Lee Barkley Wins Prize for High Score of Tournament.

EUGENE, Or., June 15.—(Special.)—
The honors of the Pacific Indian annual trap shoot, which closed here today, were carried off by Lee Barkley, of Seattle, who won the Raiph Miller high-average trophy for the entire tournament and won three times in succession, the Chingren challenge medal, consisting of 80 singles and 10 pairs of doubles. Barkley and Poston tied for high gun today with a score of 168. Reid and Caldwell tied for second place with 115. The scores were better than any previous day, nine men ahooting over 5h per cent.

Fifty-five marksmen were in attendance from all over the West and they say that the Eugene grounds are the best on the Coast. It is probable that the annual tournament will be held here hext year. The visiting marksmen will be taken up the McKenzie River tomorfow for a two days' fishing irlp as the guests of the Eugene Gun Club:
