In the fourth, however, the home ignard broke the lee, flough it was a glaring error by "Khi" Mohler which let Krueger in from third base with the first run after two men were out.
Chadbourne, Rodgers and Ryan opened the fifth inning with successive hits, filling the bases. Krueger forced Chadbourne at the plate, but Happe sent Rodgers and Ryan across on a drive to left field. This resulted in the "canning" of Miller by the Seal captain, and the substitution of Frank Howming, the hitherto Portland "Rus."

Beavers Busy in Slxth.

Browning managed to worm out of this fairing undamaged, but the Beaver war cines got busy with him in the sixth, which was the most disastrous inning the visiting club sustained. In this innwhich was the most disastrous things the visiting club sestained. In this inning the Beavers registered a trio of runs on three bits, a pass and an error by Berry, who dropped a throw at the plate. Murray opened the sixth with a walk, for Browning failed to locate the plate in four heaves. Henderson sacrificed and Chadbourne singled to right, putting Murray on third. Redgers hit to McArdle, who tossed to Berry ahead of Murray, but Claude dropped the ball as the Purtland catcher slid into the plate. Byan, who posunded out five hits in five trips to the plate, then came through with his fourth single, scoring Chadbourne, and Kruoger's grounder banged Finney on the shine and the bases were populated. Happa holsted a long sacrifice fly to Meichoir, on which Rodgers counted.

The one-gided score robbed the game f some interest, though Buddy Ryan's atting stunts served to offset this to certain extent. The black-haired outrefrain extent. The feature of the first game was Dillon's hit for a home run made in the fifth inning when the bases were roul. Scores:

NEW TORK, May 23.—With only two days intervening before a team of Brit-lish cavalry officers will meet the American holders of the international polo trophy, the months of preparation for the greatest polo match the world has ever seen are practically complete.

Not since the game began in Persia and persons backed a contest of this sort. The English players are backed by a popular subscription fund of $50,000.

In two months' practice in New Jersey and Long Island, the visiting players have become well known and their playing form has been keenly followed. The Americans, including the Waterburys, Harry Payne Whitney and Deveroux Milburn, are idols to followers of the game. The British team probably will be made up of Captain Leslie Cheape, Lieutenant Edwards, Captain Hardress Lloyd and Captain Wilson. The Meadowbrook hunt field on Long Island will be the scene of the contest.

The first game is called for Wednesday afternoon at 4130 o'clock, and the match will be decided by the best two games out of three. The first international tournament for the American polo cup was played at Newport in 1886, and, owing to the excellent team play of the English and the superiority of their pomies, they carried away the cup. Householder Engages in Fight With Mensor and Both Are Put Out of Game.

GAME IS POORLY PLAYED

Nick Williams' Men Deserve Victory, but Poor Work of Canadians Is Responsible for Many Scores of Portland.

TACOMA, Wash., May 28 .- (Special.) -In a game in which everything oc-curred that can happen in a ball game, from a fight between two players to the constant provocation of assault on the part of the umpire, Portland took the transferred game from Victoria this afternoon by a score of 8 to 2. It was a poorly played game from start to fin-teh and the crowd of 1209 Mas dwindled down to 600 by the time the last man down to 600 by the time the last man was out.

Eddle Householder gave his usual specialty, and after trying to pick a fight with Umpire Baumgarten became engaged with Mensor, and it soon took a dozen players and one policeman to pry them apart. As Householder took the initiative, he was taken out of the park under police convoy, while Mensor was sent to the bench. The trouble is the culimination of a feud which has existed for the past three years. Umpire Baumgarten refused to say what action he would take regarding a proposed report of the proceedings to President Lindsay.

While Portland won on merits, it was largely through a gift on the part of the Islanders that the score was so large. The Victoria pitching was poor and the support wobbied. The Rondsters did not play errorless ball, Manager Williams being chalked up with two.

Both teams scored two runs in, the ager Williams being chalked up with two.

Both teams scored two runs in the first inning. Both of those for Portland were gifts from Belford. The first man walked, the second hit and the third was hit. The bases were full, and Mensor was then slammed with a pitched ball and Mundorf stalked across the plate. With the bases still congested, Miller was walked and another run was scored. The Canadians took two themselves in the initial inning. Davis walked, and scored when Goodman lifted a long fly to Million. Householder's double brought in Keller, who had singled ahead of him.

From that on it was all Portland, The one earned run of the game came in the sixth, when Stovall doubled and William singled Score:

Charles F. Walsh, late of Los Angeles, yesterday demonstrated to 10,000 persons that he is a real aviator, for, after whizzing through the ozone for one seven-minute flight, he made the crowd walt three solld hours at the Country wait three solid hours at the Country Club for another. And the second never came, for his mechanicians failed in their efforts to patch up a shattered cylinder head.

Thus the cold-potate died, the burning of the midnight oil and the new interpretation on the language of the late near-avistor Pat Henry, "Give us avisition or give us cots."

The Marathon started sharply at 3:20, when Walsh's beautiful Curtiss-Farman biplane was led down the half-mile track to the west end of the field. Walsh then circled back and forth o'er the aerodrome for 7 minutes and 20 seconds before alighting gracefully in front of the stand from whence he started. A defective cylinder head gave way just as the aeroplane came to a stop, causing all the trouble. rouble. Machine Not Repaired.

The mechanics worked with a will and promised another trial inside of half an, hour with a new cylinder cap, but the half hour stretched out into three, and finally the announcer informed the waiting throng "that there would be no further flying today."

Miss Rose Buckley, 785 East Fourteenth street north, who had the honor to name the airshap the "Aerequeen," was on hand to enjoy a promised flight. Master Gabriel, of the Orpheum, was another who courted fate, but woeed in vain.

H. W. Manning announced after the meet that paid admissions totaled close to 200. The other 2000 or 2000 crept through convenient holes in the fence or occupied reserved seats on the bluff overlooking the west end of the amphitheater.

Aviator Goes to Victoria.

Aviator Walsh, E. W. Manning, Brownie Manning, H. W. Manning and C. C. Hahn, mechanic, left over the Great Northern at midnight for Victoria, Great Northern at midnight for Victoria, where Waish is to give exhibitions on a $2000 guarantee on Tuesday. From Victoria the "Aeroqueen" will be shippen to Wenatchee, Wash, and then to Scattle for a three-days' session, June 9-10-11. This means that Eugene Ely will have a monopoly on the aviation programme at the Rose Festival in Portland.

C. L. Young former advance man for Curtiss, has joined forces with the Mannings and is arranging Walsh's dates for the Summer.
