

PORT FOLK SEE LEBANON SHOW

Strawberry Festival Opened Auspiciously With Success Assured.

AUTO PARTY MAKES TRIP

Feature of Programme on First Day Is Discussion of Subject of Good Roads Among Motorists and Show Officials.

LEBANON, Or., June 23.—(Special.)—The people of Lebanon today helped the residents of Lebanon to open the annual strawberry festival yesterday by turning out in large numbers. The chief feature on the opening programme was the discussion by local and foreign speakers of the subject of good roads.

Two automobiles conveyed from Portland the following: C. C. Chapman, Highway Improvement; Dr. Andrew C. Smith, Anas Moore, Frank C. Riggs, Dwight Edwards, C. C. Chapman, Phil S. Bates and M. N. Danks.

The trip to Lebanon was made via Newberg, McMinnville, Amity, Independence and Albany. The mileage out was 104 miles, and the run was made in five hours, including a stop at McMinnville and one or two other points. The journey took the party through the scenic beauties of Washington, Yamhill, Polk and Linn counties.

Senator Miller Is Elected. Arriving at Lebanon the party was met by Senator M. A. Miller and the women of Lebanon furnished dinner. Afterwards the "Good Roads" meeting was held in a large tent and a number of speeches were made.

The next speaker was Judge J. N. Duncan, County Judge of Linn County who was spending a great deal of money on his roads, and they were constantly being improved.

The chairman next introduced C. T. Frail, president of the Oregon Association for Highway Improvement, who referred to the work of highway commissions in other states—particularly New York and Michigan.

Returning from Albany the party started at 4:30 P. M. and passed through Jefferson, Salem, Astoria, Cannon Beach, and Clifton, scheduled to arrive in Portland at 9 o'clock.
