MURRAY'S ERRORS COSTLY

Catcher's Indiscretions Unfortunate for Steen, Who Gives Way to sestner in Seventh-Eighth Blank for Wolverton Crew.

Harry Wolverton sent Harry Ables, his big Texas left-hander, against Portland in the getaway game of the Oakland ceries yesterday, and the big chap shut the Beavers out by a score of 5

Ables pitched fine ball, though toward the end of the game the Beavers collected a few binglets, but even the bunching of two in succession on one or two occasions failed to bring anything in the shape of results across the ter of the situation.

"Big Bix" Steen occupied the hill for the Beavers and he had the misfortune to have his battery partner Tommy Murray, experience an off day, Murray's errors letting in two Oakland runs. And Artic Krueger misjudged a ball and then fell down in the effort to recover himself, which allowed Pearce to corrai a two-bagger which would ordinarfly have been an easy catch for the nifty left-fielder of the Beaver team. These miscues tallied three Oak runs in different innings.

Pfyl Hits to Fence.

In the first inning, Pfyl hit to the fence but was tossed out by when he tried to take two Coy walked and stole second, going all the way to third when Tommy Murray's high throw got away from Peckinpaugh. Coy then scored the first run on Cutshaw's short hit to right.

The Oaks tailled another in the third. Ables singled, and Pfyl doubled, pixting the pitcher on third. Steen then fanned Coy, but Murray dropped the ball and Ables scored, Pfyl going to third and Coy to second. forced at the plate and Coy was caught eff third by fine fielding on the part

In the fourth Wolverton walked and scored when Krueger slipped to the ground in going after Pearce's fly. With Pfyl stowed away in the sev-

Cutshaw brought the latter home with a two-bagger to left, and that ended the scoring, as McCredie sent Kuestner in to but for Steen in the home club's half of this inning, and the tall slant artist finished out the game.

Eighth Inning Blank.

Incidentally, it might be mentioned that the Oaks failed to score in the eighth liming, for the first time during this series. At that, Welverion laced one of Koestner's curves for a nouble, and was the first man up as well, but the big Partland pitcher closed them out without a run scor-

BUTLER AND WIN

Heavy Hitting by Tacoma in First and Fifth Loses for Roadsters.

Duke" Campbell Holds Home Team Down so Well After He Goes in Box That He Will

TACOMA, Wash., June 4.—(Special.)—
Tacoma wen again teday by falling upon Pat Butler in the first and fifth innings. In these two sessions, eight of the 10 hits were made and five runs hung up on the score board in toff field. Butler, who has just been signed by Williams, was released last week by Seattle and his exhibition today indicated that Tighe showed some wisdom in slipping him the hiue envelope.

"Duke" Campbell, a local semi-professional who has also been garneced by Williams, succeeded the festive "Pat" upon the rubber and during the three innings of his incumbency held the Tigers to one hit and no runs. Campbell looks good enough to stick with the Roadsters and Williams will probably make him one of the regular heavers. The pitching staff of the Roadsters is so thoroughly disorganized that any one with a curve ball and a glove can get an interview with the Roadster management.

Annis won his third same against the Annia won his third same against th Annis won his third same against the Tourists for this series by keeping the eight hits which were obtained off his delivery pretty well scattered. His own error in the fourth inning permitted Speas to score. Speas had gone to first on a safe hit and Annis tried to catch on a safe hit and Annis tried to cutch him off the bag. His throw was low and Speas went to third before it had been returned to the infield. Bradley walked and the double steal was effective. The second run made by the visitors came in the seventh inning. Bradley singled and Campbell followed suit; Miller drove out a safe one and the Portland catcher scored. Campbell was caught while napping off second base and Mundorff ended the suspense by driving out a long fly to right field which Kennedy garnered with great eclat. Score:

NEEDLES, CAL., MAN ASKS FOR CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD.

Tom McCarey, of Los Angeles, Says He Will Match Davies With Kaufman on Saturday,

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 4.—(Special.) -Tom McCarey, manager of the local boxing club, has discovered a new "white hope" at Needles, and has signed him for a tryout here in the Vernon arena on next Saturday afternoon, as the semi-final for the Dixon-Rivers main event. six feet four inches tall and weighs between 195 and 220 pounds.

The name of the new fighter is Davies, and it is said that he is a son of old Jack Davies, who once rought Joe Choynski a hard battle. If the old man did fight, the son ought to be a good one, for the toughest fight Corbett ever had was with Choynski, and if the new hope is anything like his father he must be something.

McCarey confesses he does not know much about this new hope, other than that he has been writing in here for a match for weeks, and expressed himself as willing to take on anyone McCarey could get for him.

Davies declares he has had a number of fights and that his last one was with Terry Mustain, whom he knocked out in two rounds. Terry is not much, for he is too good natured to be a fighter, but anyone who can knock him out in two rounds is far from being a dub. He did not say anything else about what he had Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, csmetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.

Outfielder Pettigrew, who until re-cently, sported the livery of the Wichi-ta Club in the Western League, has been signed by Judge McCredle, and will join the Portland Roadsters during the week. He will be stationed in left or centerfield in the hole made vacant or centerfield in the hole made vacant by the transfer of the wily George Ort to the Seattle club.

Pettigrew batted 283 for Wichita in 143 games last season, and fielded at a .938 clip. He is said to be danger-ously fast. The record-book credits him with 23 stolen bases and 25 sacri-fice hits. George Ort made a hurried trip to Portland Saturday night to straighten out some business affairs when informed of his sale to Seattle. Dugdale will use him at first, switching Weed back to the garden. Miller is filling in for Nick Williams in the meantime. in for Nick Williams in the meantime.

If the new man, Pettigrew, comes up to his batting recommendations he should prove a strength, to the Hoadsters. With the present array of talent, Spokane, Tacoma and Vancouver seem to be the contenders. Portland ranks a shade under the class of the leading trio, but local admirers of the class B squad are looking to the new acquisition to change the balance of acquisition to change the balance of power. Charley Swain, of the Vancouver club is to be sold to Milwaukee, says Dame Rumor. Swain is not needed, as Harri-son, the New England League recruit is bitting just as well and fielding and running the bags in even better fashion, Swain tried out with Washington this Spring but failed to make good.

Spring but failed to make good.

Jess Baker, flat-hoofed southpaw who held the Portland Coasters down to a 1-2 score in the Spokane interleague game in this city last Fall, impersonated the cringing worms Saturday and turned. Buker was sold by Spokane to the Chicago White Sox, but the loud vibrations of his training season renown proved excess baggage when Comiskey's pets returned to Chicago soil and his sole occupation has been catching the ball for the batter knocking up fungo hits. Last week he was taken to the effete East, with its Bowers, Broadway and Bunker Hill, but when called upon in Boston to relieve vaudevillian, "Doc." White, he responded nobly and held the Bostons better than ever.

Baker will probably be used more frequently from now on.
