DEATH AND RIOTS STIR MEXICO CITY

Police and Soldiers in Battle With Mob.

7 TO 18 KILLED IS ESTIMATE

While People Shout "Viva Ma-\doso," Diaz Lies Very ill.

NEWSPAPER OFFICE FIRED

Officers Among Victims of Chad in Mexico When Government Showed Headquarters. Because President Diaz Has Not Returned

MEXICO CITY, May 14—For the second day in succession the outskirts of Mexico were tossed into a welter of death and destruction. Shooters from the government army and a mob of soldiers and auxiliaries, in pouring down a street, shot down a number of persons and injured a number others. The number killed and wounded was not reported. A newspaper office was set on fire and a number of government officials are believed to be among the victims. It is stated that President Diaz has not returned to the capital since the shooting began.

MEXICO, May 14—President Diaz has not returned to the capital, according to a dispatch from Mexico City. The government officials do not know where he is. The government is maintained by a force of 10,000 men. The rebels have control of the north and east of the country.

Loretto, June 14—There is a report here that the government has taken control of the city of Chihuahua. It is stated that President Diaz has not returned to the capital since the shooting began. The government officials do not know where he is. The government is maintained by a force of 10,000 men. The rebels have control of the north and east of the country.

WASHINGTON, June 14—President Diaz has not returned to the capital since the shooting began. It is stated that he has not returned to the capital since the shooting began. The government officials do not know where he is. The government is maintained by a force of 10,000 men. The rebels have control of the north and east of the country.

HESS GETS MILLION

Hess Loses Again in Chicago

Hess, who is a graduate of the University of Chicago, was tried in the circuit court of Cook county last week and convicted of fraud in the purchase of shares of stock.

ARMED WOMEN AIDS LAW

Women Hold Sign for Workmen's Compensation

The women's suffrage movement is being aided by women's agitation in the workmen's compensation movement. In the battle for the passage of a bill to make workmen's compensation laws more effective, women are playing a vital role. They are helping to build up public opinion in favor of the bill.

MAN WONT BURY UNCLE

But He Does Not Know Deceased's Name

Ralph Smith, 26, was in court last week charged with murder. He was arrested for the murder of his uncle, Ralph Smith, 24, who was killed by a streetcar in the city.

ELECTIONS GET BANKS

Financial institutions in the United States are getting involved in the election process. The Federal Reserve System has set up a network of banks to handle election funds.

TAFT'S NAME AIDS LORIMER

La Follette Seeks to Pluck Man from Voter's Registration

President Taft's name is being used as a weapon in the battle to get the names of voters from the registration lists.

ROBERT B. SMITH

of the Oregonian