200 Latest, Smartest, Stylish Tailored Suits

Selling Regularly From $22.50 to $32.50

Friday Only $12.50

You Can Wear These Remarkable Suits Far Into the Fall

—Had we selected these suits personally, we could not have displayed better judgment or taken more care in the way of styles and materials than did this manufacturer who sends them to us.

—They represent his best sample suits, of which he has insufficient material to take additional orders.

—We know this manufacturer so well, the class of materials he uses, that at the price we sell these suits to you on Friday the cost of materials is a great deal more than the finished garments. A Great Economy Sale.

—Man-tailored suits, of course, made of serges, worsted, mixtures and novelty materials. All coats made in the latest 24-inch lengths. Some are plain tailored, while others are braided. The skirts are all made in the most approved and favored styles. In all the standard colors of Summer.

—These suits are displayed in our windows and in the suit department, but none will be sold, none sent C. O. D., no mail orders, or sent on approbation.

Hammocks Good and Bad

—Let's go behind the scenes. Let us delve into the making of hammocks. You will find two qualities on the market now; one made up very showy, of poorly-woven, inferior materials, that spells disappointment after your hammock is strung on your porch a very short while.

—Then take again the hammocks that we sell. Each one bears a guarantee of honesty in making and materials. Hammocks that will withstand the very hardest wear, and can be used next season with equal service. It's poor economy to buy cheap hammocks; that is why we sell good ones only.

HARVESTER HEAD CALLED

McCormick to Be Heard by Lorimer Investigating Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Lorimer investigating committee of the Senate today appointed as counsel John Marble, of this city, and John J. Healy, of Chicago. Mr. Marble for years has been attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Healy served as counsel for the Helm committee of the Illinois Senate in its Lorimer inquiry. Although the committee's hearings will not begin formally until Thursday, June 22, a special hearing will be given to Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester Company, before that date. Mr. McCormick sails for Europe the latter part of next week and the committee is desirous of obtaining his evidence

ALUMNI HOLDS MEETING

Willamette University Graduates Visit Their Alma Mater.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Or., June 15.—(Special)—The banquet of the Alumni Association of Willamette University was held at the Marion Hotel last evening. It was the best attended function of the kind ever conducted by Willamette Alumni, nearly 200 graduates and faculty members being in attendance. In addition to the regular programme, the following participated: Mr. Cleaver, of La Grande, representing Eastern Oregon, spoke of educational progress in that section of the state; ex-President Hoyt contrasted the old order of things at Willamette between 1859 and 1881, when he was head of the institution, with the present; Judge Galloway, of the Circuit Court, showed the rapidly-
