

OUR SECOND EXTRAORDINARY MAY SUIT SALE $24.75

An Opportunity of Opportunities, the like of which Portland women have seldom had presented to them. An event of unusual value-giving that will occasion a world of comment and surprise by reason of a sale much out of the ordinary, involving SUITS of the HIGHER GRADES at the price of the ordinary sort. Come Here Wednesday and See for Yourself—Four Days' Sale.

TO THE PUBLIC

We have been called upon many times to answer the question as to when the building we occupy is to be torn down. For the benefit of the public in general we wish to announce that our building is a permanent structure and we are located here permanently, and this sale is not a removal sale, closing-out sale, alteration sale or anniversary sale, but simply a Legitimate Sale to reduce our stock, as the season draws to a close.

PORTLAND'S EMPORIUM
126 Sixth Street

EXACT REPRODUCTIONS

Stunning Fifth Avenue Models of the most exclusive cut, all taken from our regular stock that was selected for the very best trade, possessing the very finest tailoring that goes to make up Suits of this character. Your ideal will surely be found in this superb assemblage. If it is a plain tailored or a stylish, attractive sailor collar or trimmed model, we have it in any desired material. The ever popular Navy Serges, Tweeds, Homespun, Worsteds, Satins and other beautiful fabrics showing ever so many expressions of Fashion's most effective whims. Such exquisite Suits were never offered at

THESE SUITS SELLING REGULARLY AT $30.00 TO $47.50

Wednesday at 8 A. M. opens our Second Extraordinary May Suit Sale. To find such bargains at any time would be good fortune, but to find them at such an opportune time is more than remarkable. Thrifty, stylish women and misses will investigate this extraordinary sale and will thank themselves for so doing. Remember they sold up to $47.50.

COME EARLY AND SECURE THE CHOICEST.

$24.75

Tailored Suits

CLOAKS

$7.50 Silk Petticoats $3.95

Here is a genuine Petticoat bargain, the actual worth to $7.50, not exaggerated. The lot embraces about 12 different styles made of finest quality taffeta and messaline in every wanted shade; wonderful value at... $3.95

$5 Messaline Waists $2.75

2 very clever, distinct models of striped messaline. One with low neck, kimono sleeves, smartly trimmed with solid color around neck and sleeves. Other style with high neck, lace yoke and kimono sleeves; unusual value at... $2.75

$1.50 Muslin Gowns at 98c

$1.50 Combinations at 98c

$1.75 Petticoats Only $1.15

40c Corset Cover and Drawers Now 25c

PLAY DESPITE COLD

Tennis Tourney at Irvington Sees Surprises.

WOMEN IN PROMINENT ROLE

Miss Fording Loses to Miss Schaefer After Hard Three-Set Match.

Men's Play Especially Interesting in Day.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

It was almost too cold yesterday to bring out the best there is in the tennis-player, but the gallery at the Irvington courts braved the near-silvering weather to see some surprises, even in the handicap tournament, which is now in progress.

One of the proudest and most strenuous matches of the day was that of Miss Myrtle Schaefer and Miss Stella Fording, the former being declared the victor only after three hard sets had been played. Equally strenuous was the match between Miss Campbell and Miss Goss, which also went to three sets and was no one's victory till almost the last point had been played. Both Miss Fording and Miss Campbell had especially difficult handicaps to overcome, in every game.

Of the men's play the match between Cook and Fleming, which went to three sets, was one of the most gripping in the day's play. Fleming played as wonderful a game as his older and more experienced opponent. It was beautiful tennis and each and every point was hard-fought.

Miss Leslie Leadbetter added another victory to her long list after losing the first set, taking the next two after a struggle and thus overcoming an especially difficult handicap which her opponent, Miss Agnes McBride, held. There was but one match in mixed doubles during the day, Mrs. Judge and Mitchell defeating Miss Fording and Smith in two straight sets. To the handicap of the better team and the lack of the best teamwork is due the loss of the first set so decisively, though the teamwork displayed itself to a betterment in the second set, which went 8-8. Yesterday's results follow:

Men's singles—Gerrill beat Smith 6-2, 6-2, 6-4; Van Horn beat K. Smith 6-1, 6-2; Mitchell beat Holt; Jordan beat P. Lewis 6-2, 6-7, 6-5; Fleming beat Goss 6-4, 6-3, 6-8.

Men's doubles—Smith and Mitchell beat Katz and Brown 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Ladies' singles—Campbell beat Miss Goss 6-4, 6-2; Miss Leadbetter beat Miss McBride 6-1, 6-0, 6-7; Miss Schaefer beat Miss Fording 6-2, 6-0, 6-7; Mrs. Pease beat Miss McBride 6-1, 6-2.

Mixed doubles—Mitchell and Mitchell beat Miss Fording and Smith 6-1, 6-0.

Schedule for Today.

12:30 P. M.—J. Lewis vs. Morton; E. H. Smith vs. J. H. Smith.

