CENSUS TAKERS HELD AT TAGOMA

Aditional Enumerators Detained on Charges of Fraud.

ALL MAKE SAME DEFENSE

Five Arrests Made Yesterday and Twelve More Men Are to Be Taken Into Custody Before Monday.

TACOMA Wash, June 1 .- (Special.) TACOMA. Wash. June L.—(Special) Five arrests were added today to those made yesterday by United States Depinty Marshals on charges of committing frauds in the Tacoma census. It is believed likely that a majority of the 25 men indicted will be in custody by Monday. Most of those arrested here made the same defense, that they had been ordered to write the names on enumeration blanks from lists furnished by dilizens.

were heard today before Judge Brents.
Attorneys who represented the Mayor occupied the attention of the court this morning with their arguments, in which they attacked the constitutionality of the Allen Commission bill, under whose provisions the election is asked for.

The grounds on which it was attacked were numerous. The main ground, however, was that it violated the state constitution in that it sought to create municipal corporations by special laws and by means of a special classification without regard to

a paragraph of the tariff act which provides for free entry of objects of art of ornamental character or educational value which shall have been produced more than one hundred years prior to the date of importation.

The stone is from King Solomon's quarries in Egypt and, of course, is decidedly above the century mark, but Mr. Laeb writes the Senator that it is extremely doubtful that a rough stone intended for building purposes would be an article of art of ornamental character or educational value. He says that the identity of the stone as a separate and distinct article would date from the time it was quarried and, as it was shown in the papers submitted that the stone was but recently quarried, it therefore cannot make the plea of old age.
