CHICAGO, June 20.—(Special.)— Practically ignoring the fact that a man had been murdered, scores of arrests made and countless riotous scenes enacted in all parts of the city today by disgruntled "striking peddiers." Mayor Harrison threw the administration's support to the "strikers" by ordering the police department to suspend enforcement of the "antinoise" ordinance until the Council Judiciary committee has disposed of a proposed amendment to the measure.

At West Twelfth and South Leavitt streets, an ice peddler fell a victim to the "strikers." He was dragged from his wagon and beaten and the vehicle was overturned. The man selzed an ice hook from the overturned wagon and, armed with this weapon, charged the "strikers" and wounded several of them before they retreated.

The reception-room of the Mayor's office was filled to overflowing with a delegation of over 500 men and women who wanted to plead the cause of the peddlers. The proposed amendment will give the peddlers the right to call their wares between 3 and 4 o'clock.

PORTLAND PASTORS SPEAK

Bev. W. S. Holt and Rev. J. V. Milligan Among Those to Deliver Addresses Before International Session in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—A demonstration of what Sunday school work has done for Oriental children was the most impressive feature of today's session of the International Sunday School Association. Hindus, Chinese, Japanese and Koreans, from the Japanese Sunday schools of San Francisco, being garbed in the land of their parents, took part.

One hundred and seventy-five Japanese, 400 Chinese, and 12 Korean children took part, and led by a Chinese boy 10 years old, all joined in singing hymns. The exercises were followed by an address by Rev. William A. Brown, of Chicago, international missionary superintendent who gave some personal experiences along "the firing line."

Colonel Joins Posse.

Two hours after the stranger left the Pelot ranch in the direction of Grays Lake, on the Wyoming line, a party of weary possemen straggled into the ranch and informed Pelot of the identity of his visitor. The Colonel had heard nothing of the murder of Kidd or the incidents that followed. He saddled his best horse and led the posse in the direction taken by the bandit. Some of the riders were assigned to follow the roads to Grays Lake and Jackson's Hole, in the hope of heading off the fugitive.
