HOOD RIVER OFFICE SANS DEPOSITORS.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Although the postal savings bank has been in operation here four days now, Postmaster Yates announces that he has not had a single depositor. Mr. Yates does not think the deposits here will ever reach a large amount because of the character of the population of the Valley. He asserts, however, that he now has deposited with him, for postoffice money orders issued to the owners, about $500. This sum, of course, will be turned into the postal bank as soon as those who make use of the money order system learn that they may draw an interest of $2 per year on each $100 deposited, instead of paying 30 cents for the privilege. Whooping cough is not dangerous when the cough is kept loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has been used in many epidemics of this disease with perfect success. For sale by all dealers.

SUICIDE TRIED AS SCARE

Man Goes to Rockpile for Jumping Into River to Frighten Wife.

In an attempt to frighten his child-wife, 15 years old, Joe Signette, of 360 Front street, threw himself into the river at the foot of Mill street, Thursday evening, but was pulled out by fireman Fuller. He was arrested for being drunk and disorderly, and was sentenced to serve 60 days on the rock pile. Fuller was approached by Charles Gosh, brother-in-law of Signette, who reported that he had committed suicide. Fuller sent in a call for Hugh Brady, the city riverman, and for the patrol wagon, and then ran to the scene of the attempt. He found Signette paddling around in the water very much alive and pulled him ashore. Signette was arrested, recently, charged with vagrancy. His girl wife called at the police station yesterday to inquire as to the disposition of the case, and expressed contentment over the sentence.
