ASTORIA, Or., June 20 .- After stormy afternoon, in which several men ominent in Pythian affairs were defeated, officers of the grand lodge of feated, officers of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythlas were chosen by the 100 delegates in session.

Marion F. Davis, of Union, past grand chancellor, was elected supreme representative from Oregon to attend the supreme lodge meeting, together with L. M. Curl, of Albany, the holdover.

Details of the election of the officers of the grand lodge were not obtainable, but it is understood that several met with overwhelming defeat, while others were barely landed in office.

L. R. Stinson, of Salem, was accorded fresh honors by his election for the 16th consecutive time to the office of grand recorder and keeper of the seal.

J. W. Maloney, of Pendleton, was elected for the eighth consecutive time to the office of grand master of the exchequer.

Old Officers Not Promoted.

The officers were not elected according to promotion by chair, as had been expected. Those chosen for the coming year were: Frank T. Wrightman, of Balem, grand chancellor; J. H. Gwinn, of Pendleton, grand vice-chaquellor; J. H. Westcott, of Gaston, grand prelate: I. R. Stinson, of Salem, grand keeper of records and seal; J. W. Maloney, of Pendleton, grand master of oxchequer; George Roza, of Marshfield, grand mas-

George Rose, of Marantica, grain mas-ter at arms: Roy Williams, of Browns-ville, grand inner guard; Nathaniel Jones, of Astoria, grand outer guard. Union B. Hunt, of Indianapolis, president of the board of control of the insurance department, and a past grand chancellor of his state, delivered a chancellor of his state, delivered a lengthy address. He was formorly sec-retary of State of Indiana. At tomor-row's meeting, the delogates will name the place for the next meeting. Port-land will be chosen, according to the sentiment already displayed.

Sisters Elect Today.

The dramatic order of Knights of The dramatic order of Knights of Ehorassian held high carnival last evening, beginning with a street pazade participated in by the military band from Fort Stevens, the Boy Scouts Centennial Drum Corps, of Astoria, and 100 tyros who were initiated. The evening ended with a big banquet.

The Pythian Sisters did not elect officers, this being reserved for Wednesday morning.

With 52 voting members present the lodge initiated 23 in the grand temple rank. A secret session, at which the ritualistic work was exemplified, was held in the evening. The ladies of Astor Lodge entertained at luncheon today. Mrs. Ellisa Stinson, of Salem, will probably be elected grand chief, Mrs. Mai Gevurtz, of Portland, having signifed her intention to withdraw from the contest. The other officers are problematic. George W. Hochstodler, an East Side erchant of Portland, was honored by resolution of congratulation by the delegates at the session of the knights. He was present at the organization of the grand lodge body 30 years ago and has not missed a meeting since. He is a past supreme representative and member of the lodge at Albany.

ABERDEEN MAN MISSING

Friends of School Teacher Fear He Drowned in Queets River.

ABERDHEN, Wash., June 30.—(Special.) -Walter Gillespie, who has been teaching school in the Quests district, disappeared Wednesday from his boarding place, and his friends have not seen or heard of him since. The boat that he arsed when hunting and fishing has also disapepared. It is believed that he was drowned in the Queets River.

The mail carrier from the Queets country brought the news Saturday to Moclips. He says that Gillespie nearly lost his life in the river a few weeks ago. The missing man's father and mother from Philadelphia have been visiting their son, and expected to start for the East in a few days. He would have accompanied them on their trip home.

with Brampton.

When Brampton returned home, he soon learned that Kong Loy had traded horses with him without his consent and he became angry. Early this morning he came to Vancouver and called at the office of the County Attorney, Fred W. Tempes, and he summoned Kong Loy. Each told his side of the story, and as Brampton did not carre to have Kong Loy arrested, gave Early this cent. desire to have Kong Loy arrested, gave him until 6 o'clock tonight to put the horse back in the barn, and take away the balky one.

In telling his story, Kong Loy, who wears American clothes, smokes Havana cigars, and drinks kentucky corn whisky, said that he gave Brampton a good horse for the balky one and $10. He tried to work him, but couldn't. He asked the hired man, a Chinese, to work the horse to a milk nese, to work the horse to a milk wagon, but as soon as he was hitched up, the horse kicked the driver, disabiling him. A white man, working on the ranch, made fun of the Chinaman who was kicked, and said he would instruct him how to drive.

Getting in the rig, he tried to make the irate animal move, but instead, he suffered a kick that put him to bed. The milk wagon also was badly damaged.

Kong Loy pleaded with the farmer to trade back with him, but Brampton was obdurate.

Kong Loy falled to put the horse back on threats of suit from Bramp-
