HARLAN DISSENTS FROM MAJORITY

He Opposes Rule of Reason and Sending Tobacco Case to Lower Court.

COMBINATION SHOULD DIE

Supreme Court's Order to Let Trust Get Within Law Is Condemned, as Nothing in It Inspires Desire to Perpetuate It.

Rule of Reason Again Opposed.

In the second place he reiterated the objections he expressed in the Standard Oil decision of two weeks ago to the adoption of the "rule of reason" as a standard for ascertaining what restraints of trade violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

New Combination Not Wanted.

"The record in the case, I think, is abundant to enable the court to render a decision containing all necessary details that will effectually suppress the evils of the combination in question. But the court tends the case back with directions further to hear the parties so as to ascertain whether a new condition cannot be recreated in harmony with the law. I have found nothing in the record which makes me at all anxious to perpetuate any new combination among these companies, which the court concedes had at all times exhibited a conscious wrongdoing.

MEDICINE DEALER WINNER Right to Proclaim Curative Powers Is Upheld.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Drugs may be labeled as curative for man, and yet be absolutely ineffective for that purpose, without violating the National pure food and drugs act, according to a decision today by a majority of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dr. O. A. Johnson.

Johnson was indicted in the Federal court of Missouri, in 1909, on a charge of having violated the pure food and drugs act of 1906. It was alleged that Johnson, doing business under the name of Johnson & Co., shipped from one state to another certain articles designated as "cancerine tablets," etc., the labels upon which were false and misleading in that they implied that the articles would cure and were effective in bringing about the cure of cancer. It was alleged in the indictment that this statement was untrue and the articles were worthless and ineffective for such purposes.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—"The hours of service law for railroad employees," passed by Congress in 1907, was upheld today as constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Oklahoma Anti-Thief Association Has Hot Reception From Pony Starr, His Wife and Joe Davis. Men Flee to Hills.

Dead and Wounded.

The dead: George Maxwell, a well-known stockman.

The wounded: Clifford Heister, son of a ranch owner, shot through the stomach, will die.

E. A. Maxwell, stockman, shot through the groin, will die.

Joe Maxwell, Deputy Sheriff of McIntosh County, shot through right arm.

Pete Graham, a farmer, shot through right hip.

Two other men, unidentified. Desperados Flee, Woman Has Grip.

Pony Starr also was reported to have been shot through the breast, but after repulsing the posse he and Davis mounted their horses, flourished their revolvers and boldly rode through the streets of Forum for the mountains south of town.

Their horses were snatched and bridled by Mrs. Starr during the flight. While she was leading the horses from the barn to the house, one of the posse fired four times at her. Becoming angry because he missed her, he finally threw the gun at her. Mrs. Starr caught the gun and fired twice at the owner, who rode away as fast as his horse could carry him.

A special train brought Sheriff Wisener, 12 deputies, two doctors and one nurse to the scene. Tonight the streets of Forum are patrolled by deputies and searching parties are looking for Starr and Davis.

F. G. Miller, 73, Found Lifeless in Room by Son.

GLADSTONE, Or., May 29.—(Special).—F. G. Miller, a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic, died suddenly Sunday morning at his home here. Mr. Miller, who had been a resident of Oregon since December, was in his 73d year. He accompanied members of Meade Post Thursday to the Barclay and Parkplace schools. He is survived by a son and a daughter, Curtis G. Miller and Leonora D. Miller, with whom he lived.

Sunday morning Mr. Miller's son went to breakfast, his father promising to join him in 10 minutes. When his father did not appear the son went to his room and found him dead.

Members of Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, held funeral services this morning and the body was sent to Kallispell, Mont., where Mr. Miller formerly lived.

DECATUR, Ind., May 29.—Harvey Parker hanged his 4-year-old daughter to a rafter in his barn just before he committed suicide in the same manner today. Mrs. Parker discovered the two

We Want Ten Men!

We have a great proposition for TEN MEN.

We have selected ten TEN-ACRE TRACTS—all joining.

In the heart of that magnificent new district of ours, the BEAVER HOMES TRACTS, at REDLANDS.

TEN MEN can't find another such offer in TEN YEARS.

For every acre of these TEN ACRE TRACTS is of the very richest soil in the Northwest.

Water, schools, stores, churches, close to town and only an hour's ride from Portland down the Columbia River near Goble, Or. Railroad and water transportation—smallest known freight rate.

And the cost is the feature!

Why, TEN MEN, who are in earnest can deal with us for what it would cost them to go out and look up a place. We offer every encouragement to men who are in earnest. We want producers in our district.

Say you are a mechanic or an office man or a streetcar or railroad man or a longshoreman, or teamster or clerk or small business man.

Assume that you have $75 or $100 saved and that you can spare $8 or $12 a month. You can become ONE OF THOSE LUCKY TEN MEN. Total cost of land from $25 to $80 per acre.

Put in a few dollars more, when you can, and arrange to have an acre or two cleared by the economy CHARPIT method. Our district of 3000 acres is perhaps the finest logged-off lands anywhere in Oregon. Gradually, and at small cost, you can have that land ready for producing.

Then you are the most independent man on earth—with nothing left to worry you. For it is the sort of land that gives the highest possible return on your labor—just the sort of land that hundreds of people in the older districts are earning $1000 per acre and up from every year.

CHARPITTING, the new economy land-clearing system, makes this great chance open to you men of limited means.

DO YOU WANT TO BE ONE OF THOSE TEN MEN? Come in today and arrange with us to see the land.
