

CAPTAINS REPORT TO CHIEF SEYMOUR

Only One Recognizes White in Clash of Authority in San Francisco.

CRISIS EXPECTED TODAY

Issue Will Come When Police Commissioners' Appointee Insists on Recognition—Officers Are Between Fires.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—(Special.)—The first rumblings of the storm which is expected to break Monday morning in the Police Department...

Both Chiefs on Duty. White and Seymour were much in evidence around police headquarters this morning.

Captain Frank Norman, clerk to Seymour, called on Captain Kelly on the telephone and asked why he had not sent in the usual written report to Seymour.

"I sent my report to the chief," Kelly is declared to have said. "Which chief?" asked Norman.

"Chief White," was the reply, and the conversation ended there. Chief Seymour was asked before he left police headquarters early in the afternoon if he would take any action against Captain Kelly because of failure to report to him.

"This is awfully hard on the men of the department," replied Seymour, "and I do not intend to take any action against them. I shall take no action against Kelly or against any member of the department who believes that he is justified in performing the duties of the chief of police until the court orders me to cease."

There will undoubtedly be a big crowd at police headquarters in the morning to witness the outcome of Chief White's order to the company commanders to report to him, for upon their action will hinge to a great extent the attitude of the men under them.

Opinion Expected Today. Judge Seawell, of the Superior Court, it is believed, will give a written opinion in the writ of review and prohibition tomorrow morning. This will clarify the attitude of the court and make more certain the exact status of the two chiefs.

HOUSE MAY INVESTIGATE

Ex-Secretary of State Wins Consent to Payment From Boxer Indemnity Reserve of Claim Dating Back to 1862.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(Special.)—There is talk in the House of an investigation of the fee of $180,000 received by John W. Foster, ex-Secretary of State and widely known to the world because of his former connection with the Diplomatic Corps of the United States, for his successful collection in behalf of the heirs of a soldier of fortune of a claim against the Chinese Government dating back to 1862.

The claim originated from the death of Frederick T. Ward, who was killed in the service of the Chinese government in 1862.

China paid to the United States more than $24,000,000 as indemnity for the Boxer outrages. Of this amount the United States subsequently returned more than $11,000,000, with the exception of $13,000,000, which was retained to cover possible related claims.

Mr. Foster used his influence with the State Department, with the United States Minister to China and with many Chinese officials whose friendship he had won on a diplomatic mission to China in connection with the war between China and Japan.

LOWER WOOL IS FAVORED

Duty Declared to Represent Far More Than Difference Between Cost of Production at Home and Abroad.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 11.—In the speech he made in the House, urging that the tax on tobacco be increased in order that the tariff on wool and wooleens might be reduced, Representative Warburton, insurgent of Washington, declared that he intended to vote for the wool tariff bill now pending in the House, even though it was reported by a Democratic ways and means committee.

He classified the pending measure as more nearly in conformity with the Republican platform than with that of the Democratic party.

"I do not believe," he said, "that there is any such difference between the cost of producing woollen goods here and abroad as to justify the present tariff on this schedule. The cost of manufacturing in every other line of industry has grown cheaper year by year, as improved methods and improved machinery have been adopted, and it would seem more than passing strange if those engaged in the woollen manufacturing have not had the same experience."

Interests Oppose Reduction. "If we are not able to reduce the tariff enacted 41 years ago, when we were unable to arrive at the point where we may reduce it, those interested in the schedule we are considering fight the reduction of it even a penny."

Protective Theory Recognized. "I favor the bill because I believe it is a protective measure. None could have been drawn that in every particular recognizes the essential doctrine of a protective policy more than this bill does."

MANY PUGILISTS MEET. FIGHT COLONY IN SAN FRANCISCO IS FAST GROWING.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—(Special.)—This city promises soon to figure as large on the pugilist map as it did before Governor Gillett knocked out the Jeffries-Johnson match.

These charges, in substance, will be made when the fight opens.

That James Smith, Jr., former United States Senator from New Jersey, backed Dr. Wilson for the Governorship against a field of three other candidates.

That Smith handed out between $50,000 and $75,000 of his own money in the preliminary and subsequent campaign for Dr. Wilson's nomination and election; that Dr. Wilson placed himself under the charge of the state Democratic organization, allowed it to pay his expenses, arrange his tours and make other plans; that after election Dr. Wilson turned upon the organization, denounced Smith, and prevented his election to the United States Senate, and that, therefore, he became a traitor to a controversy with the Democratic state chairman, and has antagonized both the leaders and friends of the leaders to such an extent that they now regard the man, whom they assert they have made, as a menace to the party's success.

It has been taken for granted of late that Dr. Wilson was sailing straight into the leading position for the Presidential nomination. No attention has been paid by the public to whom Dr. Wilson has been making his appeals, to the causes which are operating quietly against him.

"Unfairness" Chief Issue. The chief grievance of the anti-Wilson faction of New Jersey is based on what they regard as his unfair treatment of ex-Senator James Smith, Jr. The ex-Senator was a candidate for election to the Senate. As he had contributed generously to the campaign, fund that helped to bring the Democratic victory to New Jersey, and had also given to the other leaders the benefit of his political sagacity, he expected no serious opposition within the party.

Afterward Senator Smith spent money lavishly in Dr. Wilson's behalf. It was common rumor that he spent between $50,000 and $75,000 of his own money in the preliminary and subsequent campaigns.

Wilson Silent in Campaign. Dr. Wilson was elected, and with him a Democratic majority in the Legislature on joint ballot.

Martine Choice of Minority. It was asserted by Senator Smith that as the total Democratic vote normally was about 290,000 in the state, Martine had been the choice of only one-fifth of the Democratic voters, and the members of the Legislature were not under any obligation to vote for him.

Governor's Backing Strong. Governor Wilson, however, has the backing of many powerful men in the state, and has a following among the people in his own state.
