Sale at 10 to 14 Cents-Growers Are Feeling More Encouraged.

PENDLETON, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—With only four citys offered and but two of these sold, the first public wool sales of the Oregon season was held here today. Less than 20,000 pounds was bid on by the buyers present and less than 30,000 pounds changed hands.

Jonna, representing the Victoria Mills-Company, of Providence, R. L. secured the Johnson & Peterson city of 44,000 pounds at 10% cents. Jonns sinc ted with Angell of the Hallowell, Jones & Donald Company, on a bid of 14 cents for the 10,000-pound city of Rusga Broa. The first city sold was fine wool and the second medium.

Joe Connelly refused a bid of Fig. cents for 16,000 pounds, amounting the his price was 18 cents. J. E. Smith, as Sons refused a bid of 10% cents for the Bonnes of their Barnhart city and refused to put up their Pitot Rock city of another 190,900 for sale. The Barnhart city last year brought 11%c.

Prices offered today generally were only about 1% cents below those effered last year for the same citys, and as a result the growers, as a whole, are feeling greatly encouraged.

In addition 16 the public sales, the sale of the 180-800-pound city of Smythe Bros.

Scouring Mills took the line wont at twents.

Private seles at good prices are also reported as having been made at Happner Monday. The Beemesr clip of 19,600 pounds, and the Busick clip of 20,000 pounds were purchased by Hallowell. Jones & Denald at 13 and 12% cents respectively. Both clips were of medium grads.

The hext public sale is to be held at Echa tomorrow, but as nearly all of the 100,000 pounds now at that point have either been sold or consigned, there only remains about 186,000 pounds to be sold. This consists of the clips of the Canninghass Sheep & Land Company and of John Kilkehny.