2:30 P. M.—Winner Lewis vs. Morton vs. Mitchell; winner Smith vs. Van Horn vs. Jordan.

4:30 P. M.—Miss Campbell vs. Miss Leadbetter; Mr. and Mrs. Pease vs. Miss Schaefer and Edgar.

6:30 P. M.—Miss Fox and L. M. Starr vs. Miss Leadbetter and K. Smith; Gerrill vs. Pease; Goss and Holt vs. Van Horn and Jordan.

TURN VEREIN TEAMS NAMED

Men and Women Going South; Athletic Tourney Planned.

The Portland Social Turn Verein, on

PUPILS TO HEAR OLD

Veterans Name Orators to Urge Honor of Dead.

EVERY SCHOOL ON LIST

Warriors to Recount Deeds of Heroes Who Died for Country—Scholars Asked to Supply Flowers for Memorial Day.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

The Memorial day committee of the Grand Army has appointed delegations to visit the public schools of the city at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon to address the children on patriotism and the respect due those who died in defense of their flag.

A special request has been made by the Grand Army committee that the children bring flowers to school with them Monday, May 29, the day preceding Memorial Day. The flowers will be used in decorating the graves of the soldier dead. The position is taken that to have the children assist in the drawing of flowers is the simplest and most practical method of teaching them to do homage to the men who fought to preserve the Nation's institutions.

The following assignments have been made:

Ainsworth School, at Elm and Twentieth streets—E. N. Barney, W. H. Hanes, Elt Davis, G. W. Cooper, G. W. Higgins, Clarence J. Jones, M. McEwen, F. N. Kottick, Edwin Dunn.

Albina Homebased School, at Beach and Montgomery—H. A. Gardner, H. A. Gardner, W. C. Henderson, Elt Yeller, T. M. Kellogg, John Jones.

Chapman School, at Nellie and Sauer—J. J. Henschelmer, H. O. Canfield, George Doerner, L. F. Hanna, O. F. Harris, Langdon R. Clark, John Waldorf, J. M. Bennett, L. C. Thorne.

Crain School, at Eleventh and Davidson—J. H. Hayes, R. S. Greenleaf, James A. Spear, J. C. Wilkinson, J. O. Branden, W. Park.

Brooklyn School, at Milwaukee and Froedrick—Clyde Newell, Russ Chamberlain, H. Baumbach, E. J. Morse, Perry Tomlinson, A. Paffenbarger.

Buckman School, at East Twelfth and Wilson—L. G. Darr, H. F. D. Hill, J. H. Arlberg, Adin Odier, A. Brewer, G. F. Merrill, H. J. Worden, H. C. Ellis.

Clinton School, at East Twelfth and Sixth and Powell—D. D. Neer, J. A. Braden, W. M. Martzell, E. F. Bryant, Harlow Kingston, J. F. Anderson, Joseph Gleason, T. G. Davidson.

Cough School, at Seventeenth and Kearney—F. M. Johnson, H. A. Vesper, Sam Berger, G. W. Thomas, Paul Trutt, W. A. Koenig.

Madison School, at East Sixteenth and Grant—David Croyle, W. J. McAllister, Martin Hill, J. E. Morris, William Jones, C. W. Woodward, P. D. Morris, J. W. Pace, W. L. Ireland, Osborn Odum.

Crain School, at East Forty-eighth and Powell—A. W. Miller, A. C. Edmunds, J. H. Graham, C. W. Cottell, William Hutchinson, J. A. Young, A. L. Clark.

David School, Twenty-first and Raleigh—W. T. Kerr, J. H. Woodward, F. C. Withers, C. A. Lamar, F. J. Neuberger, R. A. Washburn, A. C. Walters, S. N. Downs.

Ellet School, at Rodney avenue and Knott—J. J. Walters, C. H. Miller, J. W. Griffith, D. Rigger, John Galtchett, F. A. Paine, J. H. Fisher, W. E. Driskell, T. J. Patterson, George Rogers, H. B. Thompson, V. R. Delahunt.

Fernwood School, at East Thirtieth and Hancock—H. C. Kirby, Christopher Hobart, Ed Crosslander, J. L. Cooley, E. K. Savage, A. Longbecker, J. L. Taylor, C. E. Hlake, J. E. Hill.

Fulton Park School, at Second and Logan

BEARD ESTATE IN COURT

NEPHEW AND NIECE REMOVED AS ADMINISTRATORS.

No Wrong Committed, Says Court, but Claims Disqualify Both From Acting.

