

CONFESSION MAY SAVE DE VILLIERS

Accused Plotter Against Madero Urged to Name His Confederates.

MADERO DENOUNCES TWO

Papers Found on Dunn Show Money for Counter-Revolution Given by Centefico Element.

EL PASO, Tex., May 29.—(Special.)—The Boer, who is being held here on a charge of conspiracy to kill Francisco I. Madero, Jr., may go free, providing he confesses the names of those Mexicans implicated in the alleged plot.

This was the decision of General Viljoen, his Boer countryman, and Madero's military confidant, who last night filed the complaint against De Villiers.

"We have no doubt about the guilt of De Villiers, and also Dunn, who were arrested in Monterrey yesterday," said General Viljoen. "But we know that two men personally were not interested in the plan to kill Madero. What we are after is the names of those who have been furnishing the money and plotting to kill Madero."

General Viljoen tonight received a telegram from Detective William Smith, who arrested Dunn at Monterrey, Mexico, yesterday, stating that many papers were found on Dunn, "showing that Adolfo Garcia Galan, of the Bank of Ciudad Diaz, had been furnishing the money to finance the plot."

Madero Names Conspirators. Senor Madero today sent a telegram to Rafael Hernandez, the new Minister of Justice, explaining that General Viljoen had told him of the activity of Dunn and De Villiers here, and stating that Rosendo Pinedo, the Chief of Police in Congress, and Andres Garcia Galan had been mentioned by the two men as being implicated in the plan to start more trouble in Mexico.

J. E. Wharton, attorney for De Villiers, stated today that the defense of his client would be that the plan which he was engineering here comprehended only a civil movement. He said to an Associated Press reporter:

"De Villiers admitted to me that his mission here was political and that he was to assassinate some of Madero's friends, but he was never guaranteed by those who employed him that there was to be nothing criminal in the movement. There is absolutely no criminal evidence in the case. De Villiers is in no way connected with the political movement and was secured for the work because he was a Boer and knew General Viljoen."

Madero Led Plotters On. Madero today said the plot: "For 19 days we have been secretly working on this plot. When I was informed of it, I traced it to Mexico City. A small group of the old regime decided to make a last desperate chance to save themselves, in the hope that if I were overthrown they might continue in their old ways of exploiting the country for their private good. When I learned that a large sum of money was back of the plot, I determined to give it every encouragement. Ourselves were to have been the leaders with the troops, but he remained here, apparently to become a dupe to the scheme."

General Viljoen also was instructed to take any money offered to him, and to desert me and start a counter revolution. When the plot had gone far enough, I ordered the arrests. De Villiers, when seen at the county jail today, looked cheerful, but refused to discuss the charge against him.

"I am innocent of any charge, and I'll be out in a few days and have a drink with you and your friends," he said through the prison bars, to the newspaper men.

Asked about the telegrams which had been found on him, General Viljoen replied: "None of the telegrams was addressed to me. The messages used alluded, those which Constable Brown found on De Villiers, according to Brown's declaration today, are addressed to Daniel Villiers."

DIAZ LOATH TO QUIT MEXICO. Ex-President Regards Trip Abroad as Piece of Foolishness.

VERA CRUZ, Mex., May 29.—(Special.)—President Diaz does not wish to leave his native land and only is doing so, it became known today, because the women members of his immediate family, fearful of an attack on the palace, persuaded the General to take passage aboard the Hamburg-American Line steamer Ypiranga for Spain. He regards the trip as a piece of foolishness.

The ex-President's earnest wish is to retire to a ranch in his native state of Oaxaca. His unwillingness to leave Mexico has grown more pronounced since he came here, in sight of the ocean. It will be his first foreign trip. General Diaz face is still inflamed, the redness extending to his eyes. He talks in whispers but is now able to eat frijoles.

General Diaz spent several hours on the veranda of his house here today receiving, among a few other persons, William W. Canada, the American Consul at Vera Cruz, who has been a friend of the ex-President for 14 years.

Last night's demonstration, which was started during a concert in the Plaza Constitucional, and which, while lauding Madero for the success of a revolution, was accompanied by an undertone directed against Diaz, ended harmlessly.

SUSPECTS ARE WELL KNOWN. William L. Dunne, Arrested as Plotter in Mexico, ex-Newspaper Man.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 29.—(Special.)—The Light this afternoon will say that the man arrested in Mexico on suspicion of plotting to start a counter revolution are well-known San Antonians.

"The two men," says the Light, "are William L. Dunne, formerly a newspaper man and one time managing editor of the Light, and Dan De Villiers."

"Three years ago Dunne left the newspaper field to engage in colonization work on land owned by General Gonzales in a ravine near Ciudad Portirio Diaz, Mexico. Since that time he has visited San Antonio frequently, and March 17 last he was married to Mrs. Amy Greenwell Bell, ex-society editor of the Light.

"De Villiers is well known in South Texas. Up to a year ago he was the owner of a large farm near Cotulla, Texas, and for the last two years he has been making San Antonio his home."

LOVE TO STAY IN BAKER. Denial Given That He Will Go to Chicago—Mines Keep Him Busy.

BAKER, Or., May 29.—(Special.)—Sidney C. Love, contrary to all reports, is not on his way to Chicago or any other place. Further, it is stated that he has no intention of leaving Baker at this time, for any purpose.

He will be here at the hearing of his case before Referee Charles F. Murphy on June 12, as set down by Circuit Judge Smith. Neither will he leave here then, as he will be busy with his mining operations. Work is going ahead at his mine, "The Mormon Boy," at Cable Cave, where two new tunnels will be driven the present season.

