but will take the stump next week with other Republicans in advocacy of Simon's re-election. Mayor Simon has no more enthusinatic a supports than Mr. Werlein, who is openly supporting Rimon as against Rushlight qualified to serve the city as Mayor. "The considerations that attended and influenced my entrance into the primaries as a candidate for the Re-publican nomination for Mayor," said Mr. Werlein yesterday, "show that I steadfastly refused to announce myself a candidate while there seemed even a remote possibility that Mayor Simon might again he induced to become a candidate for re-election. I, with hundreds of ethers who knew his worth to the city, did my utmost to gain Mayar Simon's consent to stand for re-nomination and re-election, because of my knowledge of his honealy, capabil-ity and worth. Failing to Induce ity and worth. Failing to induce Mayor Simon to get into the contest, however, and feeling the gravity of the situation, I went before the people and offered myself as a candidate, enun-ciating my beliefs and principles.

Primarles Awaken People.

"While I was not successful in the primaries, I feel that the result of the nominating election has awakened the people of Portland to the real needs of the hour. Through this light they have prevalled upon Mayor Simon to stand in the breach and save his towns-ments of unity as an inde-

Alf. Woolward has scarcely con-cluded his remarks when Mayor Simon entered the room. His reception was an ovation. He was introduced by Mr. Woodward as the man "who was being more abused for trying to per-form his duty to the citizens of Port-form his duty to the citizens of Port-form his duty to the clitizens of Port-land than any other man living within the corporate limits of the clip." After thanking the members of the committee for their earnest and loyal support of his candidacy, Mayor Simon said the duties of the office were ar-duous. He said that during his term he had given his entire time to the per-formance of those duties and promised to continue the same application of his energies. If re-elected, to the end that the clip's business might be fear-lessly and faithfully discharged to the

that the city s duscharged to the satisfaction of the public. Mayor Simon called attention to the fact that under the present system the Mayor is the only officer who is charged with and held responsible for charged with and held responsible for extravagance in the expenditure of city funds. The various departments of the city government, he said, apparently vied with one another in seeing how much of the public funds could be ex-pended. He complained that there were too many boards and commissions and block of assurance accountsement and a lack of assistance, encouragement and co-operation in keeping the expen-ditures of the city at a minimum.

Henry Hahn, A. A. Balley and Wil-liam De Veny emphasized the need of individual work on the part of every member of the committee and all friends of good government as an in-dispensable necessity to the re-election of Mayor Simon, Mr. Balley made an especially effective talk. He ex-plained that fie had been actively iden-tified with organized labor for 15 years and charged that the laboring men of the city were being deceived by Rushlight in the pending campaign for the reason that he had made them promises he could not possibly fulfill if he should be elected.