STEPHEN M. BEARD DIED WITHOUT LEAVING BEHIND ANY DIRECT DESCENDANTS, BUT HE WILLED ALL HIS PROPERTY, VALUED AT $108,000, TO THE WIDOW AND FOUR CHILDREN OF HIS DEAD BROTHER, WHO SHOULD SHARE EQUALLY.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

Settlement of the controversy concerning who is to serve as administrators of the estate of Stephen M. Beard, banker and fruitraiser of Vancouver, Wash., was partially reached yesterday when Judge Cleeton decided that A. Edgar Beard and Mary E. Gray, the nephew and niece, were not entitled to serve, owing to the claims to property of the estate, but that S. R. Beard, their brother, who had been appointed to serve with them in administering the affairs of the estate, was entitled to retain his position as administrator.

Although the court suggested that S. R. Beard might be assisted by his mother and sister, respectively, he agreed to leave to the other heirs the selection of those who will serve in place of the two removed by the court.

Judge Cleeton said that he did not find that any wrong had been committed by any of the Beard family involved in the controversy over the estate, and that he made the change of administrators simply to allow the funds of the estate to be settled by persons who had no adverse accounts against it.

Stephen M. Beard had died without leaving behind any direct descendants, but he willed all his property, valued at $108,000, to the widow and four children of his dead brother, who should share equally.

By the terms of the will, A. Edgar Beard, S. R. Beard and Mary E. Gray were to serve as administrators and administrators of the estate.

WABASH PLANS OFFICES

General Agent Stubbs Says Northwest Business Improves Monthly.

Occupancy of a ground floor room in Portland for office purposes is contemplated by the Wabash Railroad Company, but when such a change from the present quarters in the Commercial Club building will be made has not yet been determined.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

Wabash general agent for the Northwest in Portland, who has just returned from a trip to the East, says that the officers of the company are considering the proposition and may act at any time this year. They are pleased, he asserts, with the reports of business received from this city.

While financial conditions in the East are not as encouraging as they were a year ago, the Northwest continues to report increased business every month. Portland is the natural center for trade in this section and the proposed improvement by the Eastern road will affect this city as a direct result.

"NO RIDE" STIRS PROTEST

Sellwood Club Holds Amendment Would Hurt Suburbs.

That the no-seat-no-ride amendment to the charter to be voted for at the June election would depreciate suburban property from 25 to 40 per cent and prove a great inconvenience to the general public was the sentiment of the Sellwood Commercial Club, expressed in a resolution adopted unanimously last night.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

W. H. Morehouse said that such a provision would work harm to the entire city and especially the residence districts on the East Side. Peter Hume was the chief, and that the Sellwood Commercial Club and all other clubs ought to condemn it.

The club indorsed $80,000 bond issue for the construction of an auditorium in Portland. Tom Richardson delivered an address in support of the auditorium.

BARON MEETS SOCIALIST

Two Extremes of Society Side in Gantenbein's Court.

Representatives of nobility and socialism came together in Presiding Judge Gantenbein's court yesterday afternoon, when Baron G. C. von Woelworth, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, and Millard Price, charged with larceny by embezzlement, sat side by side awaiting their respective turns to be arraigned.

BY RALPH H. MITCHELL.

Baron G. C. von Woelworth, a wealthy man, was indicted for passing a worthless check on F. M. Tubbsing, May 5, and Price, who is identified with the local Socialists, was indicted for embezzling from his employers, the Portland Produce Company, $218.25.

Use of Gas From a Hygienic Standpoint

Lecture by Prof. Vivian B. Lewes, F. I. C. F. C. S., at the Meeting of the British Institution of Gas Engineers.

THE CONSTITUENTS OF THE ATMOSPHERE—The atmosphere is composed mainly of two elementary gases—oxygen and nitrogen. The oxygen is the great supporter of life and combustion, and is the agent employed by nature in those cleansing processes chief among which is "decay"; while the nitrogen serves to dilute the oxygen, and keep its action within the proper limits. These two gases are present in the air in the proportion of 20.9 per cent oxygen to 79.1 per cent of nitrogen by volume, or, roughly, 1 volume of oxygen to four volumes of nitrogen. Besides these, however, we find in the atmosphere traces of other bodies, some of which, like water vapor, carbon dioxide, and ammonia, are necessary for the carrying on of nature's processes; and generally have a local origin.

The oxygen used up daily by processes of animal life, combustion, and the waste products from the calculations of Faraday, to no less than three and one-half million tons; and it is replaced in the atmosphere by the animal world being utilized for building up the vegetable kingdom—an action by which the oxygen is replaced in its atmosphere and kept in a condition fit for breathing, while other impurities are partly washed out from the air by rain, and partly oxidized and destroyed by the removal of the power of diffusion possessed by gases is the chief factor in keeping the composition of the atmosphere constant, as added by air currents and wind, it keeps the whole of the gases present so thoroughly intermixed that it took scientific observers half-a-century to discover whether these gases were really mixed together in the atmosphere or in chemical combination. (To be continued Friday.)

The Wretchedness of Constipation

Can quickly be overcome by CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

—Act surely and gently on the liver. Cure Headache, Biliousness, Indigestion, and all the ailments of the bowels.

Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price. Genuine without Signature.