Tonight he denied the story that he would go to Chicago or that he has even thought of it.

No Action by Congress Likely. WASHINGTON, May 29.—That Congress will not conduct an investigation into the arrest and extradition to California, in connection with the Los Angeles dynamite case, of J. J. McNamara, the Indianapolis labor leader, was indicated today, when the House committee on rules decided to take no action on the Berger resolution providing for such an inquiry. The House Judiciary committee will consider a bill of Representative Korbly, of Indiana, amending the extradition laws.

MCCOOK, Neb., May 29.—Running 50 miles an hour, west-bound train No. 9 and east-bound train No. 12, of the Burlington road, came into collision head-on at 7 o'clock this morning, three miles west of here. Fourteen persons were killed and a score or more injured. Two of the injured may die. The revised list of dead follows: John W. Hyder, Lincoln, Neb., engineer.

Damsoren, Lincoln, Neb., fireman. W. T. Leahy, engineer, Lincoln, Neb. A. J. Ohlson, Lincoln, Neb., fireman. George Freer, Omaha, Neb., express messenger.

Fraser, Omaha, Neb., express messenger. Robert Shepherd, Holdrege, Neb., traveling salesman. Clarence A. Hillsbeck, Holdrege, Neb., traveling salesman.

T. H. Bowers, Burlington fireman, traveling as passenger. Harry McCall, Denver, salesman, Continental Oil Company.

H. J. Galesky, Gretna, Neb. J. D. Wilson, Tohian, Neb. Mrs. H. H. Curberton, Brimfield, Ill. A. J. Tuomo, Fallsdale, Cal.

Two Badly Scalded. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram J. Feeikin, of McCook, Neb., were scalded badly. The Denver and Omaha Western League clubs were traveling in Pullmans attached to the westbound train. The car in which the Denver ballplayers were riding was thrown completely over, but none of them was much hurt.

The dead and injured were brought to this city on special trains, accompanied by company surgeons and physicians sent out from McCook. Railroad men say that a change of running time, which went into effect yesterday, probably was overlooked or forgotten by someone.

Ball Players Hurt. Of the members of the ball teams injured, James McCall, president of the Denver team, had a bone in his foot broken. Pitcher Kinsella had his face badly cut, and Second Baseman Lloyd suffered minor injuries.

Both trains were running at high speed when the collision occurred, but the shock was apparently felt more by the heavy west-bound train, the Colorado Limited, which was made up of a baggage and express car, day coach, diner, two tourist sleepers, a Pullman sleeper and an observation car.

The day coach was reduced to splinters, and in this coach most of the casualties occurred. One of the tourist sleepers, containing the members of the Denver Western League baseball team, was thrown on its side and a number of the occupants, including President James McCall, injured, but none seriously. The baggage car was also overturned.

Engines Are Ruined. Both engines were reduced to a mass of twisted steel, in which were the mangled bodies of the engineers and firemen.

As soon as news of the wreck reached McCook two relief trains, carrying surgeons and nurses, were made up and hurried to the scene of the wreck. The dead and injured will be brought here. It will be several hours before the track can be opened to traffic.

The cause of the accident has not been learned, but it is reported that a misunderstanding of orders occurred. The day coach on the limited was totally wrecked, and in this car most of the casualties occurred.

The tourist sleeper and baggage car were thrown on their sides, but so far as known their occupants escaped serious injury.

THREE BODIES ARE FOUND. Lives Lost in Lodging-House Which Burned When Chutes Destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Several men are known to have perished in a fire that destroyed the Chutes, San Francisco's largest amusement resort, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

Three bodies have been recovered from the ruins of a lodging-house adjoining the park, which was destroyed, and firemen are searching the ruins for bodies of others still unaccounted for.

One of the bodies recovered has been partially identified as that of John Walker, of this city. Another is believed to be that of John Boettlinger, who was asleep in a house which was consumed by the flames. Boettlinger's daughter, however, was not positive in her identification of the remains.

The third body found was that of a small child, believed to be the 4-year-old daughter of Fred Riconie, a carnival manager who lived in the Arcade. Mrs. Mary MacFarland, a nurse, reported to the police after the fire, that she had been unable to find Roy, H. E. Howland, a medium, who had been under her care in the lodging-house. She had started down the stairway with him, but was overcome by smoke. When she revived she was unable to find her patient.

The burned building was the property of Abraham Huse, former political boss, now serving a sentence for bribery in San Quentin Penitentiary.

AVIGNON, France, May 29.—A series of slight accidents impeded the progress of the aviators competing in the Paris-Rome-Turin flight, which was begun yesterday just outside the French capital. Practically all the aviators are repairing their machines and are keeping in the contest.

Roland Garros and Andre Beaumont, who were first and second, respectively, to cross the starting line yesterday, and who arrived here last night, continued their flight today from this city to Nice, the end of the first stage, both men meeting with motor trouble. Garros was forced to land a short distance from Avignon and Beaumont came down at Brignoles.

Freya, the German aviator, and Kimmerring arrived here today. They were cheered by a huge crowd. Kimmerring, after partaking of a hasty luncheon, resumed his flight toward Nice. Henry Weymann, the American, is still repairing his machine at Troyes, 90 miles east of Brignoles.

A strong wind and big sea probably will prevent the aviators from crossing the Mediterranean to Genoa for the present.

The other contestants are reported to be trailing along the course from Paris. Landing near Fennes, Roland Garros' machine was damaged. He procured another and resumed his journey. Nagey broke a propeller, abandoned his aeroplane and returned to Paris.

Manisero is at Avillon with his machine.
