Henderson Is Steady Throughout Contest and Locals Take Series.

VERY DANGEROUS

Rapps' and Ryan's Errors at Conclusion Nearly Allow Visitors to Score, but McCredies Are Supreme at Finish.

With Benny Henderson pitching grand ball all the way, Walter McCredle's Beauers celebrated "get-away day" at the Vaugha-street park pesterday aftermeon by defeating the Angeles, with "Flame" Delhi pitching, by the score of 2 to 1. Incidentally, the victory gave the Beavers the long end of the aeries, four games to two for Lee Angeles.

Delhi got away nicely for six innings, during the first fixer of which he did not allow a hit, but in the seventh the Beavers took his measure nicely, and tailled twice after two men were out. Krueger opened the seventh with a tap which got away from Akin, who tried to stab it hare-handed. Rappe lit to Delmas for an out at first, which advanced Krueger to second, and Sheehan's tap to Delhi seat. "Romeo" to third. Peckingish, who earlier had landed on Delhi for the first hit Porthisid made, fouled off several of the good ones and then walked. "Peck" atole second and Toesnay Murray get Delhi into the hole and then laced his "cripple" for two sacks, scering Krueger and Peckingangh. With Henderson working in grand Delhi into the hole and then liced his "cripple" for two sachs, scering Krusger and Peckingangh.

With Henderson working in grand style, these two runs loomed like a mountain to the fans, but for good measure the Beavers put another run arress in the eighth. In this inning Chadbourne opened with a single over Metager's bend, and Hedgers enorificed. Kyan could not get the pill past Delmas, but Chadbourne was safe at third, and when Motager fumbled Krusger's slow grounder. Chadbourne scored the third run scualred by the home team. In the ninth Rapps and Ryan came mear scrambling all the eggs and allowing the Angeles to its up the proceedings, but Henderson was steady in the pinch and wormed out of the hole with the allowing of but one run, though a hit at one stage of the linking would have tied up the score.

Akin opened the ninth with a pop fly to Peckinpaugh, but Rernard shoved a single past Rodgers. Daly bunted to Rapps, who made a bag 'peg' to Feckinpaugh at second, and both Angeles were safe. Bernard at second and Daly at first. Smith walked, fifting the bases, and only one man was out. Metager filed to Ryan, on which Bernard counted, and Roddy, Instead of holding Daly at second and Emith at first, tried to get the speedy Bernard at the plate, which allowed both Angel runners to advance to third and second. Delmas was the halter to face Henderson in this pinch, but he failed to deliver, his grounder to Rodgers being fielded cleanly and the same was over.

Fanwell came to Portiand optional on his making good with the Beavers, and when McCredie decided that he would not do for the Pacific Const League team. Cleveland resalled him and sold him immediately to New Orleans. McCredie wanted to get Fanwell for the Northwestern League team, but yesterday the Cleveland crub exercised its option and notified McCredie to send the pitcher to the New Orleans club.

A first-class pitcher will soon be added to the Beaver staff, for McCredie has lines out on a high-class bex artist, and while at Los Angeles this week he is also going to try to persuade George Samhes, the young Ventura pitcher, to join the Beavers. Sanches deserted the club at Santa Maria last Spring, as he became discouraged at the prospect of bucking the big hunch of pitchers being tried out by McCredie, and left for his home. The Beaver leader rather likes Sanchez, and hopes to try him out thoroughly in the near future.

The Portland ream left for the south with but five pitchers, Steen, Seaton, Kossiner, Henderson and Henkle forming the Beaver twirling staff, but the Portland leader expects to return with both Sanchez and a new man in harness.

-Bob Brown sat on the bench for the first time this senson but the presence of the peppery leader of the Vancouver Beavers did not save them from crush-ing defeat at the hands of Nick Williams' Portland Roadsters. Score, 7

The fielding of both teams was good but Jimmy Clark, the former pride of the University of Washington, was as prodigal with free transportation as the railroads of old about the time the Legislature convened. To make matters still worse, the Roadsters would drop in a hit now and then where it did the most damage. Before he was finally banished Clark had walked nine men and the count was six runs and four hits against him in four and one-third innings. In each of three innings Jimmy handed out the transportation to three, although one of the walks was charged against Brashear. The fielding of both teams was good Brinker remained on the mound two and two-third innings, during which Portland got one more run on a hit, a steal, a low throw to second by Shea and a wiid pitch. Brinker walked only one man who did not score.

Vancouver out-hit Portland nine to five and three of the hits were doubles. In four innings two hits were dropped but Archer's pitching, helped along by excellent support, bridged all the dangerous points.

excellent support, bridged all the dangerous points.

One of the best plays of the game came in the fourth when Brashear had opened with a double. Swain then drew a pass. Shea banged a liner to center which Shea returned accurately to the plate, retiring the running and preventing Vancouver from starting a raily.

With one exception, all of Vancouver's hits were clean, and Portland is entitled to credit for putting up a fine defensive battle as well as taking advantage of the peor pitching against them to get their runs over. Score:

M. G. Graves Motors Mile on Track in 48 Seconds, Making New Record.

BIG CROWD IS PLEASED

In Twelve-Mile Race Coe C. White and Charles Dyde Make Whirlwind Finish, Being 3-5ths Seconds Apart at Finish.

Setting what is said to be a new world's flat circular track metercycle record for one mile, M. G. Graves yesterday sped around the Country Club track on his seven-horsepower Merkel vacer in 48 seconds flat. Courting accident—perhaps death—on every turn. Graves, who is a professional rider, gave a splendid exhibition of speed, bettering a mile a minute in both demonstrations.

His first ride was a one-mile run against time with a flying start and he circled the track, taking the outside path, in 51 2-5 seconds. Later he rode a five-mile exhibition run against time, making the distance in four minutes.

making the distance in four minutes. 234; seconds. It was on his second lap in this ride that he made the mile in 48 seconds.

Speeding at the rate of a mile a minute and taking the sharp curves at full speed, the riders of the Portland Motorcycle Club, under whose auspices the mest was held, made it the most spectacular and pleasing motorcycle racing card ever given in Portland. There was "something doing" every minute. minute.

Few better races have ever been ridden here than the 12-mile race for five-horsepower machines, Coe C. White, on a Thor, and Charles Fyde, astride an Indian, finishing the long speedy grind one length apart, White being the winner. The time was 13:33 1-5, Dyde's time being 3-5 of a second slower than White's. It was a heautiful race from the start, White and Dyde jockeying all the while, first one going ahead, then the other. On the 10th mile White got a lead of 50 yards on Dyde and looked an easy winner, but on the final turn before coming into the home stretch, Dyde sped faster and nearly overtook the flying Thor rider. Both men were roundly cheered for their thrilling work.

Another pretty battle was the race in the four-horsepower 15-mile race. Fred Nowotney, riding an Indian, lapped all the other riders in the race, passing the last man on the home stretch of the final mile. Round after
